

Three weeks from tomorrow the first line will be set in the second annual fishing event sponsored by the South-eastern North Carolina Beach association.

This 'Big Time Charlie' of the fishing world is destined to attract visitors from throughout the states as they vie for $15,000 in cash and secondary prizes.

Here at home the area angler will be in for force to add his talents to the search for specimens which might become prize winners.

It might be apropos to refresh the memories of local fishermen of the favorite haunts of the major fish that they might ready themselves and also be prepared to answer inquiries of the visitor who will ask "Where can we get the big one?"

From the deepsea angle it stands to reason the majority of the major catches are going to be made in the vicinity of the Light-Skip Frying Pan and the Old Position Buoy.

Marlin may take the first prize—and we hope it is true—but few boats are equipped to withstand the strike and sudden rushes of the strike caught after specie.

This is especially true of the blue specimen whose first rush will end only after several hundred yards of line have been played from a reel at a speed that will set the gears smoking often resulting in a ruined reel.

Of course the marlin are out there are several have been sighted but the angler who is fishing for marlin and nothing else. He will not be able to combine the fishing of blue fish, for an example, with trolling for the ultimate in a south Atlantic trophy.

The large-blue marlin caught off Hatteras several years ago was an culmination of several years' effort on the part of the angler. He spent many days trolling for his prize and the cost in monies expended was high but low to the lucky fisherman—he got what he was after.

The white marlin and sail fin both of which—within 25 miles of Southport—a goodly specimen will probably be boated to take its place in the standings of the rodeo as it moves along its 45-day course.

Tuna! There is one which we fear, although a straggler may come this way and fall victim to an anglers hook. This fish usually moves Nova Scotia way in May and June and comes in the circle and cone of the Bimini about 11 weeks towards the end of the season.

All the fish will probably be found in the center of the Gulf some 150 miles offshore. Tuna have been brought to boat in this area but usually a small one taken by net.

Delphin, amberjack, barracuda! Now we have something that can be found in large numbers, usually schools. This offshore near the old position Buoy and the Light Skip for the greatest numbers and the largest.

The 18-mile rocks off Wrightsville also give forth with large amberjack as disclosed last year with the record breaking catch posted by the "Jim Jam".

Bouto and spanish mackerel can be found closer to shore and especially near the shoals off Southport. Known to boat captains as bait fish in many instances, the two species are both fun to catch and at the same time bonito and mackerel strips make good trolling bait.

The king mackerel (cero), wahoo, cabio and the other less important deepsea fish listed can be found together with the amberjack, dolphin and "cuda".

The pompano, normally a surf fish, is being caught on the outside and when told said replied: "Mrs. Royall caught a seven foot, one inch sail during the past winter in Florida and she caught it without any help."

Spofford Sparkles In Win In Greensboro Tournament

1-0 VICTORY SENDS LOCALS NEAR FINALS

Wilmington's softball champions, the Spofford Mills hard-hitting squad, were held to two hits yesterday in its bid for the North Carolina title, but with Snag Allen dashing home with the only run of the game in the seventh inning, and Al A. King twirling scoreless ball, the Millers moved to within three games of the state championship in the Greensboro tournament.

The Spofford team sparkled in a 1-0 victory over Asheville and sent Bob Shipp to the hill today in the quarter finals.

Today the Millers are to clash with the winner of a High Point-Charlotte battle which got under way last night.

King hurled Spofford into the quarter-finals in great style, as the locals came up with another errorless game and extended their streak of horsecollars for enemy teams to 13 innings. In the fourth, Asheville put two men on base with two of the four hits given up by King, but that was the only time an enemy player got as far as third base.

Leading the way to the 1-0 victory, Allen walked with one out in the seventh inning. Sherrill Strickland fanned, but Levy King drilled a long double to center off hurler Jenkins, sending Allen to third. Allen then drew a catcher's throw to the hot corner, and dashed home with the only run of the game.

King fanned four and walked but one in the game. Hugh Griffith got the only other Wilmington hit, a single in the third. No box score was available.

Harrington Hurls Against Southport

One game out in front of the Whiteville Comets in the Eastern State semi-pro league, the Masonboro Ramblers are idle today in regular league play, but will form the nucleus of an All-Star team and journey to Southport for a clash with the Yellow Jackets. Meanwhile the Comets are scheduled to play the Elizabethtown Red Sox in Elizabethtown.

