Senator Brooks Says Majority Will Follow 'Real American' Programs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.-(P)-President Truman delivered a conciliatory bid Monday for cooperation of the new GOP Congress and Republicans responded cordially although with qualifications.

Breaking his election silence with a policy statement to an Armistice Day news conference, Mr. Truman candidly acknowledged that the present situation—the legislative branch Republican and the executive branch Democratic for at least two years—"threatens serious difficulties".

But he said both are equally devoted "to the welfare of our nation" and when differences arise there must be no attempt on either side "to tamper with the public interest in order to achieve per-sonal of partisan advantage."
