Sorosis Group Plans Meeting This Thursday

The International Relations department of North Carolina Sorosis will meet on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Sorosis clubhouse, 116 North Third street.

Mrs. George LeGrand of the government faculty of New Hanover High school will be the speaker of the afternoon and has chosen as her topic, "United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization." She will be introduced by Mrs. Lucille K. Schuffler, president of the local unit of the North Carolina Education association, and principal of Sunset Park school.

Mrs. LeGrand's talk will be followed by a discussion during which time the club members may ask questions pertaining to the topic.

The High School orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Eric Norden, will present a program prior to Mrs. LeGrand's talk.

Officers of the department are Mrs. Virginia Ward, chairman; Mrs. Manly Williams, vice chairman, and Mrs. Kenneth B. Marshall, secretary.

Moore-McCotter Marriage Solemnized

NEW BERN, Jan. 26—Mrs. Alice Gallop McCotter of Vandemere and Clarence Albert Moore of Kinston, were married Saturday night, January 19, in the parsonage of Centenary Methodist church in New Bern. The Rev. Robert L. Jerome officiated.

The bride was attired in a gold tulle suit, with a gold hat trimmed with sequins. Her other accessories were brown.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. Mrs. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Gallop, of Alachua, Fla., is clerk of Superior Court in Falmec county. Mr. Moore holds a position with the Atlantic Coast Line railroad.

Miss Rebekah Tharp, Homer Sanderson Wed At Long Creek Church

The Zion Methodist church at Long Creek was the scene yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock of the wedding of Miss Rebekah Tharp and Homer J. Sanderson.

The church was decorated with palms, southern smilax, and tall baskets of white gladioli interspersed with white tapers in seven-branched candelabra. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. B. Gregory, who used the ring ceremony.

Miss Wetona Tharp, pianist, and Miss Sally Betts Knox soloist, rendered the nuptial music. Miss Knox sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Because," and "I Love You Truly," and during the ceremony the pianist play "Liebestraum."

The bridesmaids dresses were fashioned similar to that worn by the bride with long fitted bodices, puffed sleeves and full circular skirts of net. Misses Elsie Lewis and Margaret Efrid wore dresses of orchid and Miss Dorothy Sanderson and Mrs. John L. Tharp wore yellow. Their bouquets of mixed flowers were tied with matching ribbon and net. They wore matching flowers on their hair.

Beaman Norman, Joe Pickett, Edwin Futrell and Woodrow Marready were ushers.

Miss Caroline Tharp, sister of the bride, wore a baby blue net gown fashioned after that of the bride and carried a bouquet of pastel flowers.

Both the bride's mother and the mother of the bridegroom wore black gowns with corsages of white roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, D. W. Tharp, wore a gown of white satin and net. The long molded lines of the bodice of satin was fashioned with a high neckline and deep yoke of net, the sleeves of satin tapered to calla lily points at the wrists. Her finger tip veil of illusion was caught to her hair with a halo of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations and roses. The bride's only ornament was a cameo pin worn by her great grandmother.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. For travel the bride changed to a suit of garnet with black accessories and a corsage of roses taken from her bouquet.

Mrs. Sanderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Tharp and was graduated from the Bolivia high school and Mottes business school. For the past three years she has been employed at the North Carolina Shipbuilding company.

Mr. Sanderson, son of Mrs. Eula Sanderson and the late W. A. Sanderson, was graduated from the Chinquapin high school after his discharge from the navy. He is employed as electrician at the North Carolina Shipbuilding company. After February 10 the couple will be at home in Wilmington.

Immediately after the wedding rehearsal on Friday night Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Tharp entertained the wedding party and guests at a cake-cutting at their home.
