TAR HEELS BLAST CINCINNATI, 11-7

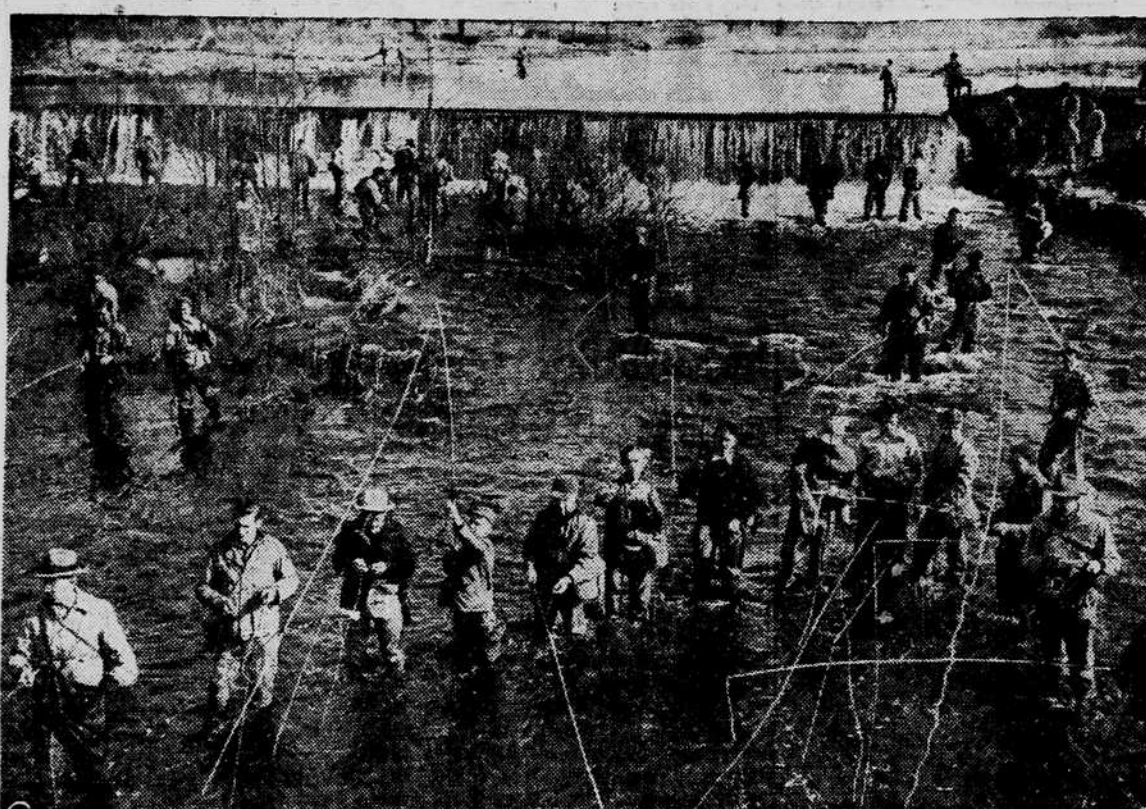

Carolina Batters Gather 15 Hits In Victory; Duke Tomorrow

CHAPEL HILL, April 17—(AP)—North Carolina's Tar Heels belted fifteen hits off Hans Hiene to defeat the University of Cincinnati Bearcats, 11-7, here today in a free scoring baseball game played in a cold drizzle.

Kenny Black, Carolina's brilliant centerfielder, had three for three, including a double, and drove in four runs to lead the parade. He also stole a base and contributed the fielding gem of the day when he made a one-hand stab of Tuck Asbury's powerful wallop up against the barrier in deep center. Tommy Andrew coasted most of the seven innings he worked, with his team holding a safe lead.

The Tar Heels play Duke at Durham tomorrow at 3 o'clock with Monk Whiteheart, who already this season has turned back the Blue Devils once, doing the honors on the firing line.

THE ARLY BIRD CATCHES THE FISH is the motto of anglers who appeared at a stream near Hacktystown on the opening day of the New Jersey trout season. Fortunately there was plenty for all. Official starting time was 8 a.m. and at that early hour the rods and reels were ready and waiting—(International).

Laxton Takes Paul, 1-Up, In Carolinas First Round

Former Champ Fires Par, Taking Medal Honors In Florence Play

FLORENCE, S. C., April 17.—(AP)—Erwin L. Laxton of Charlotte, the medalist, went the full 18-hole route today to defeat Boots Paul of Columbia 1 up in the first round of championship play in the 33rd annual Carolinas Amateur Golf tournament.

Laxton, a former holder of the Carolinas crown, fired an even par 70 yesterday over the 6,100-yard Florence country club course to take medal honors, while Paul won his place in the title flight with a 76.

In a similarly close match, Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C., runner-up in last year's tourney, scored a 1-up victory over Richard J. Randleman of Salisbury, N. C. Patton qualified yesterday with a 73 and Randleman shot a 77.

