NEWSMAN RECALLS cratic party politics. I wondered, too, how this rumored play-boy of politics would match up against MEMORIES OF FDR the dynamic personality, the punch and vigor in word and action of the Roosevelt who had preceded him in that "Little Cabinet" post.

(Continued from Page One)

It is not my function to appraise

Franklin Roosevelt's place in history or politics, domestic or foreign. My task is only to tell of him as I came to know him more intimately and personally than I have as I saw him year in and year wished it.

ing" in his stateroom to escape the curiosity of friends who board-ed the train along the way as to his political intentions.

That absorption of newspaper folk who are rated trustworthy seems to be a Roosevelt family trait. It was even stronger in Franklin than in Theodore. Many a newshound, old and young, of was to be a sea-going sailor, a my acquaintance can testify

When I came up from stirring days with the Fleet, troops and Marines at Vera Cruiz, Mexico, in August, 1914, my first Washington AP assignment was to take over the Army-Navy run in Washington. It happens that it was from Bill Hassett, one of Franklin Roosevelt's two surviving Presidential secretaries, then an AP man too, that I took over. The closest and most trusted comther surviving secretary, Steve panions. during and after World War I except for the time Steve spent as a machine gun officer with Pershing's crusaders in France.

Naturally when I first met Franklin Roosevelt at the Navy Department I tended to compare him in manner and in performance of his official capacity with his illustrious predecessor and distant kinsman. I can re-call now the charm of his smile as I was introduced by Louie Howe, his secretary. I still can feel the magnetism of his personality taking hold of me. It was an irresistible force to most men, regardless of personal or political differences.

Nevertheless. I wondered how this upstate New York bluestocking of aristocratic Dutch ancestry

USE HEAT

Heat relieves muscle pains—quickly, effectively. To get welcome, continued heat relief, for days, right at the sore spot, apply one big Johnson's RED CROSS PLASTER—or the heavier, warmer Johnson's Back Plaster. . . The mild, active medication gently heats the back, stirs up blood circulation, fights congestion, eases pain. . . Warm cloth covering retains body heat, protects back against chilling, provides continuous support. . . Try this clean, easy, proved way to "heat treat" simple backache and other muscular pains—TODAY. (In case of chronic backache, see your doctor.) . . . Always insist on the GENUINE, made by Johnson & Johnson.

Always insist on the GENUINE, made by Johnson & Johnson.

Johnson's RED CROSS PLASTER Johnson's BACK PLASTER

You can have the Supplemental Contract added to your Fire policy.

preperty by Windsterm, Explosion (Steam Boiler excluded), Automobiles out of control, Falling Misereft, Hall and Riot.

Ask ne for full information from broken tree tops.

cast hung on the mountain tops at Miqual, who will also play a group that time yesterday. The regular of solos. p. m. flight from Pittsburgh had This insures against dam- weather cut off radio communica- more, Mr. Weede has had a suction between the plane and the fairy tale. age that may be done to Morgantown airport, 12 miles from

(Continued from Page One)

crashed in sto-m weather yester-

The big plane, flying from Pitts-

Searchers on foot reached the since it was reported overdue last night. The plane, flight No. 142, left Pittsburgh at 4:37 p. m.

of Preston county.

the crash. Five of the passengers were service men, the others civilians. award.

Luxembourg Radio Says Prince Wilhelm Taken

LONDON, April 15.—(A)—The Luxembourg radio said tonight that the Allies had captured Prince August Wilhelm, fourth son of the late Kaiser, who at one time participations. Critics the country over her of the Reichstag.

Field Marshal August Von Maceastern front in Galicia in the first world war, also had been captured

TODAY and TOMORROW

lasters which followed our other people have repurchased very dearly the freedom which ey been rendered, and the argument is not over the ends to be sought by which they can be achieved.

Thus he led the nation not only out of mortal danger from abroad unsettled purposes which could have rent it apart from within.

