Miss Stevens, Karl McGhee Speak Vows

Lovely Home Wedding Solemnized Last Evening At 6 O'Clock In City

A lovely home wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock when Miss Mildred Herring Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Stevens, of 1520 Chestnut street, became the bride of Karl Wilkerson McGhee, of Bristol, Tenn., son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Evart McGhee also of Bristol.

Dr. Sankey Lee Blanton, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony which was attended by members of the families, relatives and close friends of the couple. The entire lower floor of the home was charming, decorated throughout with palms, ferns and numerous arrangements of white flowers and candles.

Miss Stevens had as her only attendant Mrs. Sidney Whitaker, of Richmond, Va., sister of the bridegroom, as matron-of-honor. She wore a lovely gown of aqua taffeta and carried an exquisite arm bou-quet of large white chrysanthe-mums tied with aqua taffeta rib-

Mr. McGhee had as his best man Drood Riddle of Bristol, Tenn. Miss Stevens, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of bridal satin fashioned with long sleeves and sweeping train. The round neckline with yoke of marquisette, was trimmed with a deep ruffle of matching sat-in. Her double veil of bridal illusion fell into graceful folds from a dainty head-dress of lace. She carried a lovely showered bouquet of gardenias and tuberoses.

Mrs. Stevens, mother of the bride, charmingly attired in black crepe gown trimmed with white, wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. McGhee, mother of the bridegroom, wore a grey crepe gown with white trimming and her corsage was of pink roses.

Someone asked me recently for the secret of our enduring friendship, over a period of years, unmarred by a single misunderstanding. My spontaneous reply was that the reason we have remained such staunch friends is because we have never taken liberties with each daughter of Mrs. Robert Kindred Craven and the late Mr. Craven of Clarkton.

MRS. ROBERT EDWARD HEDBLOM—Ship, over a period of years, unmarred by a single misunderstanding. My spontaneous reply was that the reason we have remained such staunch friends is because we have never taken liberties with each other. You have been a true friend in need as well as one who has never presumed on that friendship. I have tried hard to reciprocate by my willingness to lend a hand, but never to interfere or offer suggestions in your home life. "Live and Let Live" has truly been our Top right, who prior to her marriage gestions in your home life. "Live and Let Live" has truly been our motto, with marvelous results.
