PASSOVER FEAST CELEBRATION SET

Rabbi P. W. Jacobs To Conduct Services At Temple Tonight

Services for the Feast of the Passover will be held today starting at 6:30 p. m., the Rev. Pizer W. Jacobs, rabbi of Temple Israel, announced last night.

Following the brief service, the Seder which is an order of service telling the story of the Passover, will be conducted at 7 p. m. by Rabbi Jacobs.

The Passover, known in the Jewish religion as Pesach, begins at sundown today and ends, for Reform Jews, at Sundown April 11.

Orthodox Jews celebrate eight days instead of seven, the first two being holy convocations. The Jewish date is Nisan the 15th, but the holiday begins with the Seder meal the evening before.

The Seder here at Temple Israel will be preceded by a brief ritual and then a banquet, prepared by the Concordia Society, the Temple sisterhood, will be served.

Following the banquet traditional songs and readings by the assembled guests will be heard, the Rabbi stated.

This important holiday is in celebration of the Exodus from Egypt, when the Jews were redeemed from slavery and oppression under the Pharaohs. Unleavened bread, or Matzo, are eaten during the entire seven or eight days.

The Seder service or meals on the first two nights are dedicated to a re-affirmation of the democratic ideals of freedom, which were vouchsafed to all at the time of the Exodus, when the Jews were led from Egyptian bondage by the great lawgiver Moses approximately 3400 years ago.

The ideal of democracy was given to the Pilgrim fathers and the fathers of the American Republic who read the old testament. They were inspired "to proclaim liberty throughout the land, to all the inhabitants thereof," Rabbi Jacobs pointed out.

The special religious service which is read on the first two nights is known as the Haggadah, the rabbi explained.

On Saturday morning starting promptly at 11 o'clock another Passover service will be conducted by the rabbi, who is looking forward to a large attendance.

EVANSVILLE MAYOR ARRESTED IN OFFICE ON ELECTION COUNT

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 3.—(AP)—Mayor Manson Reichert of Evansville was arrested in his office today shortly after a Vanderburgh county grand jury had returned indictments against him and five other men in connection with an investigation of campaign expenditures in last year's election.

The mayor went to the office of the County clerk where he posted $1,000 bond on one of three indictments returned against him. He was released on his own recognizance on the other charges.

Three of the others indicted also were arrested. They are Julius Ritter, city comptroller and brother-in-law of Mayor Reichert; Charles Keating, a county election commissioner; and Clarence Wolf. The mayor and Ritter are Republicans while Keating and Wolf are Democrats.

Mrs. Truman, Daughter Will Not Take Part In Easter 'Parade'

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Sunday will be just another Sunday at the White House.

Neither Mrs. Harry Truman nor Miss Margaret Truman has any special plans, except that if it is a nice day they'll go out on the Presidential yacht, the Williamsburg, on the Potomac river.

Mrs. James Helm, White House social secretary, told reporters today that neither Mrs. Truman nor her daughter has a new Easter outfit—bought especially for Easter, and they do not plan to join the Easter fashion parade.

They will, however, attend an early church service. Mrs. Truman and her 23-year-old daughter are Episcopalians. The President is a Baptist. No church-going plans for him have been announced.

LARGE BUILDING PROGRAM PLANNED

Baptist Churches Of America May Spend $40,000,000 This Year

CHARLOTTE, April 3.—(AP)—W. A. Harrell, secretary of the Southern Baptist convention, predicted here today that the denomination would construct in the next 12 years churches and parsonages amounting to $250,000,000 in value, with an estimated outlay of $40,000,000 this year.

Harrell's forecast was made at the concluding session today of the North Carolina Baptist Sunday school convention. He was one of several speakers on the closing program.

Dr. H. W. Tribbie of Louisville, Ky., Baptist seminary professor of theology, expressed in an address disapproval of parochial schools. He added, however, that there is so little emphasis on teaching of religion in public schools that America "is filled with religious illiterates."

Dr. Tribbie expressed the opinion that public schools should place more emphasis on moral and religious teaching.

Dr. T. L. Holcomb of Nashville, Tenn., executive secretary of the Southern Baptist convention, another of today's speakers, urged delegates to the local meeting to "hear the divine command" and to "carry the gospel" to the people.

Leaf Samples Off

LONDON, April 3.—(AP)—Experiments in the cultivation of flue-cured tobacco are being made in Cyprus, but samples received here so far compare unfavorably with similar flue-cured leaf from the U. S. and empire grown Virginia leaf, the annual report of the Imperial institute said today.

Institute experts in their report to the Cyprus growers made recommendations concerning further experiments, the publication said.

Tobacco Credit

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—The export-import bank announced today a $5,000,000 credit to the Italian Tobacco monopoly for use in buying American tobacco.

Italy grows most of the tobacco it consumes, but uses foreign leaf to supplement its crop and blend with it for domestic and export purposes.

The Italian government guarantees both principal and interest on the money, the bank said.