When he died, the issues which confront us are definite. But they managed with common sense.

The genius of a good leader is to leave behind him a situation which common sense, without the

in his own time he knew what were the questions that had to be answered, even though he himself ferring him instinctively to those who did not know what the real

Here was the secret of the sympathy which never ceased to flow back to him from the masses of mankind, and the reason why they discounted his mistakes. For they knew that he was asking the right questions, and if he did not always find the right answers, some one, who had learned what to look

(Copyright, 1945, New York

Tribune, Inc.)

You?

TORTURED by burning, itching dryness, or by blistered, cracked skin? Enjoy a hot Resinol Soap foot bath. Then smooth on soothing, energially medicated Resinol specially medicated Resinol. Feel like new, as you relax in quick, lingering comfort.

RESINGLOINTMENT

Hurting

questions were.

for, eventually would.

FEET.

By WALTER LIPPMANN

It is laughable to recall those ROOSEVELT IS GONE inmature reflections now in the The nation has received the wars. For the experience of the light of what the following three of President Roosevelt's past has become part of us, and news decades were to disclose. I mean death with profound sorrow but if we are on better men, we are without dismay. Surely he would have wanted it to be that way. The nation has suffered. In alyoung Frank Roosevelt's capacities as statesman, politician or as "a sailor ashore" eager to promote For the final test of a leader is most every home there is an the welfare of the Navy and its that he leaves behind him in other anxious vigil, in so many, sorrow power and efficiency. It is said men the conviction and the will and irreparable loss. We have to carry on.

o carry on.

The man must die in his aplearned much and learned it in the hard way; few men living topointed time. He must carry away day but have had their whole lives with him the magic of his pres- bent and misshapen by the wars ence and that personal mastery of and convulsions of our epoch. This affairs which no man, however then has been no more excursion, gifted by nature, can acquire ex- no triumphant adventure to be cept in the relentless struggle with celebrated and forgotten. Our evil and blind chance.

ever known any other public man, Then comes the proof of whether as I saw him year in and year of his work will endure, and the test out from the priceless vantage of how well he led his people: point of a place as a friend and which whether when he is no longer able "Whose feet they hurt in the onlooker in the inner circle of his to give voice in their hopes, wheth- stocks: the iron entered into his er the course which he laid out soul." when he was in power fixes the Early, almost immediately became what still is, my closest and dearest friend. We worked the State-War-Navy building together as a team for the AP before as a read of the AP before as a read of the AP before as a read of the AP before in harness as Presidential secretar-diving and of the AP before in harness as Presidential secretar-diving and of the AP before in harness as Presidential secretar-diving and of the AP before in harness as Presidential secretar-diving and of the AP before in harness as Presidential secretar-dential secretar-dentia

ies. Steve Early alone survived dent, like a comet which does not this group. Even Early was on the eve of stepping out for other work began, can decide what he had strong, too rich in resources and when the end came in Georgia.

I suppose, in fact I know—I might have had a place in that Roosevelt White House inner circle team had things he actually did, then his work is founded in reality and entered the work is the first that the work is storing, too first in Pesources and in skill, ever to accept again as irremediable the was again as irremediable the was again to the work and of the work and of the work and of the work and of the work and the wo work is founded in reality and en-What Franklin Roosevelt had to dures.

give was any friend's for the ask-ing, it often seemed. But I pre-In the first hours after the Presferred life on the Washington news ident was dead, men took confront as an AP man and have nev-solation in gratitude, and in their that angle, and from personal connow knows where it is going, and by which they can be achieved. tacts with Franklin Roosevelt that why, and how, felt relief from the I will draw as best I can "Frank- shock and loss.

This noble mood can pass away lin Roosevelt As I Knew Him" in succeeding articles of this series. as it did after Lincoln and Wilson I only hope they will bring the were dead, and high resolve be man himself, not the Governor, squandered and dissipated in the BACK ACHE?

The world leader more but saddened man once said: "the tragedy of wars is that peace is as he stands today before mine and will always stand.

