

ABC BOARD MAKES INITIAL PAYMENT

City, Wrightsville, And Carolina Beach Get $100,000

The local Alcoholic Beverage Control board yesterday split a $100,000 profit melon between the City of Wilmington, New Hanover county, and the townships of Wrightsville and Carolina Beach. W. D. MacMillan, the board's chairman, said last night. The city's share was $50,000, while the county will receive $30,000, Carolina Beach, $12,000 and Wrightsville, $8,000.

MacMillan would make no predictions as to the date of the ABC board's next remittance to the city. The checks marked the first distribution of profits the ABC board has made to the local government agencies so far this fiscal year. The city has written into its budget expectations of receiving $300,000 in ABC revenue this year as against $320,500 in 1945-46. The AEC board owed the city $99,000 at the beginning of the fiscal year. The county budget anticipates $135,000 in ABC revenue this year, while Carolina Beach expects $20,000. Wrightsville Beach's anticipated ABC revenue is $7,500, a sum which the board met with its check yesterday.

PARTIAL ECLIPSE DUE ON SATURDAY

Weatherman Says City May See Celestial Display About Noon

Weather allowing, Wilmingtonians will see close to half the sun eclipsed around mid-day Saturday. Weatherman Paul Hess said yesterday. The eclipse, caused by the moon's shadow sweeping across the face of the earth, will be observed here sometime between the hours of 10:55 a. m. and 1:55 p. m. Saturday. Hess said that he anticipates fair weather for Saturday's solar eclipse. It will be, he pointed out, the fourth eclipse of the sun this year, and the first observable here. The other three were on January 3, May 30, and June 29.

WAYNESVILLE TO HONOR FERGUSON

Celebration Planned Today For President Of Ship Building Firm

WAYNESVILLE, Nov. 19.—(P)—This Haywood county seat put finishing touches Tuesday on plans for a gala celebration honoring a native son who left this mountain community as a youth and who today is acclaimed as one of the nation's top shipbuilders. He is Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company, which during two wars has outfitted Uncle Sam's Navy with many of its heavy fighting ships. The celebration, officially titled Homer L. Ferguson Day, will be staged Wednesday. The one-day affair will begin with a motorcade which will meet Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson at Canton during the morning. Exercises in honor of Ferguson will follow a parade headed by a 55-piece band. A barbecue will be a feature of the afternoon program. Ferguson, the son of William Burder and Laura Adelaide Ferguson, was born here March 6, 1873. He attended the U. S. Naval academy at Annapolis, graduating in 1892, and he subsequently graduated from Glasgow university in Scotland. Enters Marine Field He entered the field of ship construction in 1895 and continued in that work at several Atlantic and Pacific shipbuilding yards until 1905 when he joined the staff of the Newport News firm. He has held a number of key positions in national and international civic and business organizations. Ferguson's brother, Harley B.,
