

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, April 21.—You can bet almost anything you want that Tuesday's Major League meeting in Cleveland won't bring out the name of a new baseball commissioner. When the news came out that Ed Barrow was turned down for the job, it became pretty obvious that there was a deadlock of some kind. One story is that our group wants a temporary commissioner to serve until after the war.

A JERSEY INJUSTICE
 Jersey Jones, ex-fight manager and publicist, checks in with this remark: "Recent flattering comments about the fine refereeing of Lou Halpenny of Baltimore prompts the observation that talent in the fight racket has reached such a sorry low that even a half-penny is appreciated." . . . Brother, it's better that, no pennies.

CLEANING THE GUFF
 West Coast baseball experts tab Vic Pisetti, 17-year-old Oakland first sacker, as a $125,000-and-up prospect. Vic could have signed with any Major League club for more dough than he got from the Oaks but his idol is Dolph Camilli. . . Lt. George Poschner, star Georgia end who was brought south to keep Frankie Sinkwich from being homesick, lay for three days in the snow and cold near Winnemau Germany, after rushing an enemy machine gun nest. He was left for dead when the initial attack failed and found when his company retook the position.

TAKE YOUR PICK
 A Marine combat dispatch from T-Sgt. Billy Goerlich says that Sgt. Jimmy Crowley and Lt. Frank Leahy got together. . . a Marine baseball game and agreed that sports are due for a big year in the Pacific. Said Crowley: "This packed grandstand is definite proof that the men in the service want their sports." . . . A letter to John Peer of the Newark Star-Journal call from ex-sport scribe Carl Ruff, with the Sea-bees in the Marianas, says: "We had a visit from a troupe of sport-stars now in the Navy. A couple of dozen Major Leaguers played exhibition games. George Abrams' boxing skill and Bobby Riggs' tennis shot made big hits, but the ball players didn't mean much. They just went through the motions. We fellows out here get more kick from our 16-team softball league."

Hal Newhouser Breaks Up His Own Game In 11th With A Single

Detroit, April 21.—(AP)—Pitcher Hal Newhouser provided his own batting support today, driving in two runs as the Detroit Tigers squeezed out an 11-inning 3 to 2 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Newhouser's single through the right side of the drawn-in Cleveland infield scored Shortstop Ed Borom from third in the 11th with one man out to break up the game. Borom, leading off the inning, beat out a perfect bunt, stole second and took third on Catcher Paul Richards' sacrifice. Newhouser, in winning his first victory of the season, gave five hits while the Tigers got nine off Charles (Red) Embree of the Indians.

NEW YORK DOWNS 'DEM BUMS', 3-2

NEW YORK, April 21.—(AP)—Although stung for 11 hits and coaxed for five bases on balls, Bill Voiselle was as tight as a drum in the pinches as the Brooklyn Dodgers left 11 men on bases, to drop their second straight to the New York Giants 3-2 today before 10,260 rain-drenched fans.

Steve Filipowick, ex-Fordham football hero, provided the Giants with the margin of victory with a two-run homer in the fifth inning. The New Yorkers scored their other run in the opening frame when Mel Ott singled in Johnny Ruckeduck who had doubled. After wasting six hits in the first six innings, the Dodgers finally managed to dent Voiselle with a tally in the seventh on three hits, Ed Stanky's third single driving in Bill Hart. They tallied another in the ninth and had the sacks filled with two out but Dixie Walker popped out to end the game. Losing hurler Ben Chapman was nicked for all of the Giants' five hits before giving way to Rookie Leroy Pfund in the seventh. The game, halted three times because of a constant drizzle, marked the Giants' fifth victory in six starts.

Cloudbusters Edge-Out Virginia's Cindermen

CHAPEL HILL, April 21.—(AP)—N. C. Navy Pre-Flight school's speed in the track events overcame the University of Virginia's superiority in field matches here today as the Cloudbuster trackmen nosed out the Collegians, 65.15 to 60.45. Coach Charlie Beetham's Cadets took five first places, four runner-up honors, and seven third places in the eight track events to compensate for their weakness in field competition. Virginia won four firsts and a tie in six events in the latter: division.

