Betty Hanson Entertains At Lovely Party

Miss Betty Hanson entertained Wednesday afternoon at her home in Forest Hills at a lovely tea honoring her sister, Miss Katherine Hanson, whose wedding to Capt. Walter James Hodder is to take place Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with red and white flowers and red and white burning tapers. In the dining room where tea was poured the bride's table was laid with a lovely lace cloth and centered with an unusual arrangement of poinsettias floating in a low crystal bowl flanked on the four sides by red tapers, poinsettias and white narcissi were used about the house in profusion. Guests were greeted by Mrs. George L. Mitchell at the door and presented to the receiving line composed of the Misses Hanson, Mrs. Katherine Vollers, grandmother of the bride-elect, presided at the tea service.

Around 30 guests called between the tea hours 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

CLUB CLOCK

The meeting of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons club of Goldenrod chapter, 142, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Newcomb, 1915 Perry avenue, this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Past Pocahontas club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. L. G. Wolff, 409 Queen street.

Special Programs In Schools Planned

The schools of the city and county will present special programs today during the chapel exercises in observance of the birthdays of Lee and Jackson. It was announced yesterday by the president of the Cape Fear chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The chapter is also urging the ministers of the community to pay a short tribute to these famous generals in the Sunday services. Appropriate radio programs will also be put on by the local chapter.

Miss Holmes, Frank Holmes Wed In Church

LUMBERTON, Jan. 17.—The marriage of Miss Mary Louise Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Junius Holmes of Lumberton, Mich., son of the late Mrs. Lucy Holmes of Lumberton, took place in the First Baptist church here on January 13. Dr. C. H. Durham, pastor emeritus, officiated at the single ring ceremony, assisted by the pastor, Dr. J. Glenn Blackburn.

Wedding music was rendered by Miss Ruth Turner, organist, and Mrs. J. A. Martin, soloist.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. Her wedding gown of bridal satin was fashioned with fitted bodice, yoke of marquisette edged with imported lace in off-the-shoulder effect, and full skirt extending into a train. Her finger-tip veil of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with stavia and centered with a white orchid.

The bride's only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Holmes, Jr., as matron-of-honor. She was dressed in a heavenly blue brocaded satin frock and carried a sheath of American Beauty roses.

A. J. Holmes, Jr., attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Ingram P. Hedgpeth, W. D. Linkhaw, R. M. Prevatt and Cecil L. Thompson.

The mother of the bride wore a turquoise blue chiffon dress with corsage of red roses. Mrs. Holmes was graduated from Woman's college of the University of North Carolina in 1944. For a year she was employed with the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics at Langley Field, Va., and recently had been associated with her father at A. J. Holmes, Jeweler.

The bridegroom, who was reared in Lumberton, spent two years in China as representative of Briggs Manufacturing company of Detroit. He is now employed with the company in Detroit, where the couple will be at home at 2316 Leslie street.

For travelling the bride changed to a two-piece blue wool suit, with which she wore brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Following the Holmes-Holmes rehearsal Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tudor entertained at the cake-cutting at their home. The heart-shaped wedding cake was topped with a bell and bow and surrounded by white camellias. Misses Lina Gough and Martha Bowman served molded ices, while Mrs. Stinson Powell sliced the cake, which was served by Misses Janis Bolton and Betty Carter. In the den Misses Betty Rose Prevatte, Christine Pope, Ellenor French and Anne Graham Bond served punch.

Miss Betty Rose Prevatte of Henderson and Lumberton and her sister, Mrs. Howard Linkhaw, were hostesses to 30 guests at a coffee hour honoring Miss Holmes on Saturday morning. Guests were greeted by the hostesses and received in the living room by Mrs. W. D. Linkhaw, Mrs. F. E. Carlyle and Miss Madeline Linkhaw invited them into the dining room, where Mrs. A. J. Holmes, Jr., mother of the honoree, poured coffee. Assisting the hostesses in serving were their mother and sister, Mrs. J. Rowland Prevatte and Miss Ruth Prevatte.

On Friday evening a dinner party was given at Hotel Lorraine for Miss Holmes by Mrs. C. B. Scoggin, Jr., of Reidsville, Misses Ellenor French and Anne Graham Bond. Covers were laid for 14, and the honoree was presented a silver goblet.

Many other parties honored Miss Holmes. Three tables of bridge were in play at a party given by Miss Lina Gough, with Mrs. R. A. McIntyre winning high score prize and Mrs. A. J. Holmes, second high.

Guests at a dinner party given by Misses Martha Bowman and Catherine King at the Bowman home were greeted by their mothers, Mrs. E. L. Bowman and Mrs. D. D. King. The honoree's place was marked with a corsage, and she was presented gifts. There were 16 guests.

Mrs. J. A. Martin and Miss Martha Britt were hostesses at a luncheon at Hotel Lorraine. Covers were laid for 14, and Miss Holmes was presented linen.
