Parmeles Note Anniversary; Honor Guests

Highlighting the numerous festivities of Christmas week was the brilliant reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey Parmele at their home in Country Club Pine on Saturday evening from 6 until 9 o'clock, the occasion being the celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary and to honor their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nash, of Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Parmele and Mr. and Mrs. Nash received the guests in the spacious living room which was beautifully decorated in a profusion of white carnations and white chrysanthemums in silver bowls while the mantel was completely banked with leaves of soft silver hue and centered with a tall arrangement of white flowers in a silver basket.

Mrs. Parmele was becomingly gowned in an evening dress of white crepe embroidered in crystal beads with corsage of purple orchids at her shoulder and Mrs. Nash chose for the occasion a stylish dinner dress of black crepe with touches of dusty pink satin at the neckline. She too wore purple orchids.

Presiding at the three punch bowls which were placed in the solarium, the dining room and the library, were Mrs. Thomas H. Wright, Mrs. Raymond H. Holland, Mrs. William M. Peck, Mrs. John A. Elmore, Mrs. Dan Penton, Mrs. Harry Stovall, and Mrs. Charles Becker, all wearing lovely evening gowns.

In the dining room the table was covered with an exquisite Italian cut work banquet cloth and centered with an antique silver centerpiece filled with white carnations and chrysanthemums. Tall white tapers gleamed in beautiful old silver candelabra.

Receiving in the dining room were Mrs. Cleves Symmes and Mrs. Ida Cardwell Flack. A delectable buffet supper was served to approximately one hundred and fifty guests.

Annual Service To Be Held At St. John's Church

The service known as the "Feast of Lights" will be presented in St. John's Episcopal church, Third and Red Cross streets, Sunday evening, January 6 at 8 o'clock.

The true missionary meaning of the Epiphany season will be explained through music, narrative, and the lighting of the hundred of candles from one single candle on the altar. The music of the service consists of well-known Epiphany hymns and carols in which the congregation joins the vested choir.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Andrews Is Hostess To Friends Sunday

One of the loveliest informal entertainments of the week took place Sunday, when Mrs. Alice Browne Andrews invited a group of friends to her charming home at 1919 Market street for egg-nog from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Receiving the guests with Mrs. Andrews was her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Browne Trail. Mrs. Andrews wore a stunning cocktail dress of ecru lace combined with black crepe and Mrs. Trail's attractive costume was black crepe embroidered in multicolored beads.

The dining room table held a beautiful low arrangement of poinsettias in a silver bowl with two three-branch silver candelabra containing tall white tapers, and at the end of the table Miss Josephine Hinton presided at the large silver egg-nog bowl.

Approximately 50 guests attended the delightful affair.

The nation's first "drive-in" filling station was opened in St. Louis, Mo., in 1905.
