Sunday School Lesson

Scripture: The 17th Chapter of John BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

The dictionary defines intercession as "a prayer or series of prayers for persons of different conditions." Following the solemn conversations of Jesus with His disciples on the eve of His death, recorded in chapters 14 to 16 of John's Gospel, Jesus "lifted up His eyes to heaven" and made the prayer recorded in the 17th Chapter. Though this is the only long intercessory prayer recorded, it was not the only intercessory prayer of Jesus. We may recall His words to Peter: "Simon Simon, satan hath desired to have thee, but I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not." We may be sure that as Jesus prayed for Peter He prayed for the others also. In fact His life was one long prayer for others, and in the "Lord's Prayer" He taught us each and all to make intercession for ourselves.

But the prayer that John records is intercessory in form as well as in spirit, and it is a model for our intercessory prayers. For whom did Jesus pray? And for what did He pray?

He prayed, first of all, for Himself. Is not that the beginning of true intercessory prayer? Not that it is in any respect selfish, but the first function of prayer is to bring us near to God and to prepare and strengthen us for the doing of His will. Next in the intercessory petitions is the prayer for those nearest to us in the doing of God's will.

Note how definite and specific was the prayer of Jesus for His inner circle of disciples. His prayer was not a vague, general, and sentimental prayer for all humanity. "I pray for them," He said, "I pray not for the world." God loved the world and sent His Son into the world to save it.

But here were the men, the Twelve, though one was a traitor through whom the ministry of Jesus was to be carried on. If salvation was to come to the world it was to come through them. And shortly, Jesus was to give them the commission; to go into all the world and preach the Gospel. He knew that they would face hardship and persecution; so He prayed for them, that they might be sanctified and made strong.

And He knew that when they had passed on other disciples must continue the work. So He prayed not for them alone, but for all who should believe through their word. That means you and me, for we are a part of that Gospel succession in which the faith has been handed down from generation to generation. The intercessory prayer of Jesus is for us.

Someone has prayed, and is praying, for you. Are you praying for anyone else? Intercessory prayer is, or may be, a great strengthening bond of Christian life and fellowship.

School Plays Test
