

Parties Planned During Week For Bridal-Couple

Among those who will entertain this week in honor of Miss Frances Thornton and Bryan Broadfoot, whose wedding will take place on Saturday afternoon at St. James church will be the following friends:

Miss Betty Swain on Tuesday when she will give a luncheon at St. John's Tavern. Mrs. J. Frank Hacker on Tuesday evening at her home in Forest Hills at a bridge party. Wednesday, Mrs. E. L. White and Mrs. John N. Alexis at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Alexis in Oleander; Wednesday evening, Mrs. L. W. Preston at cocktails at her home in Forest Hills; Thursday, Miss Mary Davis and Miss Betty Blue Willis at luncheon at the Governor Dudley; Friday, Mrs. W. H. Thornton will entertain with a luncheon at her home in Forest Hills for the bridesmaids; and Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Broadfoot will give the after rehearsal party at the Cape Fear club; on Saturday the grandmother of the bride-elect, Mrs. W. W. Holladay, will give a luncheon for the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Charles Davant Will Head District Legion Auxiliary

NEW BERN, April 14.—At the annual district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary held here at the Presbyterian recreation center, Mrs. Charles Davant of Morehead City, was nominated as district committeewoman, to succeed Mrs. R. S. McGahey of New Bern. Mrs. Julius Dees of Bayboro was named as alternate. Mrs. McGahey, a former department president, presided. Visitors were welcomed by City Clerk C. T. Hollinger, Legion Post Commander T. Gates Matthews, and Mrs. R. S. Davant, of the hostess auxiliary unit. Mrs. Luther Hamilton of Morehead City responded. Mrs. J. W. Hendricks of Statesville, state president, spoke on the various phases of work before the organization, particularly stressing the rehabilitation of ex-servicemen. Members were urged to help raise the quota of $792,000 in the Seventh war loan drive, by which 1,200 returning servicemen would be given hospital treatment for four months. The program of the state organization was also emphasized by Miss Avelia Adams, secretary-treasurer. She reported that a total of $99,400 worth of memorial poppies had been ordered for this year. After the business, the delegates were served luncheon at the New Bernian hotel.

Episcopal Churchmen Of County To Hold Corporate Communion

The Episcopal Churchmen of New Hanover county will hold a corporate communion at 7:30 a. m. Sunday April 22, at St. James church, Wilmington. The Rt. Rev. Thomas Darst, Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, will be the principal celebrant. This service is being held in recognition of Bishop Darst's coming retirement and of his thirty years of devoted service as Bishop of this Diocese. Immediately following the service a breakfast for the churchmen attending will be held in the Great Hall of St. James' Parish House. All churchmen are invited to attend and it is expected that every parish in the county will be well represented.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morgan announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Louise, April 11 at Marion Sprunt annex.

FASHION SHOW MODELS
Top row, left to right: Elizabeth Chenier, Mary Teague, Evelyn Volk, bottom row, left to right, Celeste Jones, Madaline Biggs and Liletha Crabtree, who will act as models in the fashion show at the Cape Fear Armory, Friday evening, April 20, at 8:30 o'clock when the Lions club will sponsor the affair to raise money for the Blind Fund of the club. The dance will follow, the show, getting underway at 9:30 o'clock with music being furnished by Dean Hudson and his orchestra.

Agnes Paton Pollock Weds Dr. Paul Howard Johnstone

NEW BERN, April 14.—Miss Agnes Paton Pollock and Dr. Paul Howard Johnstone, of Washington, D. C., were married here at high noon Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Pollock. The Rev. Hubert Morris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated, in the presence of the immediate families and relatives. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar in the living room, attractively arranged with southern smilax, calla lilies and other white flowers and tall white candles. The bride wore blue-gray crepe, with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Edwin F. Richardson, Jr., sang "For You" and "Calm is the Night" before the ceremony, and afterwards she sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. William M. Bryan played the piano accompaniment, and other wedding music. Following the ritual, Dr. and Mrs. Pollock entertained the wedding guests at a wedding breakfast. The couple left for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 9663 Bexhill Drive, Rock Creek Hills, Kensington, Md. Mrs. Johnstone is a graduate of New Bern high school and Salern college. For two years she held a federal position with the Soil Conservation department, but since the war has been liaison officer in a division of the Board of Foreign Economic Administration. Dr. Johnstone is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, and for two years studied abroad. He holds a degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Son of Mrs. M. H. Johnstone and the late Mr. Johnstone, of Minneapolis, Minn., he held the chair of history at the University of Minnesota before the war. He is the author of a number of books and magazine articles. Since the outbreak of the war he has been the head of a division of the Foreign Economic Administration. Last November he returned to this country from ten months' foreign service in this capacity, and is now located for the present at Washington.