Townstand the world leader more but saddened man once said: "the tragedy of wars is that peace is made by the survivors."

No people has greater reconcilable. Neither in our relations with other reconcilable.

know this than we have: we who sions within us that cannot be know what came ofter Lincoln and after Wilson. Only by bearing it ever in mind can we make sure that all our highest hopes and purposes do not disintegrate un-IN PLANE CRASH der the harsh factionalism of our grace of genius, can deal with successfully. Here lay the political genius of Franklin Roosevelt: that in disabiling which is own time he knew what dom, and the indiscipline which accompanies our individualism.

Yet, though we cannot and did not always find the full anmust not hide from ourselves the swer. It was to this that our peorisk which is imposed upon us ple and the world responded, preburgh to Birmingham was smashed by the death of the leader, who in pieces and the bodies of the personified so much of what we victims mangled. Wreckage lay can hope for and most need to strewn through a thousand yards do, there is good reason to think of ash-reeded underbrush.

had been spotted from the air by one of several planes searching WILL SING HERE

Robert Weede, baritone of the The scene of the crash was in Coopers Rock State forest, situat- Metropolitan Opera Association ed in the Cheat Mountain Range and popular star of the radio networks, will sing in Wilmington at Only a mass of smouldering rub- 8:30 p. m. today under the ausle was left.
Wisps of smoke rose from chared wreckage. Clothing fluttered the New Hanover High School. Admission will be by membership The plane's right tailpiece point- card only. All cards are trans-ed skyward from the wreckage in which only the bodies of the pilot, co-pilot and one woman were recist presented this season by the ognizable. Nearby lay a brief case Concert Association and his appearance has been eagerly await-Searchers discovered a watch ed by the membership. He will stopped at 5:00 p. m. A heavy over- be assisted at the piano by Pablo

A native American, having spent left there 41 minutes late. The bad his boyhood on a farm near Balticess story that might read like a Early winning recognition in his home town of Baltimore, he went from one triumph to another, winning award after

Singing the title role in Rigoletto at the Metropolitan Opera House on February 27, 1941, Robert Weede made his formal debut with that Association and completely swept audience and critics off

Critics the country over, hearing ted in Nazi activities as member him in recital as well as in opera ABSIE, American broadcasting ered extravagant in their praise station in Europe, said 96-year-old of him. Such terms as "finest of him. Such terms as "finest of him." use terms that might be considsinging of the evening" and "magkensen, German commander on the nificent performance" are met in every criticism. The program for toight has been chosen with consideration for the average music lover, and runs from easily accepted songs in English to great arias from the

Two Persons Injured When Car Hits Tree

Two persons were injured yesterday morning about 2:30 a. m. when an automobile driven north on Third street near Orange street hit an oak tree.

The injured were E. W. Calla-han, of 317 North Fourth street, driver of the car, who suffered bruises and abrasions about the face and a possible fracture of the ribs and Mrs. E. W. Callahan, who suffered severe lacerations of the lower lip and abrasion and lacerations of the legs. They were taken to a local hospital, along with a third passenger, J. M. Moore of 15 Court I Lake Forest who escaped injury. All were dismissed after treatment. Callahan told police that he was traveling about 20 miles an hour, when he was blinded by the lights 'oncoming' car. The front end of the auto was considerably damagd. No arrests were made.

FINAL MEETING The season's final meeting of the McClure Fellowship Bible class will be held at 6:30 p.m. today at the YMCA with the Rev. William Crowe in charge.

City Briefs

HELD IN STOREBREAKING Henry Jones, Negro, 44-years old, was booked by city police yesterday evening on a charge of attempt storebreaking and placed under $1,000 bond. He was accused of attempting to enter the Sinclair filling station at 20 South Seventeenth street by breaking a glass in a side door.

