COLUMBUS SLATES TOBACCO FESTIVAL

Annual Event To Be Held August 28 At Whiteville Army

WHITEVILLE, Aug. 17. - The annual Columbus County Tobacco Festival, sponsored jointly by the Woman's and Junior Woman's Clubs of Whiteville, will be held in Whiteville on August 28 in the Armory. Mrs. David Smith has been appointed the over-all chairman for this year's festival.

The highlighted feature of the festival will be the crowning of the 1947 Tobacco Queen for Columbus County, as "Miss Columbus." Every civic club has been contacted in the county to send a representative to the festival to vie for the honor. Judges are being chosen from outside the county.

Miss Anne McKenzie, the 1946 beauty queen, will reign over the festival until the actual crowning of this year's queen. Miss McKenzie will take part in the crowning ceremony to be held sometime during the dance. An orchestra being contacted at the present time for an engagement is highly rated in the dancing circles of North Carolina, Mrs. Smith said.

Contestants must be 17 years of age and must have passed her 20th birthday prior to August 28. Contestants must also be single, having never been married, and sponsored by one club only.

Mrs. J. A. Maultsby, chairman of the invitation committee, expects to have a complete list of contestants in by the end of this week. Mrs. H. B. Gurganus has made plans to have a buffet supper for all contestants along with many other social entertainments.