Mesdames Wilder, Jordan Head Clothing Committee For St. John's Church

All members of St. John's parish who are to donate clothing for the United National Clothing collection, are asked to contact the following ladies of the parish: Mrs. H. F. Wilder, 6477 or Mrs. F. R. Jordan 2-3545, who will be glad to make arrangements to receive all articles.

Bowen-Hubbs Engagement Is Announced Here

Mr. and Mrs. Dorman F. Bowen of Wilmington and New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marie, to Captain Howard L. Hubbs, United States Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hubbs of Knoxville, Tenn., now stationed at Camp Lejeune. The wedding will take place within the near future.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Camus, Jr., of 121 S. Harrison street, Sunset Park, announce the birth of a son, C. Albert, 3rd, at Marion Sprunt annex April 12. Mrs. Camus is the former Doris Gann of Wilmington.

Delta Chi Omega Sorority Feted

The Delta Chi Omega sorority was entertained this past week at a card party in the home of Mrs. Caroline Turner, 1703 Ann street. The home was decorated throughout with lovely spring flowers. After a short meeting, the members played bridge and enjoyed delightful refreshments. The members attending were: Mesdames Margaret McKee, Caroline Turner, Jean O'Keef, Liletha Crabtree, Jean Poteat, Mary Ann King, Silvia Chinnis, Harriet Westsell, Misses Madelyn Marshburn, Rosalie Reeves, Eleanor Reeves, Dot Kure, Coleen Page, Marie Burgwin, Miriam Hines and Isley Galloway.

Permenters Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Permenter of Pittsboro, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in Pittsboro on March 25th. There were exactly 50 persons present mostly relatives. They were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Brafford, Ronald Brafford, James Brafford, Billy Brafford, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Owens, Judy Kay Owens, James Smith of Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Funderburk, E. L. Funderburk, Mrs. Audrey Cochran of Draper, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Permenter, Jackie Permenter, Bennie Permenter, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Smith of Durham, Mrs. L. M. Permenter, Mrs. O. L. Rogers, O. L. Rogers, Jr., Wilson Burns, Marvin Burns, James Neighbors of Pittsboro, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Permenter, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Abrams, Faydene Smith, Margatha Smith, Peggy Smith, Janis Smith, Raye Smith, Jaye Smith, J. W. Permenter, Jr., Donald Permenter, Betsy Permenter, Elizabeth Hamlet, Bennie Hamlet, Mrs. Gus Clark, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Permenter, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hamlet, all of Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Permenter received many lovely gifts. After all were gathered together they had a large table placed on the lawn centered with a large anniversary cake.

Miss Mae Clark Entertains For Frances Thornton

Miss Mae Clark entertained Friday evening at bridge at her home in Oleander honoring Miss Frances Thornton, whose marriage will be an event of April 21.

The lower floor of the home was decorated with spring flowers and during the evening an ice course featuring a green and white motif was served.

Guests were: Miss Thornton, honoree, Miss Juliette Robertson, Miss Anne Burr, Mrs. William Thornton, Miss Louise Hooper, Miss Mary Davis, Miss Betty Blue Willis, Miss May Taylor, Miss Alice Sprunt, Miss Jocelyn Peck, Miss Louise Wells, Miss Gibbs Holmes, Miss Margaret Groover, Miss Emma Trask, Miss Betty Swain and Mrs. Ted Bennett.

