

PERSONALS

Miss Frankie Albright of Danville, Va., arrived last night and will be the houseguest of Miss Barbara Leeuwenburg of Highwood Park. Mrs. Edna Parker, resident director of the local YWCA, returned to Wilmington after visiting with friends in Madison, Wisconsin and Warren, Ohio. She is now spending a few days visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Starling, in Jacksonville. Mrs. Walter Storm and Mrs. Sam Nash, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. K. Wise at her summer home in Blowing Rock, have returned to their homes at Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. Marion Leonard and young son, Chisolm, of Charleston, S. C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Storm at their summer home at Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. W. C. Chisolm of Charleston, S. C., has arrived for a visit to Miss Marguerite Walker at her summer cottage on the Northern Extension at Wrightsville Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill and Charles Hill, Jr., of Charlotte, are spending several days at the Kitty Cottage on Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Hill formerly resided in Wilmington.

VMI Campaign Here Headed By Grainger

T. B. Grainger, a Wilmingtonian who received his B.S. degree in chemistry from the Virginia Military Institute in 1932, has been named chairman for Wilmington and vicinity in the forthcoming drive to raise a $1,500,000 endowment for the Virginia institution. The drive, a nationwide campaign, will start August 15 under the auspices of the VMI Foundation, Inc., an alumni group. The institution, one of the lowest endowed major colleges in the country, will use the funds to advance its educational standards.

Dr. Hall Preaches

The Rev. B. Frank Hall, Th.D., DD, minister of the Central Presbyterian church, St. Louis, Mo., will preach at morning services of the First Presbyterian church in Wilmington Sunday, and again on Sunday, August 4. The Rev. Mr. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Wilmington, and his wife are vacationing at Wrightsville Beach, and are expected to return to St. Louis about September 1.

CHILLS AND FEVER due to MALARIA? 666 RELIABLE Watch Repairing B. GURR, Jeweler 264 N. Front St.

LOTS FOR SALE IN SEAFORTH Wrightsville Beach's Beautiful Subdivision Facing on Hard Surface Blvd. MARX S. NATHAN Phone 6743 P. O. 104 Wilmington

To Our Many Friends And Customers... A. A. HOBBS SELF SERVICE FOOD STORE Located at 1419 Castle St. or better known as 15TH & CASTLE STS. WE ALSO HAVE IN OUR MARKET GOOD WESTERN GRADE A BEEF - PORK CHOPS - Full Line of Fruits and Vegetables ALL AVAILABLE FROZEN FOODS

SOCIETY MABEL ROGERS, Editor PHONE 2-3311

Mrs. W. W. Green, Mrs. Edd Nye Entertain Bolton Club Group

BOLTON, July 26.—The Woman's Home Demonstration club met on the lawn of Mrs. W. W. Green with Mrs. Edd Nye as co-hostess. Mrs. Charles Singletary, president, introduced Miss Vera Stanton, State president of Raleigh, who outlined the needs for the club's work.

Mrs. Singletary also introduced the new Home Agent for Columbus county, Miss Ratliff. The club voted to send flowers to Mrs. J. B. Lattey, a patient in James Walker Memorial hospital and Jack Lewis, a patient in Columbus County hospital in Whiteville.

The members present were Mrs. George Carroll, Mrs. W. W. Green, Mrs. Lillian Glaner, Mrs. Jesse Holmes, Mrs. R. O. Jones, Mrs. H. W. Paxton, Mrs. Dalton Russ, Mrs. Eburn Russ, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Charles Singletary, Mrs. W. C. Sealy, Mrs. Annie L. Vereen, Mrs. J. F. Wilson, Mrs. H. D. Bardeaux, Mrs. Edd Nye, and Mrs. Frances Hill. The visitors attending the meeting were Mrs. L. C. Long and Mrs. Richardson. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Singletary and Mrs. Lillian Glaner as joint hostesses.

Friends of Mrs. J. B. Lattey will be glad to learn that her condition is much improved following an operation in James Walker Memorial hospital.

Friends of Jack Lewis will regret to learn that he was admitted to the Columbus County hospital, Whiteville, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brewer have as their guest this week Mrs. Brewer's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart and Pauline of Charleston, S. C. Mrs. Jack Warley and daughter, Beth, of Chadbourn spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Singletary. Mrs. Frank Edwards of Freeland, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Eburn Russ.

