CHRISTMAS TREE PROGRAM READY

Opening Ceremonies Slated For 7 O'Clock Sunday Night

The lights of Wilmington's Hilton Park Christmas tree—believed to be the world's largest—will flare forth at 7 o'clock next Sunday night at special pre-Yule ceremonies highlighted by the music of a 300-voice choir and the taking of a Fox Movietone Newsreel.

Jesse A. Reynolds, city recreational director, announced yesterday that the ceremonies would start at 7 o'clock Sunday instead of the previously-announced hour of 7:30. The program will last 30 minutes.

Members of the chorus will meet beneath the tree at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon for a pre-ceremonial rehearsal under the eye of Fox Movietone's cameramen.

The Fox representative will also film some 30 local men dressed in St. Nick costumes as students in a mock school for Santa Claus earlier Sunday afternoon.

Men who will participate in the school have been asked to meet in the Community Center, Second and Orange streets, at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon to receive last minute instructions. Reynolds said the children should congregate at the tree at 2 o'clock that afternoon. The school activities will be filmed at 2:30 o'clock.

Reynolds said today he was having trouble procuring two huge searchlights, of the type used by the armed services.

Barge Raised

RUXTON, Dec. 3—(AP)—Pumps Tuesday raised a 600-ton drilling barge sunk three miles offshore near here to escape a 50-mile Pamlico sound northwester Monday and the barge was towed here to receive drilling equipment. The tug "Hadeo" of the Hatteras Development company towed the barge 35 miles north in the vicinity of Wanchese and Pea Island. Here the Standard Oil company will explore for a well.
