Recent Parties Complimenting Bridal Couple

Miss May Taylor and Robert Hope Crawford, Jr., who will be married this evening in St. James Episcopal church were honored last evening with a party at 7 o'clock at the popular Surf club on Wrightsville Beach by Mr. and Mrs. Kauno A. Lehto, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Grainger and Mr. and Mrs. Clark James.

Immediately following this party, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Browne Ruffin and Mr. and Mrs. Marsden Bellamy entertained with a dinner party at 8:30 o'clock to which approximately 85 guests were invited. The lounges of the clubhouse were beautifully decorated for the affair with attractive arrangements of white flowers and tall white candles. The bride's table held a large center arrangement of white flowers flanked by burning candles in silver candelabra.

Today at noon Mr. and Mrs. Hargrove Bellamy and Robert Bellamy will entertain with a cocktail party at their home, 1417 Market street honoring Miss Taylor and her fiance; and at 2 o'clock the Clark families of Wilmington and Tarboro will entertain with a barbecue for members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and the two families.

"Opportunity Sale" On From 10 Until 5

A few imported sweaters, the joy of a teen-age girls' heart will be found at the "Opportunity Sale" to be sponsored by the Social Service League of Wilmington on Saturday morning at 111 Princess street.

The doors will be open from 10 until 5 o'clock and members of the league will be on hand to show a most attractive assortment of clothes. All clothes have been cleaned, marked as to size and are in good condition.

Not only are there sweaters, skirts and suits for the school girl but the mothers will also find excellent buys for themselves and especially for the younger children, all very moderately priced.

The sale is open to the public and the proceeds will be used by the league in its welfare work in the city.

"God's Law of Abundance" will be the subject of the Christian Science program on station WMFD tonight at 7:15. These programs are a regular feature of the station on the first Saturday evening in each month at this hour. The series consists of a variety of interesting and timely subjects. The public is cordially invited to listen in.

Frances Bass Is President Science Club

GREENVILLE, Nov. 1. — Miss Frances Bass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Bass of 206 South 16th street, Wilmington, is serving as president of the Science club at East Carolina Teachers college during the 1946-1947 term, and is directing an interesting program for members of the organization.

Under Miss Bass's direction the club has planned a program dealing with topics of importance in chemistry, biology, and physics; and each meeting is designed to arouse interest in the sciences and to stress their educational values. Three special lecturers, yet to be chosen, will address the club during the year. These will be either faculty members or off-campus speakers. A trip to some place of scientific interest will be made by members during the year, probably in the spring.

Miss Bass, a junior, specializes in her college work in science and home economics. In addition to her activities in the Science club, she was last year a member of the Cabinet of the Women's Athletic association.

CAPACITY CROWD EXPECTED TO HEAR NAVY BAND PLAY

The United States Navy Band, one of the greatest symphonic organizations in America, will arrive in Wilmington tomorrow morning, in time to play for a 3 p.m. concert in the New Hanover High School auditorium, under the sponsorship of the Wilmington Civitan club.

Civitan officials said last night that advance ticket sales indicate that a capacity crowd will be on hand to hear the two-hour concert by the 55-piece Navy band. A limited number of adult tickets are still available in The Wilmington Travel Agency, Rehder's Florist and the Standard Pharmacy, while the high school registrar's office has a small supply of tickets at reduced prices for school-children.

Proceeds above band expenses will be divided between the Civitan Scholarship fund and the High School band Uniform fund.

Four hundred persons lost their lives, 600,000 were made homeless, and property damage of more than $200,000,000 was caused in the 1927 Mississippi flood.

Art Department Of Sorosis Hold Program Meeting

The Art department of North Carolina Sorosis met Thursday afternoon for the first meeting of the year with a large number of members attending.

Mrs. John Knox Ward, chairman of the department, welcomed the members and introduced the officers of the department who are: Mrs. Bereniece Stellings, vice-chairman; Mrs. Donald L. Sewell, secretary, and artist, Mrs. C. B. Davis, Jr.

E. D. Clark, minister of music of the First Presbyterian church, was then introduced by Mrs. Ward. Mr. Clark, feature artist of the program, played several piano selections.

Miss Merle Bruner, director of Christian Education of Trinity Methodist church, was guest speaker of the afternoon. Miss Bruner spoke on Art and Christian Character, centering her discussion on the great masterpiece of Millet, the Angelus. Miss Bruner brought out the fact that beauty in any form inspires many great thoughts. Pictures are a source of inspiration, and the Angelus is a picture that can appeal to all people everywhere because it can be understood.

Following the program the officers of the department entertained Sorosis members with a social hour. The long table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white snowball chrysanthemums and lace fern in a silver bowl. Tall white tapers burned in silver holders on each side.
