

MARRIES IN GEORGIA—Mrs. Joel Adam Willis, Jr., the former Millie Mildred Botesky of Wilmington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Botesky, whose wedding took place on June 5 in East Point, Ga.

Dorothy Cook, Hubert McKoy Wed In Church

The First Christian church, Third and Ann streets, was the scene of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Mae Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cook, Jr., of this city, to Hubert Harold McKoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McKoy, also of this city, Saturday, July 5, at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Philip Byron Carlisle officiated.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by the organist. The church was decorated with palms, ferns, and arrangements of white flowers. Tall white tapers burned in branched candelabra.

Attending the bride was Miss Shirley Bartfield as maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of sky-blue organically fashioned with a round neck, short sleeves, and a set-in ruffle at the skirt. Her picture hat was of matching blue organdy. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

Lyman McLean of Henderson was best man. Ushers were Leonard McKoy and Graham McKoy. The bride's mother wore a dress of sky blue, and white picture hat and white gloves. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore an orchid dress, orchid hat trimmed with small pink rosebuds, and a corsage of pink carnations. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the church.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach and Savannah. For traveling Mrs. McKoy wore a white dress styled with a long tunic blouse, a big prim white hat, and red accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. McKoy attended Savannah High school. Mr. McKoy is a graduate of New Hanover High school and is employed at the Tide Water Power company.

The couple will reside in Lake Forest.

Willis-Botesky Vows Solemnized

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Botesky of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Millie Mildred, to Joel Adam Willis, Jr., of Waycross, Ga.

The marriage took place on June 5 in East Point, Ga., and was performed by the Rev. V. L. Bryant.

Mrs. Willis is a graduate of New Hanover High school class of 1940. The bride wore for her wedding a two-piece white suit with a white orchid corsage. She was connected with the Office of Naval Intelligence during the war and is at present employed by the Eastern Air Lines of Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Willis is associated with the American Surgical Supply company, and also attended the Atlanta Law school. He served three and a half years with the United States Navy as an engineer.

Miss Ethel (Tokyo) Botesky, sister of the bride, who has recently returned from overseas duty, was present for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis are making their home in Atlanta at 818 Allene avenue.
