

New Officers Of Home Security

DOUGLAS P. MORRIS K. B. ROBERTSON The announcement was made yesterday of the election of two new vice presidents of the Home Security Life Insurance company, which has its home office in Durham and a district office in Wilmington. Douglas P. Morris, left, will serve as vice president and secretary, and K. B. Robertson, right, will serve as vice president and agency director. They assumed their new duties on Sept. 1. Both men are native Canadians and prior to joining the North Carolina company's staff were associated with the London Life Insurance company, London, Canada.

Local VFW Housing Idea First In United States

National Convention Delegates Showed Keen Interest In Project

The veterans' cooperative corporation, originated and sponsored here by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, for the purchase of war housing units for veterans, is the first such plan of its kind in the nation. E. C. Snead, commander of the James A. Manley VFW post said yesterday upon his return from the national convention of VFW held in Boston, Mass. When the plan was introduced and explained to the national housing committee, Snead said, that group expressed amazement at the "simplicity and fundamental soundness of the idea." A resolution will be presented by the committee to the Federal Public Housing Administration urging that the FPHA give favorable consideration to purchase of surplus war housing by such veterans' cooperatives, he said.

Representatives of other posts throughout the nation expressed a desire to utilize the plan for purchase of housing in their own communities, and were assured by Snead of the cooperation of the VFW post here in furnishing news of the progress of the plan and in supplying the necessary information to setup the plan in other cities. James M. Hayes, Jr., youthful commander of the VFW department in North Carolina, who was chairman of the national resolutions committee, made a most favorable impression on delegates attending the convention, Snead said. The youngest department commander in the country, Hayes was the major voice for veterans of World War II at the convention, who were referred to as "the younger veterans." Hayes presented the national resolutions to the assembled

Way to Relieve

Itchy Pimples

When your skin is irritated with pimples, red blotches and other skin blemishes, and you're crazy with itching torture, here's quick relief. Get a 35c box of Peterson's Ointment at your druggist and apply this delightful soothing balm. Itching relieved promptly. Smarting soothed. Your skin looks better, feels better. Also wonderful for itching of feet, cracks between toes. Try it.

ARE YOU MISSING

The best things in life by being

DEAF?

Start now to enjoy life as you were meant to enjoy it—with all your heart; WITH ALL YOUR HEARING . . . through the miracle placed within your reach by the new one-unit BELTONE HEARING AID COMPANY.

A BETTER HEARING CLINIC

is scheduled for your convenience in Wilmington, N. C.—Cape Fear Hotel—Friday, Sept. 13 Bring your hearing problems to an expert. Walter T. Lee competent hearing aid technician, will be there to help you, with no obligation on your part.

Sponsored by

RALEIGH HEARING AID CO.

Odd Fellows Bldg. Raleigh, N. C.

Better Living through Better Hearing

MODOC TO ARRIVE HERE WEDNESDAY

Cutter Now Standing By Disabled Steamer In Chesapeake Bay

The United States Coast Guard cutter Modoc will take a station at Wilmington on Wednesday, Capt. I. E. Eskridge, chief of staff of the Fifth Naval district, Coast Guard, Norfolk, disclosed yesterday afternoon in a long distance telephone conversation from Virginia Beach with the Star-News. The cutter was still standing by the disabled steamer Monomony in Chesapeake Bay, Capt. Eskridge reported, but he added that the cutter would finish this duty Monday and then sail immediately for Wilmington. The Modoc, which is commanded by Lt. Comdr. George Playdon, will remain in port here for several weeks, it was stated, in order that the members of the staff and crew may again get acquainted with the town. While here the boilers and other parts of the machinery will be given a thorough cleaning, Capt. Eskridge said. FAVOR CIO HENDERSON, Sept. 7.—Employees of the J.P. Taylor Tobacco company voted 513 to 16 in favor of the CIO as their bargaining agent in a National Labor Relations board election held here yesterday.

Gospel Tabernacle To Hear Missionary

The Rev. F. W. Schelander is scheduled to speak at two services today in the Wilmington Gospel tabernacle, corner of Sixth and Orange streets, with the first service at 11 o'clock this morning and again at the evening service at 8 o'clock tonight. Born in India of missionary parents, the Rev. Mr. Schelander spent much of his boyhood in the East, with periodic visits to this country for schooling. He returned to India as a missionary in 1925 and has since served in the Marathi language area, one of the largest districts of the alliance in that country.

Twenty Juvenile Cases Handled During August

Twenty juvenile cases were handled by the City Juvenile court in August, according to the monthly report received yesterday by City Manager J. R. Benson from Mrs. J. C. Layton, clerk of the court. There were three white delinquents and two neglected juveniles appearing before the court during the month. One white boy was committed to the training school, one was placed on probation, and one was given a suspended sentence, while still another case was ordered continued. Of the 14 Negro juveniles handled by the court in August, ten were put on probation.

214 N. FRONT ST. DIAL 9567 or 21823