London Jews By Thousands Protest Rule

Children Join In Huge Parade Through Streets Of City

ADOPT RESOLUTION

Marchers Demand Entry Of 100,000 Refugees Into Palestine

LONDON, July 7.—(U.P.)—Thousands of Jews, including children rescued from concentration camps and a holder of the Victoria Cross, marched through London Sunday in protest against British policy in Palestine and demanded immediate admission of 100,000 Jews to the Holy Land.

At the head of a long, singing, chanting, banner-carrying column of servicemen and civilians strode two members of the Jewish Agency executive, or high council, of Palestine.

First Since 1933

It was the first large Jewish demonstration in the British capital since the 1933 procession of protest against Nazi persecution of Jews in Germany.

Sunday's parade ended in a demonstration in Trafalgar Square, where a crowd estimated from 5,000 to 10,000 adopted by acclamation a resolution demanding a halt in the British anti-terrorist campaign in Palestine, release of interned Jewish Agency executive members and opening the gates of the Holy Land to 100,000 Jewish refugees from Europe.

Go To Attlee

From Trafalgar Square, delegates took copies of the resolution to Prime Minister Clement Attlee's office at 10 Downing street and handed them to a uniform messenger.

The resolution deplored what it said was a British attempt to blame (dishonour) the Jewish community of Palestine—for "acts of terror perpetrated by small groups under stress of frustration and despair created by the continuation

GRADE A MILK TO BE 21 CENTS NOW

Price Increase In Wilmington Goes Into Effect Today

That prices locally are "gradually" increasing to meet first prices caused by manufacturers, and producers, and those caused by cancellation of federal subsidies, was indicated by an increase in the price of milk and a few other commodities, which go in effect today.

Prediction also was made that within the week, some local dairies, especially those which produce and distribute the bulk of their milk, will place even higher prices on the vital product.

Consumer Absorbs

These price hikes which E. L. White, president of White's Ice Cream and Milk company said the "consumer will have to shoulder with removal of government subsidies," are expected to range from one to three cents per quart on various types of milk.

Hiking the price on grade A Milk from 19 to 21 cents, and that of butter milk an additional cent

HUGHES INJURED IN PLANE CRASH

Millionaire Sportsman-Builder Badly Burned During Test

CULVER CITY, Calif., July 7.—(U.P.)—Millionaire sportsman-builder Howard Hughes was critically hurt Sunday as his XF-11 photographic plane crashed on its maiden test flight.

The airplane developed trouble after it had been in the air about 45 minutes. Witnesses said the motor seemed to be missing and that the plane was flying at very low altitude when it crashed into the roof of a house, bounded down another rooftop, and smashed down a garage, setting one house and garage afire.

Hughes stumbled dazedly out of the wreckage.

DEATH TOLL NEAR 400 MARK SUNDAY

Autos Take 155 Lives During Long July Fourth Holiday

CHICAGO, July 7.—(U.P.)—The nation's violent death toll was climbing steadily toward the 400-mark Sunday night as the long Fourth of July week-end came to a close.

Traffic accidents were far ahead as the cause of deaths. Generally fair weather, which brought additional thousands of motorists swarming onto the highways, was expected to cause a sharp increase in the Sunday total.

Auto Toll High

At least 324 persons had died in accidents directly attributable to holiday celebrations since Wednesday midnight. A total of 155 died in auto accidents, 85 drowned, eight died in fireworks mishaps and 76 died from miscellaneous accidents.

Today and Tomorrow

By WALTER LIPPMANN

As we sweat out the conflicts of our time, we are learning that however much the nations disagree and are divided, they are in fact compelled to collaborate more intimately and to unite more closely.

The outcome of the negotiations over Trieste is a concrete illustration of this governing principle in our affairs. It was impossible to draw a single frontier which Italy and Yugoslavia and the four great powers would accept. The Italians and the Yugoslavs are so intermingled in the province of Venezia Giulia that no boundary could be marked out which separated them. We have been compelled therefore to unite them under an international government.

