

Miss Janie Johnston McDiarmid, William Clark Thompson Married

NORTH WILKESBORO, Jan. 26. —Of interest throughout the state was the marriage of Miss Janie Johnston McDiarmid and William Clark Thompson, of Charlotte, which took place in the Presbyterian church of North Wilkesboro at noon on Wednesday, January 23, with the Rev. Watt M. Cooper officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken in front of a background of evergreens and candelabra holding white candles. Before the ceremony Mrs. Lewis Mann Nelson, organist, played "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star" from "Tannhauser" (Wagner), "Indian Love Call" from "Rose Marie" (Frimel), "Liebestraum" (Liszt), "Caprice Viennois" (Kreisler) and "Ave Marie" (Schubert). Miss Ellen Robinson, aunt of the bride, sang "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah" (Saint-Saens), "Serenade" (Schubert) and "Because" (d'Hardelot). The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Charles McDiarmid, of Augusta, Ga., and the bridegroom had as his best man, James B. Kuykendall, of Charlotte. Miss Katharine McDiarmid, of Austin, Texas, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and her niece, Little Miss Araminta Cameron McDiarmid, was junior maid-of-honor.

The ushers included Hugh Turrentine, of Charlotte and Wilmington, John Boyd, of Mooresville; Calvin Kuykendall, of Hendersonville; and Major Edmund Robinson, of North Wilkesboro, uncle of the bride.

The bride's dress was of satin and marquisette having a close fitting, long waisted bodice of satin cut with square neck which was outlined with a ruching of marquisette, and long satin sleeves ending in points over the hands. The skirt of marquisette was full and extended into a long train. She wore a veil of imported Princess lace, which was fitted to her head with a cap of pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and primroses. Her only ornament was a locket of pearls and diamonds, a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid-of-honor's dress was of blue-green crepe and her hat had a matching crown of velvet with a jeweled buckle and a brim of black beaver. She carried yellow roses. The junior maid-of-honor was dressed in white and carried a miniature bouquet of white roses. Mrs. McDiarmid, mother of the bride, wore black with a white corsage, and Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in violet and her flowers were orchids.

After the wedding the bridal party and out-of-town guests were entertained at the McDiarmid home by the bride's mother and aunts, Mrs. McDiarmid, Mrs. Edmund Johnston and Miss Eloise McDiarmid, of Winston-Salem.

The Bride and Bridegroom
The bride, a daughter of Mrs. James Cowling McDiarmid, and the late Mr. McDiarmid, of Fayetteville and North Wilkesboro, attended the Greenwood school in Baltimore, Md., and Stuart Hall in Staunton, Virginia, and since coming to North Wilkesboro to live has been active in patriotic, civic, and church work. She is a member of the Colonial Dames, The Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the American Legion Auxiliary.

The bridegroom, who is the only son of Mrs. Frank A. Thompson, of Charlotte, and the late Mr. Thompson, is originally from Wilmington, but for the past few years has made his home in Charlotte where he held a position with the Glasgow-Stewart company. He was graduated from Davidson college where he was a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity.

During the war he served overseas first in England and then in Paris where he was in the office of the Chief of Transportation. He received his discharge this past October and on returning to Charlotte resumed his position with Glasgow-Stewart.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home in Charlotte. For travel the bride changed to a black dressmaker suit, sequin trimmed, with which she used black accessories. The brim of her hat was lined with blue, and at her shoulder she pinned the white flowers from her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-Town Guests
Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Miss Katharine McDiarmid, of Austin, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDiarmid, Charles McDiarmid, Jr., Miss Ariminta McDiarmid, of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. Edmund Johnston, Miss Eloise McDiarmid, Mrs. J. B. Wahmann, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. W. H. Sprunt, Mrs. Frank Stevens, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Frank A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Kuykendall, Bill and John Kuykendall, Dr. W. H. Frazer, Miss Mammie Frazer, Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Turrentine, Mr. Russell, Miss Kate Hope Robinson, Miss Hattie Robinson, and Miss Elizabeth McComb, Charlotte; Mrs. Samuel Harrell, Mrs. Edward Roberson, and Dr. Edward Roberson, of Tarboro; The Rev. Lewis Schenck and Mrs. Schenck of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. Michaux Crocker, of Greensboro, Miss Estelle Ardrey, of Duke university; Miss Elizabeth Matthews, of Gastonia, Mrs. Thomas Webb, and Mrs. Clarence Ridenhour, of Concord, Mrs. Charles Ross and Miss Betsy Ross, of Lillington; Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, of Mooresville, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kuykendall, of Hendersonville.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
BURGAW, Jan. 26. — Mr. and Mrs. Vance Ivey entertained at a birthday party Monday evening, January 21 at 5:30 o'clock at their home in honor of their daughter, Betty Joyce Ivey on her tenth birthday.

The dining table was covered with a lace cloth centered with the birthday cake flanked by pink candles in crystal holders, which was surrounded with pink and white carnations.

Place cards were baskets of mints, and each guest was presented a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The hostess served ice cream and cake after which the following guest were entertained at a movie: Haywood West, Jr., Carol Barger, Virginia Fedronco, Carline Horrell, Sue Ferrell, Mary Russ, Helen Bland, Gaynelle Lanier, Roslyn and Catherine Jane Henry, Rae and Mae Blake, and Mrs. Edna Pullen.
