

CONTEST WINNERS FETED BY LIONS

Declamation Winners Guest of Club at Luncheon Meet

Winners of the recent declamation contest at New Hanover High School sponsored by the Wilmington Lions club were guests at the civic organization's luncheon meeting yesterday, J. C. Parker, of the club's publicity committee, reported.

Adair Simkins, Frank Bradley, and Betty Lou O'Masters, who were accompanied by Mrs. A. V. Jomer of the school faculty.

During the session, which was presided over by Joe Hood, president, the members heard an address by Mrs. C. Wayne Spencer, who spoke in behalf of the Cancer drive. Dr. H. A. Codrington also spoke briefly in behalf of the cancer campaign.

Betty Lou O'Masters and Robert McCarl delivered their prize-winning declamations for the two members.

Two announcements were made during the meeting were the fashion show and dance, sponsored by the club, will be held at Lumina on Wrightsville Beach on April 19 and that nominations for officers

COURT RECESSES FOR WEEK-END

The first week of the April civil term of Superior Court, with Judge Chester R. Morris of Currituck county presiding, recessed yesterday afternoon after disposing of four cases during the day long session.

Court will reconvene here next Monday at 10 a. m. with Judge Clawson L. Williams of Sanford presiding.

During yesterday's session most of the day was consumed with the case of Dorothy Clemens Boone vs David L. Boone.

The Boones agreed to enter a consent judgment which Judge Morris said he would accept.

As set out in the judgment Mrs Boone, who was seeking alimony without divorce, will receive $100 immediately and $30 per month for a period of two years in addition to her attorney's fee, which was set by the judge at $75.

Leon B. Royal by his next friend, A. W. Royal, received a judgment for $600 damages for injuries sustained in a traffic accident from Z. V. Pate, Inc.

Divorces were granted in the suits of Frances W. Williamson vs. John E. Williamson and Mary Elizabeth Parker vs. William Howard Parker.

RABBI JACOBS SPEAKS ON 'LOVE'

Sermon Tonight Final During The Passover Season

Rabbi Pizer W. Jacobs will speak on "Life's Highest Message - Love", at the Friday night service in the Temple of Israel, the last day of the Passover season, he announced last night.

The service will begin promptly at 8 p. m., and in his talk Rabbi Jacobs will stress the belief that love, without hate, or contempt is the great need of life today.

Services also will be held on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and Sunday school will hold on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

REQUEST ADDITIONAL ROTC

RALEIGH, April 10—(AP)—N. C. State College has requested the war department to establish three additional ROTC units on the campus, effective July 1, Col. Sam A. Gibson, commandant of the college's department of military science and tactics, said today.

Divorces were granted in the suits of Frances W. Williamson vs. John E. Williamson and Mary Elizabeth Parker vs. William Howard Parker.
