

64 Nurses Aides Will Be Capped Friday Evening

Mrs. Graham Barefoot, chairman of the Nurses' Aide Corps for the Wilmington chapter of the American Red Cross, announces that 64 aides will receive their pins and certificates this Friday evening in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian Sunday school at 8 o'clock.

This class was taught in three divisions—a morning class of thirteen and two evening classes. Miss Augusta Futch is teacher and supervisor of Nurses' Aides. Mrs. L. E. Tyndall assisted in teaching the night classes. Miss Futch and Mrs. Tyndall will present the students their pins and certificates.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. William Crowe and Dr. H. A. Codrington, president of the New Hanover Medical Society, will make a short talk. Miss Sallie Margaret Johnston, a former nurse aide student who is now attending Greensboro college, will sing. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Willard To Wed May 5th

Miss Glenn Willard, daughter of Mrs. Martin S. Willard, has announced plans for her wedding to Miles C. Higgins, USNR, which will take place on Saturday May 5.

The ceremony will be performed at the First Presbyterian church at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

No invitations are being issued but friends of the couple are invited to attend. A small reception will be held immediately following at the home of the bride for members of the families and out-of-town guests.

Many Confederate Relics Displayed In Local Museum

A special interest is being felt in the county museum just now in view of the fact that it contains so many Confederate relics and that this week is the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Cape Fear chapter No. 3, United Daughters of the Confederacy. The celebration will be climaxed by a tea on the afternoon of the 26th at the home of Mrs. Rinaldo B. Page.

The Cape Fear chapter has given much time and money during all these years to the preserving of the history of the Confederacy, so that the memory of those years shall never die. Among the many relics in the museum are some of the flags of the Confederacy. The museum is open to the public every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3 until 5 p. m. and is located on the third floor of the court house.

Annual Luncheon Meet Of Music Club Planned

The annual May luncheon of the Thursday Morning Music club will be held on Thursday, May 3 at 12:30 o'clock in the Great Hall of St. James parish house.

An unusually interesting musical program has been arranged, with Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Swalin of Chapel Hill, as guest artists. Dr. Swalin, in addition to being the conductor of the North Carolina State Symphony is a violinist of concert calibre. Mrs. Swalin is a well known pianist. Together they give a delightful and noteworthy program.

A delicious menu has been planned for the luncheon and members of the club are privileged to bring guests. Each member of the club will be phoned for reservations, which must be made ahead of time. Service wives in the city are cordially invited to make reservations for this event, by phoning Mrs. Lewis Ormond, 2-3235, or Mrs. B. H. Thomason, 6607.

At 11:30 o'clock on the day of the luncheon, Dr. Swalin will meet informally in one of the Guild rooms of the Great Hall with all persons interested in the work of the State Symphony. It is hoped that from this discussion may come an appearance of the orchestra in Wilmington. Anyone interested is cordially invited to this meeting.