Cards Halt Reds, 3-2; Move To Second Place

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals took advantage of a ninth-inning lapse in the Cincinnati defense today to score a tie-breaking run and win the opening game of their series, 3 to 2. Arnold Carter, the Reds' only lefthand pitcher, appeared to have the game tucked away on his fine seven-hit job until Marty Marion fried the lid off the Cardinals at the start of the final frame by rapping out a single. Emil Verban bunted and Steve Mesner threw wide to first, but both runners being safe. Relief Pitcher Ken Burkhardt' sacrificed both runners a notch, and Augie Bergamo walked, filling the bases and setting up the situation for the game-winning single by Johnny Hopp which was forthcoming promptly. Prior to that undoing, Carter had allowed only seven hits and two walks. Bliz Donnelly, who started for the Cardinals, was in trouble almost constantly, before he was re-

CHICAGO DEFEATS PITTSBURGH, 4-3

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 21.—(AP)—Bill Nicholson's seventh-inning double against the right field screen scored Phil Cavarretta with the run that gave the Cubs a 4-3 victory over the Pirates today. In squaring the series at one game apiece, the veteran Paul Derringer racked up his second win of the season. Behind Preacher Roe, the Pirates led, 3-1, at the end of the third, but Chicago tied it up in the fourth on singles by Nicholson and Hank Sauer, an outfield fly and Derringer's hit.

Cherry Point Marines Blast Duke Nine, 4-3

DURHAM, April 21.—(AP)—The experienced, smooth-working baseball team of the Cherry Point Marines today eked out a 4-3 win over Duke University's freshman-dominated nine, in a game which lasted only one hour and fifty-five minutes. Veteran Slugger Tom Davis led the hitting with three for four. Letterman Roy Talcott, playing third for the Devils, got one hit for three times up and that was a home run, in the fourth, scoring Johnny Posavec before him and locking the score at 2 all. Mouse Halsal, Lou Sellito and Lefty Hurley were the big guns in the Marines' well-organized attack.

TECH WINS OVER DUKE

ATLANTA, April 21.—(AP)—Georgia Tech's netmen out-classed Duke University today to win 9 to 1. Tech's Howard McCall, Niles Millsap and Hilliard Burt won over Bob Norris, Jim Kelly and Baxter Napier, respectively, in straight sets. The scores are as follows: Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Wafford, Hunt, 0-0. Smith, Huntington, 15-15. Johnson, Howes, 13-12. Kulken, McLemore, 15-15. Amos, Hayden, 1-9. Davis, Reynolds, 15-15. Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Smith, Huntington, 1-6. Garrison And Hayes Score Homers To Account For Seven Boston Runs

BOSTON, April 21.—(AP)—Ford Garrison's third inning homer with two on and a circuit drive by Frank Hayes in the seventh with the bases loaded today gave the Philadelphia Athletics an 8 to 2 victory over the Boston Red Sox. The homers told the story of the game, the fifth in succession the Red Sox have dropped this year without chalking up a single victory. Ed Busch's double started off the Philadelphia fireworks in the third. Then George Kell singled and Garrison drove out a long one over the left field fence to bring in the three runs. In the seventh, Buck Newsom and Hal Peck singled and Bob Estallela walked to fill the bases. Hayes' homer over the left field fence—his second circuit drive of the season—accounted for the four runs.

MEYERS, COFFIELD TO CLASH HERE

Heading Sonny Meyers' "special feud" list, "is tough, James Whitefield Coffield, California grappler who defeated the scientific Meyers in last Friday's show in the Thalian Hall arena. Meyers has challenged the California wrestler to another mat to be staged in Thalian Hall next Friday night. Meyers, favorite of many mat fans in Wilmington, sticks strictly to the scientific game, and contends that he should have beaten Coffield in their last match. One of his favorite features is the now famous "drop kick", originated by Jumping Joe Savoldi, of Notre Dame. Here is an explanation of the "drop kick": A wrestler springs from the ropes, leaping into the air, and plants both feet into his opponent's jaw or chest or any other convenient anatomy. Naturally his opponent becomes groggy from the terrific jolts and is pinned when he loses his balance. Meyers, who has conquered the technique of the murderous attack, points out that it takes a long time to perfect the blow. Promoter Causey is bringing a new face to the local arena next Friday night. George Brockman, of Washington, D. C., weighing in at 210, will meet an opponent who will be announced later.

Stevenson, Chadwick Win Volley Ball Play

Charles Stevenson and Vance Chadwick captured the Y. M. C. A. Two Man Volley Ball championship yesterday afternoon at the "Y". The scores are as follows: Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Wafford, Hunt, 0-0. Smith, Huntington, 15-15. Johnson, Howes, 13-12. Kulken, McLemore, 15-15. Amos, Hayden, 1-9. Davis, Reynolds, 15-15. Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Smith, Huntington, 1-6. Davis, Reynolds, 15-15. Kulken, McLemore, 13-7. "Championship Match": Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Davis, Reynolds, 10-7.