CITY BRIEFS

RETIRE FROM NAVY Frederick L. Williams, former Chief Electrician's Mate U. S. Navy yesterday was retired after 27 years service, and transferred to the Fleet Reserves. His Wilmington address is 51, Carolina apartments, where he lives with Mrs. Williams. He enlisted in the Navy in 1919, and during World War II was with the fleet in the South Pacific, aboard the USS Dobbin. He is a native of Connecticut, coming to Wilmington Navy recruiting station in 1938 where he established his home. He plans to stay in Wilmington — and fish.

FULFORD IN ARMY Robert Fulford, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fulford, 613 Central boulevard, has been accepted for enlistment in the U. S. Army, Fort Bragg. Young Fulford graduated from New Hanover High School this spring, and has enlisted in the Signal Corps. After three years enlistment he plans to attend college. His enlistment brings the percentage of this year's N.H.S. male seniors enlisting in the Regular Army, close to one fifth, Capt. N. G. Cottle, officer in charge of the local recruiting station, said.

LAKE IN ROAD NEWS Beautiful Greenfield Lake will be publicized through the medium of the Esso Road News in its forthcoming issue. Used as a vacation guide, the pamphlet will describe the many features of the park in detail.

FRANCE NECKWEAR MOVES The France Neckwear company, employed here in manufacture of cravats, will move from its present quarters at Water and Princess streets to new buildings at 1217 South 13th street. Presently 75 people are employed, but 75 more are expected to be added by August 15, its manager Frank W. Oppenheimer said.

IMMANUEL TO HAVE SERVICE Regular worship service of the Immanuel Presbyterian church will be held tomorrow in its newly renovated and redecorated auditorium, after three months, during which time services were held in the auditorium of the Sunday School. The building, which has been restored inside, and repairs effected outside, was built in 1921, a gift of the late Dr. James Sprunt.

USES, VA DISCUSS VETS... Training officers and Veteran Administration contact officers yesterday talked to the personnel of the U. S. Employment Service on the part of the VA is playing in helping the veterans obtain jobs.

DURDEN RETURNS T-Sergt Cary M. Durden who was detached from the enlisted man's list of non-commissioned officers in charge of New Hanover High school's ROTC unit, has been returned to his former post, Headquarters of the Fourth Service Command has announced. He was awarded the command's certificate of Commendation for outstanding service between Nov. 1945 and March 1946.

STANDARD OIL MEET About 25 employees of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, meeting in a local cafeteria last night for a sales talk and banquet, heard R. G. White, supervisor of the company's Wilmington terminal; R. M. Tarrant, Charlotte, in charge of the company's personnel and public relations department, and G. F. Ball, public relations director explain the company's health association and benefits derived, and pep talks. J. H. Swinson, Esso sales representative for the Charlotte area, was a guest.

WEEKEND OUTING Harvey Radcliffe, branch manager of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance company, and his staff began a week-end outing at Wrightsville Beach yesterday. The outing will last through Sunday with the Ocean Terrace hotel as headquarters.

OFFICERS INSTALLED The new officers of the Wilmington Life Underwriters association were installed yesterday at a luncheon meeting. They are A. C. Halthcock, president; D. H. Howes, vice-president; Major Dukes, secretary; and Joe Robbins, treasurer.

LOCKFAW AT HARRELL-COBLE John I. Lockfaw, graduate of the Gupton-Jones college of Mortuary science, Nashville, Tenn., has joined the staff of Harrell-Coble funeral home in Wilmington, it has been announced.

GIRLS INJURED Two young girls were injured about 1:30 Friday afternoon when they were struck by a taxi driven by Harvey Lowery of Leland, in the 400 block of Greenfield street. Cornelia Ann Bruce, 137 Pinecrest parkway and Mary E. Shepherd, 143 Pinecrest parkway were riding a bicycle down an incline and

Southeastern North Carolina NEWS TIDBITS

Bladen — Brunswick — Columbus — Craven — Duplin — Onslow — Pender — Robeson — Sampson

HOTEL CHARTER HOLLY RIDGE, July 26. Hudiburg Hotels, Holly Ridge, has filed a certificate of incorporation in the office of Thad Eure, secretary of state, it was disclosed yesterday in an Associated Press dispatch. Authorized capital stock is to be $50,000 with $18,000 being subscribed by John J. Hudiburg and Lucille P. Hideburg, of Holly Ridge, and Carlton A. Hingerty, Wilmington.

