Occupation Force of 400. 000 Will Remain, War Department Says

WASHINGTON, May 9.— (#) — Approximately 2,837,000 troop = will be moved out of Europe within nine months, the Army disclosed today.

Within 12 months, the Army excepts to have out of Europe 3,-100,000 troops, leaving only an occupation force estimated at 400,-

The majority of these soldiers will come to the United States for redeployment to the Pacific area or for discharge from the Army. The others will be routed direct to the Pacific.

About 45,000 soldiers, including many who have been prisoners of the Germans, will be returned to this country by air and surface ships during this month.