Only one match in the flight's total of 16 went beyond the 18-hole mark. Harry Welch of Salisbury, runner-up for medalist honors yesterday with a 71, closed out L. N. Clark of Myrtle Beach on the 19th hole. Clark carded a 76 yesterday.

The first round's biggest margin of victory fell to Emory D. Harper of Columbia, who defeated J. B. White of Spartanburg, 6 and 4.

Another former champion of this tourney, H. S. Covington of Orangeburg, scored a 5 and 4 victory over his fellow townsman, Leon Dantzel, while F. J. Torza of Southern Pines, N. C., defeated Dave Smith, Jr., of Gastonia, N. C., by the same margin.

Tomorrow's pairings send Laxton against Sammy Russell, Jr., of Florence, who bested E. T. Hughes of Florence, 1 up, while Covington will meet Harold Hall of Columbia in second round play. Hall today eliminated W. L. Adams of Florence, 3 and 2.

Patton, who lost out last year to Jimmy McNair of Aiken, Duke University student who by-passed defense of his crown this year to play in the Southern Intercollegiate tourney, was slated to tangle tomorrow with Norman James, Morganton golfer who today defeated Clark Taylor of Florence, 2 and 1.

A pair of former champions of Myers Park club in Charlotte, Keelley Grice and W. R. (Bill) Dowtin, were paired for tomorrow's play after respective first round victories over G. Wilson Bryce of Florence, 1 up, and Raymond L. Pittman of Fayetteville, N. C., by the same score.

PHILLIES RALLY TO DOWN GIANTS

PHILADELPHIA, April 17—(AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies overcame a four run disadvantage by scoring six times in the fourth inning today with Skeeter Newsome highlighting the rally by batting in three runs with a double and went on to defeat the New York Giants, 11-5.

Whiteville Comets To Play Bladenboro Spins Saturday

New Ball Park At Bladenboro To Be Dedicated At Contest

BY JIGGS POWERS
Sta. Correspondent

WHITEVILLE, April 17.—Since old Jupiter Pluvius cheated them out of their opening home game last Sunday, Whiteville's Comets will again attempt to get their Eastern State League schedule under way on Saturday afternoon, April 12, at 3 p. m., when they tangle with the powerful Bladenboro Spinnors in the latter park. This will be the first home game of the year for the Spins and will be the dedicatory contest for the new park that will house the Eastern State League games of this year's Bladenboro club.

Manager Earl Brinkley is planning to send either Roger Harwood, runner-up among last year's ESL pitchers; or David Neilson, who had fairly good luck with the Spins in last year's games, to the hill in an attempt to bring the victory back home from the Bladen ballwick. In this year's only test, Harwood gave the Elizabethtown Red Sox four hits in five innings, while Neilson, taking over during the last four racks relinquished only two bingles.

The Comets showed that they could use the stick well in this battle, pounding out a total of 15 hits in downing the Sox, 18-0. Billy Hargrove will in all probability be behind the bat for the Comets; since David Hooks, promising young backstop slated for the local receiving position, has had to give up baseball in the ESL.

H. B. Hargrove, manager of the Bladenboro aggregation, sent his nine off to a flying start on last Sunday when they climbed out a 10-1 decision over the Red Sox of Elizabethtown, on the losers field, in the only ESL opener that was played, Johnny Hammonds, third baseman, and William Hester, outfielder, led the massacre with four hits for five trips each. Levy Bridger, Jr., the mainstay of the Spins hill staff, gave up six puny singles in winning his first start of 1947. Bridger is expected to toe the rubber for the Bladen club Saturday against the Comets.

Business Manager Dewey Hooks, of the Whiteville team, announced this morning that the Bladenboro team would also play an exhibition game in Whiteville on this Sunday, April 13, at 2:30. This game will have no bearing on the Eastern League race but a tough battle is expected since these teams always battle down to the wire when they meet. Hooks said that he would be unable to say just who could be expected to pitch, since the League contest on the day before would be the more important of the two and the outcome of this game would also decide just who would hurl in the Sunday contest.

DUKE TRACK TEAM WINS

DURHAM, April 17—(AP)—Sweeping all of their points in four of the 14 events, Duke university's track team took its third straight duel meet of the season in Duke stadium here this afternoon by turning back Virginia's Cavaliers, 79-47.

Red-Hot Slugfest On W.M.F.D. Tonight

Julio Jimenez (above), a fiery lightweight who hails from down south of the border, and Philadelphia's sharp-shooting Eddie Giosa headline the fistic fiesta in New York tonight. ABC network will air this ten-round fracas with Bill Corum and Don Dunphy at the microphones.

Since he came to New York, the moustachioed Mexican mixer has been galloping upgrade in the lightweight mitt parade. He has won 13 of his 14 starts in the East—and reversed the one defeat. Julio is primarily a left hooker.

The Quaker City mauler also has been riding an upward spiral against high caliber opposition. Giosa's a rip-and-tear, bull-like fighter who likes to pump leather with both hands. The beak-busting industry looks forward to a rough night.