One Injured In Mishap At Street Intersection

One person was injured about 5 p. m. yesterday when a Yellow Cab driven east on Princess street by Lee Pollock was turned over by a car driven north on Eleventh street by John Henry Yates, Negro, of Atkinson.

Pollock suffered a bruise over the left eye, according to police reports, and was taken to a local hospital and dismissed after treatment. Police reports also stated that Yates was driving at a high rate of speed, and Yailed to stop before entering the intersection who cannot find work and of the He was arrested for reckless operation of a motor vehicle.

and cannot be used. Under his leadership, the debate on these fundamental purposes has been Nazi Propaganda Officer And Von Mackensen Taken concluded, and the decision has abouts. He also claimed he had lost favor with top Nazis after being expelled from the United but out of the bewilderment over States, that he had served 18 months on the Russian front, and only recently had been released to work on the American sector for the German Foreign Office.

(Continued from Page One)

Thin, nervous, and tugging at his goatee, Zapp said he did not fear capture because he did not consider himself connected in any way with Nazi atrocities.

Visit Our Store For Quality JEWELRY and GIFTS B. GURR, Jeweler 264 N. Front St. ********

Bring Us Your Motor for Repairs
ALL WORK GUARANTEED B & E Electric Motor Repair Co.

230 N. Water St. Phone 2-0122 G. F. Wulff — Harry J. Everett

GLASSES REPAIRED LENSES REPLACED

The Optical Shop In the Jewel Box 109 N. FRONT ST.

mington's Only Lownstairs Store Headquarters For

FINE GIFTS Come In and Make Your Selections! Located Downstairs

THE JEWEL BOX 109 North Front St.

DR. MIKE J. PALMER OPTOMETRIST PHONE 4004

EYES EXAMINED — GLASSES FITTED 120 Princess St.

UPSTAIRS OVER H. & W. CAFETERIA

NOTICE

BEER & WINE DEALERS

Beer and Wine license expire April 30th, 1945. Before new license can be issued it is necessary to file application with the undersigned. Any person, firm or corporation selling beer or wine without a license is liable to indictment for violating said ordinance.

C. R. MORSE

City & County Tax Collector.

-FOR-

DODGE — PLYMOUTH PASSENGER CARS ALSO ANY MODEL DODGE TRUCKS A COMPLETE STOCK OF PARTS FOR ALL CHRYSLER PRODUCTS

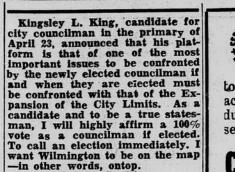

SERVICE.

TO YOUR CAR OR TRUCK BY

Factory Trained Mechanics. Prompt Efficient Service to All! BEAR WHEEL ALIGNING & BALANCING OUR SPECIALTY

SEE US ABOUT OUR BUDGET PLAN We are prepared to finance repair jobs of all kinds . No matter how large or small.

216 N. Second Street

—in other words, ontop.

Kingsley L. King,
Candidate in the forthcoming election for councilman, as of the pri-mary of 4-23-45. —Political Advt.

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

IT IS PROPER

to look ahead to debt-free home ownership. You can accomplish this through the CAROLINA'S Direct Ra duction Loan Plans,-Economical, satisfactory - with service you will appreciate.

The Three Million Dollar

Carolina Building and Loan Ass'n, "Member Federal Home Loan Bank"

W. A. FONVIELLE, Sec.-Treas.

W. D. Jones, Asst. Sec.-Treas, J. O. Carr, Atty. Roger Moore, Pres. Murray G. James, V.-Pres.

W. B. BRYAN, Manager

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

112 North 10th Street

Poultry Equipment — Insecticides.

With Complete Line of:

Authorized Distributer For the FARMERS COOPERATIVE EXCHANGE

ANNOUNCING

The Opening of an F. C. X. Dealer Agency

-IN WILMINGTON-

Poultry Feeds and Mashes, Dairy and

Live Stock Feed, Pig and Hog Ration and

Goat Feed-Kalsite Grit - Brooders and