Preparation Speech Theme

South Carolina Executive Points Out That Time Will Be Element

SALT LAKE CITY, July 15.—(AP)—The annual Governors' conference today heard a strong plea for "total mobilization" plans to prepare the nation for another war on a moment's notice.

The agreement with Todd, he said, expires July 23, and the walk-out would affect about 15,000 workers in the New York City area, about 5,000 in New Orleans area, about 5,000 in San Pedro, Calif. He said 67,000 workers already are on strike at 19 shipyards on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

MANAGER BENSON "NON-COMMITAL"

City Official Will Neither Confirm, Deny Police Promotion Stories

City Manager J. R. Benson said tonight that he would neither confirm nor deny published reports that a number of police officers, who were named in the story, soon would be promoted to certain top positions.

The whiskey raids were conducted under the supervision of Earl S. Bland, chief of the New Hanover ABC officers and A. G. Scarborough, State ABC agent of Raleigh. J. C. Cook and W. E. Singletary, local ABC agents, made the arrests.

Members of city council, who were available for comment, said the story was news to them. And since that was the case, they said they could offer no comment.

The new 6,000-word directive laid down American objectives and basic policies to be pursued in the U. S. administration of still-partitioned Germany. It contained especially in its economic aspects, some policy revisions which were stated officially and publicly for the first time.

Woman Whose Heart Belonged To Men With Wings, Pays Too

NEW $64 QUESTION—WHO IS 5 CENTS?

MELBOURNE, Fla., July 15.—(AP)—Pretty Joyce Shultz MacKinnon, 26-year-old former WAC whose heart belonged to men with wings, lost three husbands in airplane crashes and died with the fourth in a dizzy plunge from the skies near here Sunday, it was learned today.

In order to prepare for this "possibility," Thurmond demanded that the United States formulate a plan for total mobilization on a moment's notice. "We will not have months and weeks in which to prepare; we will have only hours and minutes," he said.

Marie Wilson, a Taber City colored woman, was on the witness stand and Coroner Nance asked who was with her at a certain time. She named one person and then added, "and Five Cents." Coroner Nance looked surprised and tried to ascertain whether she referred to a nickel or five cents.

Further investigation into the matter likely will be launched tomorrow. Attention will be paid to officers who may have "participated in gossip activities and agitation detrimental to the best interests of the department," particularly as concerns recommendations for promotions not yet announced.
