P-Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, the defending champion in search of a record seventh triumph here, and Mrs. John Gessler, a honeymooning bride from Chestnut Hill, Pa., today advanced to the finals of the 43rd annual North and South Women's Golf Tournament.

Maintaining her week - long steady pace, Mrs. Page scored a 5 and 4 semi-finals victory over Margaret Gunther, University, Ala., while Mrs. Gessler upset Jeanne Cline, Bloomington, Ill., 1

Mrs. Page was one over even fours when the match ended. She hopes tomorrow to shatter the record of six triumphs she holds jointly with Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, former National Champion from Philadelphia.

Twenty-two-year-old Mrs. Gessler, the former Annette Coar, cored her surprise victory over Miss Cline with a par three on the 18th, where her opponent took a four. The match was closely contested throughout, the result of Mrs. Gessler's poor putting and her opponent's faulty long game.
