

Country Club Dance Proves Very Popular

The Cape Fear Country club was the scene last evening of a delightful formal dance when members of the club and their out-of-town guests gathered for the first in a series of monthly Saturday evening dances to be held until the late spring.

Music was furnished throughout the evening by a local orchestra and dancing was in progress until 1 o'clock. Several hundred members and their guests attended the delightful event.

Prior to supper, members entertained at large and small dinner parties at the clubhouse later enjoying dancing in the ballroom.

HERE'S WAY TO BUILD UP RED BLOOD to get more STRENGTH If you lack BLOOD-IRON

One Of The Greatest Iron Tonics You Can Buy

You girls who lose so much during monthly periods that you are pale, feel tired, weak, "dragged out"—this may be because you need more blood-iron. So start right away—try Lydia E. Pinkham's TABLETS—one of the best home ways to build up red blood to give more strength and energy—in such cases. Pinkham's Tablets are one of the greatest blood-iron tonics you can buy. They help build up the red quality of the blood by reinforcing the haemoglobin of red blood cells. Just try them for 30 days and see if you, too, don't remarkably benefit.

Important! Pinkham's Tablets are also very effective to relieve monthly pain due to female functional periodic disturbances.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, Jan. 26. —The conservation of early Quakers in language, habits and customs of dress always led to simplicity, but never failed to recognize beauty. Modern Quakerism, too, recognizes pulchritude as shown in the election of Nancy Miller on May Queen and seven other attractive Guilford college seniors as members of the court of honor for the festivities which will be held this spring. Miss Miller, a native of Siloam, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller, of Siloam. Her mother, the former Nina Robertson, was a member of the Guilford class of 1922. Nancy has served on the social committee and the "Y" cabinet, is a member of the A capella choir and Woman's Athletic association. A major in psychology, the May Queen hopes to do personal work after her graduation in June. Six other Tar Heels and one co-ed from New Orleans comprise her court of attendants.

The May Queen is shown in center, above, surrounded by members of the court. Martha McLellan, maid of honor, of New Orleans, is shown on the upper left and Mary Britton, of Ahsokie, on the upper right. Below, beginning on the left, are Iris Beville, of Brown Summit; Peggy Taylor, of White Plains; Linda Pell, of Westfield; Grace Siler, of Guilford college, and Frances Siler, of Siler City.

For your own personal listings, you'll be interested to know that the clever and fascinating Miss Emily Carter Warren is back in Washington after a long stay in the "State"—and several quick return visits since the holidays to the various "fun-spots." Also back in North Carolina is Miss Marian Blair, expert on personnel problems, with a string of letters after her name that would make even the Chinese alphabet seem pretty short. Miss Blair will participate in the salesmanship training program now underway in the state, bringing to it a wealth of experience in this progressive movement. Still others who are changing a Washington address for the more favored one in Wilmington are Col. and Mrs. R. S. McClelland who have been making their home in the capital for the duration, while Colonel McClelland was attached to the Adjutant General's Office. Col. McClelland has resumed his law practice, with frequent visits back to the Capital, doubtless, where both he and his charming wife have many close friends.

Another change to record is that made by Major and Mrs. Spencer Leigh Wilson, who are now making their home in New Bern. Still another—after an extended trip to California—a brief visit to Alabama and a week-end at his home in Farmville, Arthur C. Jones and his talented wife and small daughter are at their Silver Spring home for the spring and summer months.

More North Carolina news in party vein revolves around the annual banquet and ball of the North Carolina Democratic club at the Willard hotel, February 2, in honor of the North Carolina Delegation in Congress, with Senator Clyde Hoey, guest-speaker and the Honorable William Umstead toasting the Tar Heel lawmakers and their wives. "Hal" Thomerson, president of the North Carolina Democrats will preside over the affair, assisted by his attractive wife "Billie," who shares laurels bestowed on Hal for the successful administration of the club affairs. Mrs. Garner Addresses Meet

The New Hanover chapter of the East Carolina Teachers college Alumni association held a dinner meeting Wednesday evening, in the social hall of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

The banquet tables were beautifully arranged with large bowls of daffodils and fern flanked by candles in crystal holders. The color scheme of purple and gold was further carried out in the attractive individual programs. Miss Martha Whitehurst and Miss Frances Sutherland were in charge of the banquet.

Mrs. Inez Hinnant, president, presided over the meeting which was opened with the singing of the college song. Miss Mabel Spence Watson gave the invocation. Two delightful numbers, "L'Amour, Toujours, L'Amour" and "J'Ever", were sung by Miss Jo-Anne Atkins accompanied by Miss Azalene Southerland. Mrs. Edith Morton Hall entertained with a humorous reading, "Thirty Years Ago."

The association was fortunate in having Mrs. Ruth Garner, State Alumni secretary, as guest speaker. She reported an enrollment at the college this quarter of over 800 students, 94 of whom are men. She also told of the new additions to the faculty and the building program which is now being planned. The work of the alumni office was explained, showing the care that is taken to keep in contact with all former students of the college.

A short business discussion followed, during which Mrs. Hinnant appointed a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Hazel Way, Mrs. Martha Bennett, and Mrs. Louise Polvogt, to report at the next meeting on March 6.

The meeting closed with the singing of "Alma Mater."

Other members present were Miss Metta McGowan, Miss Pearl Packer, Mrs. Louise Jones, Miss Hemby, Miss Bessie Fay Hunt, Mrs. Allene Hunt Baggett, Miss Joyce Dunham, Miss Willa Dickey, Miss Mae Price, Miss Elizabeth Farmer, Mrs. Kara Lynn Fennell, Mrs. Virginia Farmer, Mrs. Irene Gilmore, Mrs. Dorothy Gordon, Mrs. Mae Collier, Miss Helen James, and Miss Ruth Glenn Hardy.
