OLYMPIA, Wash., June 24.-(U.P.) President Truman today joined members of the armed forces at nearby Fort Lewis in a prayer for a speedy victory and a durable peace.

The Chief Executive, who ends his Pacific Northwest vacation tomorrow, attended general Protestant services this morning at the Fort Lewis chapel. After the services he boarded the Fish and Wildlife cruiser Brant at Tacoma for a leisurely voyage on Puget Sound back to Olympia. Chaplain Daniel W. Stevens delivered the sermon, "God Can Help You," after first praying for divine guidance for "the President of our nation." The scripture lesson was St. Matthew VII-21-39-

"A wise man built his home upon a rock." The chapel was filled with service men and their wives who joined with the Chief Executive and his party in prayer.

The President sang all the hymns sharing the hymnal with Maj. Gen. Joseph D. Patch, Fort Lewis commandant. In the front pew with the President were his host, Gov. Mon Wallgren, and Sen. Warren D. Magnuson, D., Wash. Leaving the chapel, the President met an old battery mate of
