TRUMAN REMAINING MUM OVER CABINET

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.-(AP)-President Truman kept the capital guessing today about his choice of a new secretary of interior but speculation was rapidly narrowing down to three candidates.

Informed sources gave top billing to Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, D., Wyo., as most likely successors to Harold L. Ickes. Oscar L. Chapman, acting interior secretary, was regarded a close third.

These sources said Mr. Truman had made no final decision up to late yesterday and conceded he might come up with an outsider.

Douglas' stock took a jump yesterday when he visited the White House and also conferred briefly with Ickes. Mr. Truman reportedly wants a western liberal for the job and Douglas, who is from Walla Walla, Wash., would fill the bill.

Feels Secure: O'Mahoney, it was said, feels secure of his future in the senate and might be unwilling to give it up for a comparatively uncertain term in the cabinet. Even if he should be reflected to the senate upon completion of the job as secretary, he would lose no seniority of more than 12 years service.

Douglas was reported the favorite candidate of Postmaster General Robert E. Hannagan, who as Democratic National committee chairman has great influence with the president.

Wants Liberal: Hannagan, these sources said, wants a man of Douglas' liberal stamp to succeed Ickes in the belief it would help keep New Deal elements of the Democratic party more solidly in line as the 1948 presidential campaign approaches.

GOWNS RUINED: CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 19.-(AP)-Several expensive gowns were ruined for a dress shop here when used to wipe off blood and to stop bleeding from an injury or cut suffered by an intruder who broke into the place, Chief of Police Chris H. Orthmann said. He estimated the damage at $700.

SIMONS TO HOLD ZONING HEARING

The second in a series of public hearings on the proposed zoning plan will be held tonight, 8:00 p. m., in Hemenway school.

The hearing, under the direction of George W. Simons, Jr., city planning consultant, and his associate, Harold Weldon, will cover that area of the city bounded by 13th street on the east, Dock street on the south, the Cape Fear river on the west, and the city limits on the north.

All residents of this area are urged to attend the hearing to learn the preliminary zoning plans and to enter into an open-forum discussion of the plans' merits.

WHITEVILLE PLANS LOCAL POWER SALE: WHITEVILLE, Feb. 19.-(AP)-The date for the meeting of the North Carolina Democratic Executive committee was changed Tuesday from March 1 to March 5.

Chairman W. B. Umstead of Durham said the change was necessary in order to assure hotel accommodations for the 150 people expected here for the committee meeting. There would be insufficient accommodations on March 1, Umstead explained, because that falls in the midst of the Southern Conference Basketball tournament.

PROTEST LODGED: MADRID, Feb. 19.-(AP)-U. S. Charge D'Affaires W. W. Butterworth delivered a protest to the foreign ministry Tuesday against the maltreatment of Dr. George F. Taylor, 69, an American dentist, Monday by a student during a political demonstration.
