Off The Cuff Notes

Certainly glad that I took advantage of Stuck Everrett's invitation to drop in on the 93rd anniversary party held by the Wilmington Light Infantry last Monday . . . Arrived just in time to pass through the door with Sheriff C. David Jones and receive such a cordial welcome from Jim Crute who was holding down the doorgreeters' job for the nonce . . . Taking a gander at the keen enjoyment of the county commissioners seemed to be having eating their barbecue, to the sheriff and I fell in line for a helping of the same and joined plates around the table with Herbert O'Neil and his nephew Capt. Jim Hoke, who is visiting here for a few days. . . Captain Hoke passed along the information that he thought he might be transferred to a post in South America. . . A most pleasant discussion with J. A. R. Orrell about the Rock Spring hotel which was recently written up in "ALONG THE CAPE FEAR" . . . As a matter of fact there was much going back in history talk from the group which included Addison Hewlett and George Trask. . . More than likely talking over their days in Trinidad and happy to be back at their first reunion of WLI in a number of years. I spotted Donald Cromotie, Bubbler Tinken, D. E. Clark, C. W. Huston and G. W. H. Johnston. . . More of that delicious buffet and doing likewise was Ed. Jackson, Frank F. Burns, Harris W. Hackett and C. T. Farrow. . . Just before leaving saw A. B. Rhodes and talked kin-folks stuff for a bit. . . I have never seen H. G. Carney when he wasn't surrounded by a group of friends and the party was no exception. . . Caught Jimmy St. Amand on the fly as he rushed about. He was also a member of the arrangements committee. . . And of course got into the wds and where of football with Ed. Cunningham the former LSU player. . . All very informal but one left with a feeling that there was a bunch of buddies that were really happy to be together again.

This And That
Caught the Baptist hour radio program aired every Tuesday over WMFD while out at the station yesterday and it's right good. Conducted by Rev. C. E. Bisson the broadcast also featured solo's by Mrs. Joyce Hall accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Bradley. . . I am indebted to Paul Gartrell for an old Leslie weekly which reports the details of the death of Jefferson Davis. . . Time out for a roundtable of cokes with Mrs. Duane V. Mitton, Margaret Saleem and Ed Herring as we wished Tom Gause a happy birthday . . . Have you noticed how sailor straws for men have made a comeback this year? . . . As we go to press the betting slightly favors Al Wenberg that he will actually put his boat in this year and that he will be able to take care of all the people he has invited for a fishing trip. . . Get Mrs. Tom Wilson to tell you about the fish husband Tom did not catch. . . George Denton in from Whiteville feels that the radio station over his way will be opened in the very near future.

What is purported to be the longest word has just been passed along. What do you think? The word? Well it is the name of an Indian chief who died in Wisconsin in 1886. FISH STORY TACOMA, Wash., May 21.—This is Bob Firch's fish story: He saw two catfish thrashing about in shallow water. He dipped his hook beneath one; snagged it by the jaw, and then he jerked the line—The other fish came out, too; caught in the mouth of the first.

House Group Slashes Billion From Budget

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—The House Appropriations committee, asserting that the atomic bomb made it difficult to decide what the future of the fleet would be, Tuesday slashed more than a billion dollars from the Navy's 1947 fiscal budget.

The committee approved only $4,639,659,000 (B) as against the Navy's original request for $6,325,000,000 (B).

The reduction, if sustained by the House and Senate, will force the Navy to cut its planned active fleet from 319 ships to 291, and it provides for only 437,000 enlisted men, 57,800 officers, and 8,400 planes, including 2,400 spares.
