Teen-Age Tattler

BY CYNTHIA JOHNSON

Greetings, gate! Let's communicate! Time for some more news about those of us who are still young and having loads of fun.

This past Friday night the NHHS Wildcats chalked up one more victory by defeating the Rocky Mount Blackbirds 52-33. And the students have really turned out to cheer their team on to their victorious gains. Orchids to them for showing so much school spirit—and especially to Mary Ann Spillman. And I don't think they have missed a game this year. And Isabel Saleby!

It seems as if wiener-roasts were the predominant form of entertainment this past week. After attending the basketball game Friday night, the members of the Sophomore chapter of the girls Hi-Y and their dates journeyed over to Florence Sanders' house where the party was held. Margie Reissner summed up enough courage to ask Jimmy Piner, football star of '45 and of course he accepted. Some of the other couples present were Olivia Lynch and Hampton Rothwell, Jean Pope and Junie Huband, Geraldine Colkitt and Charlie Smith, Betty Lou Linden and Billy Hill, Catherine Crowe and Maurice Moore, Catherine McRae and Malcolm Crawford, Patsy Cole and Bradford Wiggins, Jane Easter Marye and Larry Bagenharte, Elizabeth Poplin and Glasgow Hicks, Ann Post and E. A. Thomas, and Florence Sanders and Charles Russell. If one of these boys or girls happens to be one of your steadies and you have been wondering why they wouldn't date you Friday night—now you know!!! After the wiener-roast, the girls went to Jane Easter Marye's for a slumber party, of course getting no sleep until time to get up. Poor fellas! I can well imagine you with their topic of their "midnight to morning" conversation.

The senior chapter of the girls Hi-Y really had a swell time on their hay-ride Saturday night. Climbing aboard a truck filled to overflowing with hay, the couples went to Wrightsville Beach, the selected site for the wiener-roast. Many boys of the service were present. Clayton Holmes, Infantry private, and Betty Jean Marshburn had a super time. Sara Williams invited a sailor who made quite a hit with everyone—Ed Williams, no kin, Ph M 2-c from Utica, New York. Yours truly also invited a Ph M who was immediately accepted as "one of the gang"—Ph M Bob Lacey from Mass. Others attending were Mary Ann Spillman and chuckling Chubby Paul, Anna Kamer and Jack Perkins, Betty Hanson and Earl Godwin, Elizabeth Evans and Lonnie Williams, and lots of others. We took the long way home which put the finishing touches to a perfect night.

Girls, have you gotten your brown Joyce shoes yet? They are going to be all the style as soon as warm weather comes, so don't be old-fashioned when spring rolls around and be without a pair. Have you seen those name sweaters that are becoming the latest thing in sweater styles? Patty Sutherland looks mighty fine in her gray one with girls names knitted into the sweater in green yarn. Shirley Brown is appealing in her navy blue one with boys names written in red. But most any sweater would be popular with the girls as long as winter and cold weather continue. Just as those old battered hats and dungarees still rank high on the list of clothing for the NHHS glamour men.

"Good-bye! Have fun! We who are going to miss you!" These cries of farewell came from the lips of Cooda Lewis, Diane Costello, June Andrews and others, boys included, and were directed to Marilyn Goodman as she left to board the train for New York. She is going to New York with her father who has been called away on business. It is only natural that so many people would wish her luck and a good time. Marilyn has been outstanding as a student representative in the student government, a cheerleader, and just an all-around good sport. Have fun, Marilyn, but hurry back.

I have heard that the junior boys also had a weenie-roast this past Saturday night, but I haven't been able to get any news on it. I'll try again and may have something to report by Wednesday.

One more thing about the senior girls Hi-Y social. Our thanks to Mr. Russel Caudill for accompanying us as chaperone. The night was mighty fine, but his being there made it complete.

Many young people attended the formal dance held at the Country club this past Saturday night which proved to be a great success. It is hoped that many more such dances will be given in the future.

Thanks to the ROTC boys who served as guards for the money collected for the March of Dimes drive held this past week. The school always enters into drives of this sort with great enthusiasm, and because of this interest, always makes a good showing.

I have come to the end of my notes again, and so I must be off—to get more news for next time! Study hard this week, but find some time for social life so I'll have lots to tell real soon.

Until I sit down in front of my typewriter, and begin again, I'll sign off with my usual, "So Long!"

Professional contest enterers say that the best time to get into a contest is during the first week because competition is not as great at that time.

Mrs. Harold N. Cooney who has recently been appointed administrator of Volunteer Special Services of the American Red Cross with offices 230 Spring street, Atlanta, Ga. Wilmington is included in the area served by the new administrator.

Kathryn Baldwin, Mr. Jenerette Wed

TABOR CITY, Jan. 26.—The marriage of Miss Kathryn Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Baldwin, to Noah Jenerette, Jr., of Jacksonville, Florida, took place on Saturday afternoon, December 29, at 5 o'clock at the home here of the bride's parents, Rev. J. R. Kennedy, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

The living room, wide hall, and dining room of the handsome home were most attractive with their bridal decorations.

In the spacious living room, where the vows were spoken, an altar of white, with a background of palms and white gladioli were arranged with four tall candelabra to add to the beauty. A perfect setting for a wedding.

Only relatives and a few friends were present. They were met at the door by Miss Letha Butler. A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Walter Cox. Miss Gwen Hughes sang "One Alone" and "Perfect Love." Mrs. Charles Prout, sister of the bride, dainty in a lovely pink gown with a pale pink corsage of carnations, entertained the living room, and lighted the candles.

The dame-of-honor, Mrs. Burt Mitchell, sister of the bride, wore a graceful white gown, carrying a white muff enclosing the wedding rings. The muff was covered with American Beauty rose buds, and showered with white satin ribbon and narcissi. The bride was met at the altar by the bridegroom with his father, Noah Jenerette, as best man.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin, fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over the hands, a lace yoke branded with seed pearls, and long graceful train. Her veil of illusion was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms, and fell the length of her train. She carried a white prayer book topped with white orchid and showered with satin ribbon and narcissi.

The bride's mother wore a gown of black with aqua yoke, and a corsage of American Beauty roses, while the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of deep rose, with a corsage of white carnations.

After the ceremony, the guests were invited into the dining room where the bride's table was covered with an exquisite lace cloth. The table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, which was cut and served with ices by Mrs. Walker Floyd, Miss Mary Floyd, Mrs. James Hufnam and