The Italians and the Yugoslavs who could not be separated will have to try to live together as citizens of the same territory. The great powers which could not agree to award the territory to an international state have had to agree to work together as guardians and governors of an international state. Instead of a sharp dividing line between the Soviet Union and the western powers at the head of the Adriatic, there is to be a more complicated form of co-operation than any of the powers desired or believed in.

WELL HEELED— Wilmington People Have Buying Power

Wilmington, the 302nd largest city in the United States, has a pent-up "spending money" potential equal to almost any city in the nation, according to a survey just completed by Sales Management magazine of New York City.

The Port City had a gross income of $73,601,000 in 1945, the survey shows. After payment of taxes, the city was left with an effective buying power of $969 per capita, a sum of $275 over the total North Carolina per capita figure of $694 and $112 over the total South Atlantic States per capita figure of $857.

Less Than Half

But only about 47 per cent of this amount was actually spent on last year's retail market because of merchandise shortages. The remainder, still held largely as savings, will likely be turned loose

CHEERING NEWS— Butchers Should Have More Meat Any Day Now

CHICAGO, July 7.—(U.P.)—Your butcher is going to have more meat to sell this week, packing industry spokesmen declared after studying the first week of marketing without OPA.

Probably it will be mostly fresh pork, because that can reach the consumer's table in the relatively short time of four or five days after the pig is slaughtered.

Beef Due Soon

Beef, with a period of aging required, will take a little longer, they say. Roasts and steaks may be available in greater quantities in another week.

Hams and bacon, because of the processing involved, will follow in increasing numbers in two to three weeks.

STASSEN STAKING POLITICAL FUTURE

Former Governor Of Minnesota On Spot In Elections Today

WASHINGTON, July 7.—(U.P.)—Harold E. Stassen, former Navy captain and three times governor of Minnesota, puts his political future on the line in his state's primary Monday.

If he wins, he will be a formidable candidate for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination. If he loses, his friends say, his hopes will be shattered.

PIPELINES EMPTY

Packers say the industry's "meat pipeline" was almost completely empty until OPA controls went off. As a result, heavier marketing of meat animals must first fill these pipelines.

They liken it to a water main, which first must be filled before the water reaches the consumer.

Further, when supplies do not equal the demand, available meat is voluntarily rationed by the packers to their customers. Thus all share alike. Until all can have all they want, none will.

OFFICERS TO GET ADA REHAN STORY

Global Adventures Of Ship To Be Aired At Coast Guard Hearing

NEW YORK, July 7.—(U.P.)—The Coast Guard will open an official hearing Monday into the global adventures of the Ada Rehan—the Liberty ship which sailed from San Francisco August 16, 1945, for a two-week voyage that finally stretched into 11 months.

Three women stowaways, a baboon which drank beer and vodka, an unruly crew, a captain who left the vessel in a nervous state—these were ingredients of the saga which preceded the Ada Rehan in port here last Friday.

SHIP DIVERTED

The ship originally was scheduled to go to New Orleans, but Capt. Frank H. Hass of Mobile, Ala., its second master on the voyage, explained that the vessel was diverted to Iquique, Chile, by the War Ship

BIOLOGICAL TREASON

Our fears of a month or so ago have come to pass. In fact, we are nursing a new fear that, having come, they will not pass.

It was a month or so ago, in case you have forgotten, that we took an ominous view of the potato plants which were producing tomatoes. Such biological treason, we feared, might spread from the flora to the fauna.

Well, it has. And it started on, of all days, the eve of Independence Day, the one day treason should be farthest from the mind of all living things in the U. S. A., including chickens.

WELLSVILLE BEACH resident swears up, down, and sideways that this actually happened.

The other day he went into a Wilmington cafeteria for lunch. When he got around the counter to the beverage dispenser the girl asked him whether he wanted milk, tea, or coffee.

"Coffee," he said.

"How do you want it?" the girl asked.

"Black," he answered. "Just black coffee."

"With cream and sugar?" she asked.

"Change that to iced tea without ice," he exploded.
