Second Trip To Manteo Scheduled

Because of the success and popularity of the first personally con-ducted trip to Manteo, a Red Feather Service to the people of Wilmington, a second trip of the same nature has been scheduled for August 16-17. Seventeen persons have already signed up to go. As only 32 persons can be accommodated, everyone interested is asked to contact the YWCA as soon as possible.

Those going on the trip will have a chance to see the pageant, "The Lost Colony," by Paul Green. All reservations for the Williamsburg trip on July 24-25 to see the pageant "The Common Glory" have been taken, however, another trip will be made during August if enough persons call in for reservations. Both trips are offered at cost.