INDIAN NETMEN BEAT UNC

CHAPEL HILL, April 21.—(AP)—William and Mary's tennis team defeated North Carolina here today, 7 to 2, with the Indians' Bernard Bartenz, last year's National Intercollegiate champion and runner-up in the National Juniors, toppling Cliff Tuttle, the Tar Heels' star, 6-3 and 6-1, in the feature match. The scores are as follows: Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Wafford, Hunt, 0-0. Smith, Huntington, 15-15. Johnson, Howes, 13-12. Kulken, McLemore, 15-15. Amos, Hayden, 1-9. Davis, Reynolds, 15-15. Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Smith, Huntington, 1-6. Davis, Reynolds, 15-15. Kulken, McLemore, 13-7. "Championship Match": Stevensen, Chadwick, 15-15. Davis, Reynolds, 10-7.

U. N. C. NINE DOWNS RED TERRORS, 6-1

CHAPEL HILL, April 21.—(AP)—A six run rally in the eighth inning, climaxed by Mullen's circuit clout with one on, gave North Carolina's Tar Heels a 6 to 1 victory over N. C. State in a Ration League game here today. The Tar Heels had been able to get but four hits off Bill Riggan and were trailing 1-0 when they suddenly opened up on the visiting southpaw. Thompson and Colones singled to start the rally, and Fahey was safe on a grounder when Wood dropped the ball at second on an attempted forecut. Elger rapped a hot one down the third base line, sending Thompson in with the tying run and leaving the bases loaded. Gregory grounded to Wood on the next play and Wood's throw to the plate got Colones, but in an attempted double play Evans threw the ball wild to first and Fahey scored with the winning tally. Mullen's homer came after Zientek had lined a single to left scoring Elger and Gregory. The victory was the Tar Heels' second over State and left Chapel Hillians in control of first place in the league standings. State got its tally in the fifth on a hit batsmen, a fielder's choice, a single and an infield out.

NAVY WINS OVER PRINCETON, 4-0

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 21.—(AP)—Navy's baseball team wrapped up its seventh straight victory today, shutting out the Princeton Tigers 4-0. To gain credit for the win, Ronald Burton surrendered but two hits—a single by first baseman Moose Joline in the third inning and a safety by Tiger Tossler Henry "Dutch" Rohner in the seventh. In the fourth frame Burton walked a triple—the only extra base hit of the afternoon—into deep center field, driving in second baseman Ed Armstrong. The score by innings: Princeton.....000 000 00-0 Navy.....001 200 00x-4

Wilmington Red Sox To Play Durham Caps

The Wilmington Red Sox will meet the Durham Red Caps in the second of a scheduled three-game series at the Eleventh and Ann street park at p. m. today. Wilmington captured the first game at Durham last Sunday, 7-4. If Durham wins today's game, the final of the series will be played July 4.

All-America Football Loop Closes Meeting

CHICAGO, April 21.—(AP)—Ignoring a rebuff by the long-established National Football League, the embryonic All-America conference today adopted a $15,000 guarantee for visiting teams, $5,000 more than the 23-year-old National circuit pays.

Directors of the proposed post-war loop closed a two-day organizational meeting without comment on the attitude expressed yesterday by Commissioner Eimer Layden of the National League towards their offer to confer with him in an effort to eliminate operational friction.

Layden, apparently annoyed by the All-America's suggestion that he meet with a two man committee released a statement asserting that his league would recognize a competing loop only when it "gets a football and plays a game."

The All-America previously had agreed upon a $12,500 guarantee for visiting teams, but unanimously voted today to increase the amount to $15,000 with an option of 40 per cent of gate receipts after deduction of taxes and stadium rental.

The National League operates with a $10,000 guarantee and also a 40 per cent rider. The All-America already has placed franchises in three National League cities—New York, Chicago and Cleveland—an also in Buffalo, N. Y., Miami, Fla., Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The directors also deferred action on application for a franchise in Kansas City. The bid for what have been the league's eighth franchise was made by Dr. D. M. Nigro, representing a Kansas City group, who admitted it was uncertain whether an acceptable playing site would be immediately available.

The new circuit apparently did not transact any business with General Manager Tom Gallery of the National League's Brooklyn Tigers, who told the press he was in the city to visit a relative and not to sound out the All-America for a franchise as hinted in some quarters.

Spud Chandler To Play Against Catawba Nine

SALISBURY, April 21.—(AP)—Spud Chandler, the former University of Georgia star, who collocated the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1943 series by winning two games for the New York Yankees, will appear here next Friday in a Seventh War Loan exhibition game. Chandler will hurl for Moore General Hospital against the Catawba Indians.
