Local Women Attend Lumberton Club Meet

Mesdames Louise B. Polvogt, and Ruby Sikes, Misses Ruth Humphrey and Verna Sheppard, members of the local Business and Professional Women's club, were guests of the Lumberton Business and Professional Women's club at their annual banquet held in Lumberton, Monday night at the Lorraine Hotel.

Dr. Irma Henderson Smathers, president of the North Carolina Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, was the speaker of the evening. Dr. Smathers' message was very inspiring. She spoke briefly on the reasons why a club of this nature is organized, and of the many accomplishments that are easily attained by a club as a whole, but otherwise would be difficult and almost impossible for the individual.

She summarized the duties of the various committees and of the wonderful progress they are making. She commented on the history of the club, telling of its organization in 1919, as a request of the United States Government, the United States being the mother nation, and how, at the present time, there are 22 countries represented in International Federation of the Business and Professional Women's club. She brought messages from China, France, Russia, Belgium and England, as she had heard them, from a representative of each of these countries at the National convention. She emphasized the fact that the club sponsored the entire nurses training program in China, making possible the training of every nurse in China and on her battlefields. Dr. Smathers heard General Lem's message of thanks, in which he expressed the gratitude of the Chinese people to the club for making this training possible. She informed the members that the club will have a delegate at the San Francisco conference. She commented very briefly on the work of outstanding personages, mentioning Clara B. Luce, Margaret C. Banning, Pearl Buck and Eleanor Roosevelt, who represented the club.

Mrs. Louise B. Polvogt, president of the local club, gave a report on the increased membership of the local club, and of the state, national and international activities. She briefly stated that we had made plans for participating in the Seventh War Loan drive, commencing May 14, and lasting through June 30, our affiliation with the Y.W.C.A. and plans to serve a buffet supper at the Fifth and Orange USO on April 29.