RECOGNIZED NEW BERN, July 26. — Special recognition in the form of certificates of meritorious personal service during the war period has been given to 113 persons in Craven county by the American Red Cross. The certificates are signed by President Harry Truman, honorary chairman; Basil O'Connor, national chairman; and W. C. Chadwick, county chairman.

APPEAL PERFECTED SOUTHPORT, July 26 — Attorneys say that the appeal to the Supreme court in the case of Leon (Schooper) Gause is being perfected. This indicates that the Shallotte Negro, sentenced to die on August 15, will have at least a brief respite from the electric chair. Gause was tried at a term of the New Hanover Superior court in Wilmington and found guilty of the murder of Jim Williamson, Shallotte township white farmer. The sentence of death was imposed by Judge R. Hunt Parker on June 13. Following notice of intention to appeal crashed into the taxi before the driver could bring his car to a halt, according to police reports. No arrests were made. The Bruce child was taken to James Walker hospital for observation and a possible fracture of the left leg. The other young girl was not injured.

FOUR HURT Four persons were slightly injured and two cars damaged considerably in an automobile crash at 17th and Dawson streets Friday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock. Mrs. Olive Summers, Mrs. Elizabeth Westover and David Summers, all of Cameron, S. C., and Mrs. Paul Mills of Maffitt Village were treated for bruises and released from the James Walker hospital.

BIBLE CLASS MEETING The weekly meeting of the Men's Bible Class of St. Andrews-Covenant Presbyterian church, Fifteenth and Market streets, will be held Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock. Dr. J. E. Evans is the teacher. All men of the community are cordially invited to attend.

DRAFT OFFICIALS UNPAID Members of the New Hanover County Consolidated Draft Board yesterday remained at work—and without pay. The green checks for these federal employes would normally have been received about a week ago, officials explained. Officials were at a loss as to when to expect their pay.

ST. JAMES REPAIRED Workmen Friday were making minor repairs to the bell tower of St. James Episcopal church, replacing worn brick with new ones. The church was founded in 1729.

CLASS TO MEET The Men's Bible class of Grace Methodist church will meet Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock with E. R. Blakeslee as teacher. The subject of the lesson will be "Spiritual Values Supreme." All interested men are invited to attend the class.

UCT MEETING Cape Fear council No. 374, United Commercial Travelers of America, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall.

Worship services observing the sacrament of the Holy Communion will be conducted at Oak Grove chapel Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock by the Rev. John D. MacLeod, pastor, assisted by elders of the First Presbyterian church. All those desiring to unite with the Chapel are specially invited to do so at this service. The public is cordially invited.

Revival Services To Begin Monday Revival services at Epworth Methodist church will begin Monday, August 5, with the Rev. E. B. Fisher, pastor of Trinity church will be in charge. The public is cordially invited to attend. Services will be held each night during the week at 8 p. m. Dial 2-3311 For Newspaper Service

What's All the excitement at Wahls OF WILMINGTON SATURDAY IS HALF-PRICE DAY

SUMMER DRESSES SUMMER HATS SUMMER BAGS PLAY SUITS SLACK SUITS BATHING SUITS

Big Value in this Big Jar of MOROLINE PETROLEUM JELLY SOOTHING DRESSING FOR MINOR CUTS—BURNS—SCALDS SCRAPES, BRUISES, CHAPPED SKIN, and Minor Skin Irritations on you and baby, too.

We Teach WATCHES To Tell The Truth Watch and Clock Repair Fast Dependable Service PEARLS RESTRUNG 24 Hour Service The JEWEL BOX Wilmington's Largest Credit Jewelers 109 North Front St.

Portraitures COMMERCIAL PHOTOGRAPHY ROBERT HODGKIN, JR. Studio at 103 1/2 Princess 6627 —Telephones— 2-1331

Portraitures COMMERCIAL PHOTOGRAPHY ROBERT HODGKIN, JR. Studio at 103 1/2 Princess 6627 —Telephones— 2-1331