

Thursday Music Club Presents Varied Program

The Thursday Morning Music club held its February meeting in The Great Hall of St. James church on February 12. This was followed by the program meeting at 10:30 o'clock which was opened by the singing of the Federation hymn by the entire assembly. Mrs. Conrad Wessell presiding turned the program over to Mrs. Eliza Schulken, Mrs. Sam A. Troy, and Mrs. Rudolph Mintz who presented the following:

Praeludium and Loure from E. Major Partita, Bach; Mrs. Eric Norden accompanied by Mrs. Miriam Burns.

Mrs. H. L. McPherson then read a very interesting paper on, "Opera in English." "A number of operas have been written in English, an example being "The Scarlet Letter." The Italian language is more emotional and as the American is more literal minded some translation does not appeal. Wagner is easiest operatic works to translate into English. To say that English is not as musical as Italian or French is a mistake."

Si Mi Chiamano Mimi from La Boheme, Puccini; Mrs. Eunice Troy accompanied by W. G. Robertson.

Liebested, Wagner-Liszt; Mary Crammer Mintz.

Largo from Xerxes, Handel; Rev. W. G. Hurni, accompanied by Mrs. Eunice Troy.

Voce Di Donna from La Gioconda Ponchielli; Mildred Murdock accompanied by Mrs. Eunice Troy.

Coronation scene from Boris Godounoff, Moussorgsky; Emma Gade Hutaff, Mrs. Eunice Troy.

Miss Hutaff read description of music as representing a coronation, also explained why the damper pedal was held for such long periods in order to provide sound effects. The music begins with sounds of bells in distance gradually increasing in intensity and ushering in the coronation scene.

After the program, the minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Q. B. Snipes. Treasurer's report was then given by Mrs. Louis Hanson. Mrs. Roland, corresponding secretary, then gave her report and read several letters that had been received. Mrs. Vernon Avery told of the program that the club gave at Chestnut Heights school. Mrs. Louis Ormond, music in hospitals chairman, gave a report on activities and also told about plans to have Ralph Shelton, pianist, come to Wilmington to give a piano recital in St. James Hall for the benefit of music in hospitals' fund.

Mrs. J. D. Edwards gave a report on the activities of the Junior Music club, which now has 20 members. Mrs. Wessell talked about club's activity in church music and announced musical program to be given by St. Paul's Lutheran church some Sunday in March. Mrs. Wessell also told of the report from national federation president concerning army bands, and that band leaders should be given commissions in order to obtain the best directors.

The subject for the March meeting was then announced as "Women in Music" and the leaders will be Mrs. J. B. Crammer and Mrs. J. B. Fenley after which the meeting adjourned.

Mary Bolles Hall, Capt. Bursley Wed In New Jersey Chapel

The Blanchard chapel of the First Presbyterian church in Passaic, N. J., was the scene of a simple, yet lovely ceremony Monday, February 4th when Miss Mary Bolles Hall, of Wilmington, and Capt. Grant Brown Bursley, A. U. S. of Providence, R. I., were united in marriage.

The double ring ceremony was used and the vows were spoken in the presence of friends and relatives with the Rev. Millard M. Gifford, officiating.

Prior to the ceremony, Harry Stessner, sang, "Ave Maria", and "The Lord's Prayer." The wedding march from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march was played for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Edwin Whitfield Hall. She was attired in a gown of off-white brocade taffeta, with sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice with a full gathered skirt sweeping into a train. Her fingertip veil was draped from a duchess fashion cap of net and seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with orchids.

Mrs. Clayton Buren Hall, of Passaic, N. J., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron-of-honor and her only attendant. She wore a gown of maize taffeta and net with a matching Juliet cap, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow snapdragons and roses tied with satin ribbon.

Capt. Warren Hayward, A. U. S., of Providence, R. I., attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Hall, mother of the bride, wore a lovely dress of embroidered Dubonnet crepe and a corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. Bursley, mother of the bridegroom, was lovely in a dress of Fuchsia crepe with contrasting yoke effect and a corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Buren Hall on Lafayette avenue. The bride's table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Silver candelabra holding lighted white tapers, completed the table decorations. The bride's cake was first cut by the bride and bridegroom after which Mrs. Clayton Buren Hall, assisted in cutting the cake.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Princeton, N. Y., and points north, after which they motored to Wilmington, for a brief visit with the bride's parents.

The bride wore for traveling a suit of Cardinal gabardine with
