COURT RECESSES TO HONOR BRYAN

New Hanover Superior, court which opened yesterday a twoweek civil session, recessed at 10:30 a. m. in tribute to the memory of Judge E. K. Bryan, former criminal court judge for the Eastern division of North Carolina, who died March 5.

The recess, asked in a resolution by the New Hanover Bar association, was completed in a few minutes and the selection of jurymen proceeded.

Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, presiding jurist, acknowledged resolution, adopted by a rising vote of bar members present. It was signed by members of the association's Memorial committee, W. P. Campbell, John Stevens, and George Rountree, Jr.

The resolution follows: "Whereas, the members of the Bar of New Hanover County learned with profound regret of the death on March 5, 1945 of Honorable E. K. Bryan, a member of the New Hanover County Bar for a period of more than fifty years;

"Whereas, the members of the mer associate and friend.

"Now, therefore, be it resolved: loss in the passing of Honorable Alleghany E. K. Bryan, their respect and Al Chem and Dye ______ 161
