Where Prices Are Always Low

Colonial's long established pricing policy continues to assure greater savings to customers throughout the year.

The purchasing power which results from our expanding volume, together with efficient methods of distribution, permits Colonial to offer outstanding value on fine quality foods. And, when market declines on any commodity ing on to customers.

The periodical special sales whereby we divide with you the benefits of advantageous purchases represent a relatively small part of our effort. We accept our full responsibility of supplying throughout the year all the foods necessary for your table at the lowest possible cost.
