Washington's Tar Heelers Take Time Out For Vacations Back Home

By JULIA McINCH SLEAR

The Capital's social whirl is waning a little this week, with vacation-fatigued Washingtonians returning slowly to the city-routine. Here and there are gatherings, of course—social and otherwise. With the usual run of distinguished visitors and the more or less interesting events. But the customary gaiety, the enthusiasm, the joie de vivre are missing definitely. The glorious fourth falling on Friday this year gave many people three wonderful days for the pursuit of happiness, which includes among cur inalienable rights—and it's been pretty hard to get back into the "social harness".

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce J. Downey who spent some time with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Maynard of Newport News formerly of Raleigh, are home again, with interesting stories to relate about their grandchildren, Julian, Jr. and Adelaide Maynard. And with the three days packed with fun to remember, Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Hicks returned to their Silver Spring home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cain who accompanied them to Nag's Head swung over to Raleigh for a short visit with Mrs. Cain's sister. From there they will go to Red Springs to visit another sister and thence to High Point before returning to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McFayden who have been visiting relatives in Fayetteville, joined their daughter and her children in Hendersonville before returning to the capital, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jones and their daughter, Janelle, are at home again after a brief visit in Farmville. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. H. Jones, who has spent the past two months with her son and daughter in-law. Janelle who has lovely blonde curls and a winsome manner is also very clever, for she has won a scholarship at the Cynthia Warner school two years in succession not only for excellent scholastic lines but for being the best all-round student.

The John W. Lawsons who have been doing a turn about the Bay, sailing down the Potomac, just before the Fourth, are returning next week with a series of pictures calculated to make even the most confirmed landlubbers long for the spray of the ocean in his face. Later they plan a trip that will take them to Morehead City and other shore "points of interest." Brown as berries are the Tar Heels who were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Newman over the long week-end at their cottage at Edgewater Beach. Invited to join in the fun with the Newmans were Mr. and Mrs. William Y. Webb, Mrs. Allie Stephenson Hoke and the attractive newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wright Lewis (nee was Frances Hilda Johnson). Another vacationer taking advantage of the holidays is Virginia Konegoy who is off for Chicago where she will attend a legal convocation being held by her fraternity.

Half of the fun of having been in a strange city or country is reading a friend's reaction to that same locality. It's been a long time since we were in Switzerland. Obviously, it has maintained through those years, its meanness of sincerity and poise, its great beauty and the grandeur which struck us so forcibly when we were there, for the card which came to us this week from W. A. Graham Clark, Teriff Commission's representative to the International Trade Conference, crystallized our own memories of that peace-loving week.

Slightly Off The Record

Wilmington, N. C. July 13, 1947.

Dear Peggy—

One of the most delightful entertainments of the season took place on Monday evening from 8:30 until 11:30 o'clock when Henry Jay MacMillan was host to approximately 75 friends at his summer home on the northern extension at Wrightsville Beach honoring his guests, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Thomas L. Crystal, Jr. In the living room were placed at intervals, and receiving in the living room with Henry MacMillan were Lt. Col. Crystal and Mrs. Crystal, the host's mother, Mrs. Henry J. MacMillan of this city, and his sister, Mrs. J. Laurena Wright of Charlotte and Wrightsville Beach. Cocktails and h'o' douves were served in Henry's studio, which is the "last word" from a standpoint of enormous size, square shape, unusually high ceiling, and excellent taste in the interior decoration. Col. Crystal is instructor in social science at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

Colonel and Mrs. Beverly C. Snow charmingly entertained at cocktails yesterday evening from 6:30 until 8:30 o'clock at their lovely home in Forest Hills complimenting Colonel and Mrs. George Gillette of Atlanta, who are spending the week-end at Wrightsville Beach. Garden flowers were effectively arranged in the living room and dining room of the home, and cocktails and h'o' douves were served on the terrace to the 75 who called during the cocktail hour. Col. Gillette is Chief of U. S. Army Engineers for the Southeastern Division with headquarters at Atlanta. Mrs. Gillette is the former Mrs. Marguerite Bellamy MacRae of this city.

We heard the other day, Peg, that the W. E. Lewis home at 15 Country Club Pines, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Burney who resided at 308 Carolina avenue. Mr. Burney is connected with the Loftis Construction company. Mrs. Lewis left recently for Orlando, Fla., to join Mr. Lewis who is interested in the fertilizer business there. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will regret to learn of their departure from our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hall with their son and daughter, Randolph, Jr., and Nancy Hall of Danville, Va., have arrived at Wrightsville Beach for the summer, having leased one of the Creasy apartments at 6 Channel Drive for several months. The Hall family spent last summer at Wrightsville and are being cordially welcomed again this season. Mr. Hall is head of the Chrysler agency in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Hall expect to move into their apartment at the Oleander Court during the coming week. Since the return from their wedding trip they have resided temporarily at the home of Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Holland at 510 Dock street. Mrs. Hall, prior to her marriage on June 4 was Carolyn Holland of this city.

Mrs. Graham K. Hobbs of Raleigh returned to her home on Friday after visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Pemberton for a week at her home on Dock street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fox of Greensboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Beale of Franklin, Va., have returned to their homes after a visit at Wrightsville Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Baker of Greensboro at their summer home 319 South Lumina avenue. Mrs. Beale, the former Anne Baker, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker and young daughter, Orrell Parker of New York city, are spending their vacation with Mrs. Parker's