Miss D'Lugin Weds Lieut. Vinokur, USNR

The marriage of Miss Doris D'Lugin and Lieut. (j.g.) Harris Vinokur, USNR, was solemnized on Sunday, April 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D'Lugin on South Seventh street. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Monroe Evans of Fayetteville, and T-Sgt. Ed Leven of Chicago, attended the bridegroom as best man. The bride is a graduate of New Hanover High school and is a student at the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro.

Lieut. Vinokur is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he received his BS degree in commerce. He recently returned on duty in the South Pacific, where he participated in two naval engagements in the Philippines. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Runkick of Fayetteville. Following the ceremony, officiated by Rabbi L. M. Wallace of Charlotte, was a lovely reception held for relatives of the bridal couple. Miss Mary Norma Levine, of this city, and Miss Jeanne Harris of Jacksonville, Fla., served at the refreshment table. The home was decorated for the occasion with smilax, roses and other spring flowers. Lieut. and Mrs. Vinokur spent their honeymoon at Pinehurst.

Miss Mary Baldwin Weds Roy Lamb Here

The marriage of Miss Mary Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Baldwin of Harbor Island, and Roy Lamb, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lamb of Winter Park, was solemnized Saturday afternoon April 7, at 5 o'clock at St. Matthew's Lutheran church with the Rev. A. Howell officiating at the ceremony. Miss Baldwin was given in marriage by her father, and wore a baby blue flannel suit with navy accessories and a corsage of orchids and white roses. Miss Betty Cox, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor and wore a street dress of coral jersey and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom had as his best man his father, John L. Lamb. Ushers were Albert Cox of Wilmington and Cpl. John H. Hager of Chicago.

The bride's mother wore a light blue suit with matching hat and black accessories. Her flowers were white gardenias. Mrs. Lamb, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress with black accessories and white gardenias.

The church was decorated for the ceremony with palms, white peonies and candles. Mrs. Herbert Farrar accompanied by Miss Winifred Davis rendered the nuptial music.

Norway was neutral in World War I but lost 1,000,000 tons of shipping and about 2,000 seamen as a result of submarine warfare.

Remember MAY 13 Cards

SELECT YOUR MOTHER'S DAY Cards

See Our Large Display

PICTURES For Children's Rooms
Some with Thermometers

• SCRAP BOOKS • PHOTO ALBUMS

"EVERYTHING FOR THE OFFICE"

SHOEMAKERS

206 PRINCESS STREET DIAL 2-3332

April is Diamond Month and we proudly present

BLAZING WITH MORE BRILLIANCE

Multi-Facet DIAMOND RINGS

The famous diamonds you've seen in your favorite magazines...flashing with unrivalled brilliance, because of the new, patented, faceted girdle on each magnificent gem. During Diamond Month...and at any time...let us show you our Multi-Facet* diamonds which cost no more than many that may seem pallid by contrast. Multi-Facet* Diamond Rings and matching wedding bands, $90 to $7,500 federal tax included.

HUGGINS Jewelers
125 Princess Street
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. and Foreign Countries

Gay... Daring... Carefree

Outdoor Fashions

—in SPORTS and BEACHWEAR

From your favorite resort centers come these inspirations for an active Summer out-of-doors. The Wonder Dress Shop extends you a special invitation to come in and browse around at any time while downtown shopping.

Cottons

These are the season's most popular numbers... The Styles... The Materials... The Tailoring... as nearly perfect as you could hope to find... Personally selected... Exclusive at The Wonder Dress Shop.

California --- Florida
Inspired These...

BATHING SUITS
One and 2-piece styles... in Jersey... Chintz... Cottons... and a variety of other popular fabrics. These are nationally advertised makes and can only be found in Wilmington at The Wonder Dress Shop.

PLAY SUITS
Cottons... Jerseys... Prints... Solids and Novelty Types... Including Black—which is featured "color" by manufacturers of ultra Smart Play Suits.

SLACKS
Finely tailored and really good looking. In White, Aqua and Beige. You'll need several pair.

SHORTS
Suspender Styles and a variety of others... Twills... Gabardines... Prospecta... Buy several pair while you are about it.

ACCESSORIES
Bathing Cap Beach Shirts
Straw Bags White Slip Cover Bags

Wonder DRESS SHOP