Tournament Opens At Club; Visitors To Instruct Players

The first in a series of Tuesday evening duplicate contract bridge tournaments was put on Tuesday evening by the entertainment committee of the Cape Fear Country club for members and their out of town guests only. These tournaments will be held every Tuesday evening between the hours of 8 and 11 o'clock at the clubhouse until the end of the spring season.

Two professional directresses came from Raleigh to open the tournament and instruct the players in the Mitchell movement which is used by duplicate contract bridge clubs when there are nine or more tables in progress. The two directresses were Miss Laeke Lentz and Mrs. Neva Wright. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mrs. John Bickle, two of Raleigh's outstanding bridge players, who participated in the initial tournament Tuesday evening. The four ladies from Raleigh met with the local committee in charge of arrangements at the Cape Fear Country club at 6 o'clock, the local committee being composed of E. L. White, chairman, Mrs. Sam Nash, Mrs. R. Bryant Hare, Jr., J. Neveland Brand, Jr., Mrs. Alice Morrow and Mrs. Royce S. McClelland. Dinner was served for the 10 in the dining room of the club.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the duplicate bridge game started at 11 tables with informal instructions being given by Miss Lentz and Mrs. Wright. At 11 o'clock when the play was stopped and the scores tabulated by the official scorer J. Neveland Brand, Jr., it was found that Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hines were the high scorers for North and South and Miss Marguerite Walker playing opposite Miss Jennie Murchison were the winners for East and West. From the great amount of enthusiasm shown with Tuesday evening ing's game it is anticipated that the players will increase with each coming tournament. Starting with next Tuesday evening, November 12, Mrs. Sam Nash will instruct the players each week. Mrs. R. Bryant Hare, Jr., and Mrs. Alice Morrow will assist the instructor and the score keeper. At the conclusion of the game Tuesday evening the greater majority of those present joined the American Contract Bridge League association affiliated with Raleigh.

Those playing were: Mrs. J. Frank Hackler, W. D. MacMillan, Mrs. Eleanor W. Walbach, Miss Martha Stack, Gardner Greer, F. E. Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Guerdin Simkins; Mrs. A. B. Cheatham, Mrs. John Zapf, Mrs. C. S. Lowmore, Mrs. O. L. Hogon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wellott, Mrs. Bonner H. Thomason, Miss Byah Thomason, Mr. and Mrs. Lem L. Doss, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rogers;

Mrs. P. R. Smith, Mrs. R. Bryant Hare, Jr., Miss Jennie Murchison, Miss Marguerite Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fonville, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Moore, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Penton, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Parmele, Mrs. M. Ashley Curtis, Mrs. Louis E. Orrell, Mrs. David R. Murchison and Mrs. J. Dalziel Sprunt. Others present but not playing were Mrs. Neva Wright, Miss Laeke Lentz of Raleigh, Mrs. Sam Nash, Mrs. Royce S. McClelland, Mrs. Alice Morrow and J. Neveland Brand, Jr.

Following the discussion, the workshop hour will be given over to the making of block prints under the direction of Mrs. Warren Barrett and Mrs. C. P. Davis, both well known Wilmington artists. Block printing materials may be obtained at cost at the YWCA or through the local art center or stationers shops. Any persons owning linoleum cutting tools are urged to bring them as it is still impossible to buy them. Designs for Christmas cards, book plates and textile prints may be made, with a number of color inks available.

The club is open to both men and women and visitors are welcome.

All persons interested in little theatre work are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Achievement Day, Whiteville 4 H Club

WHITEVILLE, Nov. 6 — The annual Achievement Day meeting of the Home Demonstration club of Columbus county and 4-H boys and girls will be held here Friday night, November 8, in the Whiteville school auditorium. The program will begin with a picnic supper at 6 o'clock. Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Irby Walker of Greensboro, treasurer of the North Carolina Farm bureau. According to C. D. Raper, county agent, Mrs. Walker is well-known to agricultural leaders and farmers and is rated as an excellent entertainer.

In addition to the Home Demonstration reports and program, the highlight of the evening will be the awarding of 14 medals to county food preparation, canning, meat production, animal culture and field crops. Ten dollars in cash will be awarded to the five top corn producers, and the winners of the sweet potato contest will be announced. Every 4-H club member in Columbus county and every Home Demonstration club woman and their families are urged to be present with their picnic supper. Miss Nan Ratliffe is home demonstration agent for Columbus county.

A self-cleaning head inside of shower fittings permits a choice of spray from a splashing downpour to a fine stinging needle shower. Colored plumbing fixtures will be back on the market as soon as the present emergency housing program for veterans has been completed.