Frank Maner, skipper of the Ramblers, will pilot the stars in the battle today, and will send the Wilmington favorite, Monk Harrington, to the mound.

The Ramblers have two more games to play in the Eastern State and the Comets play three. The two teams will collide next week, and Maner has already named hurler in Southeastern Snag Allen, top semi-pro hurler in Southeastern North Carolina, as the man to face the Whiteville aggregation.

REPORT DODGERS SIGN NEGRO STAR

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Brooklyn has taken a six-day option on Negro pitcher Dan Bankhead of the Memphis Red Sox, it was revealed today, and General Manager E. B. Martin of the Negro American League team said he was "sure" the Dodgers would announce his purchase Tuesday.

President Branch of Brooklyn, who watched Bankhead pitch last night, left Memphis today without confirming the report that he had all but closed a deal for the rangy right-hander.

While refusing to disclose the amount of cash that would be involved in such a transaction, the Memphis general manager said it would be in excess of that paid for any other Negro player bought by a big league club.

Rickey arrived here from St. Louis last night with Dodger scout George Sisler, admittedly for the purpose of "looking over" Bankhead.

Bankhead scored an easy victory while striking out 11 hitters and walking five. The pitcher, a native of Birmingham, Ala., has a season record of 11 victories and five defeats. He has struck out in 124 batters and is regarded a dangerous hitter. His .385 batting average tops the circuit and is used frequently as a pinch-hitter.

"We've got to get some pitchers, and get them quick," Rickey said. "They have gotten so tough, we don't even know who's going to pitch for us Monday."

WEED ALL-STARS SELECTED SOON

With the Tobacco State league baseball season nearing its end, Gus Fan is wondering just who will be named on the All-Star team this year.

Last year, All-Star selections included: first base, Marvin Lorenz (Angier-Fuquay); second base, Jimmy Guinn (Sanford); third base, Lonnie Smith (Clinton); shortstop, Joe Nesling (Sanford); left field, Ed Bass (Dunn-Erwin); center field, Willie Duke (Clinton); right field, Hank Nesselrode (Sanford); 354; catcher, Bill Campau (Clinton); 336. The pitchers and their records were Bobby Auman (Clinton) 23-4, Howard Auman (Sanford) 28-8 and Earl Mossor (Clinton) 21-8.

According to the latest official Tobacco State league batting averages the men this year who stand the best chance of making the 1947 outfit follow. Of the group only Jimmy Quinn and Hank Nesselrode, both of Sanford, are on the 1947 selection. Quinn's average this year is .348 to last year's .302 mark, while Nesselrode's percentage is .358 compared with last season's .354. Both have improved and their improvement is a big reason for Sanford's big leadership margin.

Here is the complete team: BA HE RBI 1b—Slats Marx (Lum)... 317 82 2b—Jimmy Guinn (San)... 248 2 56 3b—Ed Kukuika (Clin)... 328 8 74 ss—Mel Farmer (B. OUT FOR SEASON CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Eddie Robinson Cleveland Indian's first baseman, will be out of play for the rest of the season because of a fractured right ankle suffered in today's game which the Indians lost to the New York Yankees, 13-6.

The third batt' today brings Hampstead to Legion Stadium for a tilt with the visitors' Jim Wheeler, star of the visitors' will oppose Jim Crawford and Lappy Williams of U. Cola-men. With a Masonboro victory today, the play-off series will start in Legion Stadium this week and will be a two out of three game affair.

APPLING OF WHITE SOX EYES

Cards In Triple Play; Dodger Stars Injured

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Those never-say-die St. Louis Cardinals never said a winning homer in Joe Medwick's bat today and then extinguished a Philadelphia Phillies threat with an eight-inning triple play for a 5-3 victory and an even split in their final four-game series here.

Medwick's sixth inning homer, with Stan Musial and Whitey Kurowski aboard, was called shot first before the pitch he seeped from the batter's box and, as though speaking to some one in the Phillies dugout, pointed first to his bat and then the left field bleachers. Then he stepped back to the plate and slammed a line drive into the second deck 355 feet away.

But the Cardinals had to go all out in defense to protect their lead in the last two innings. Andy Seminick and Lee Handley were on base, with one out, when pitcher Charley Gilbert came to bat in the eighth with orders to punt.

Gilbert missed two pitches, then tried again. The call popped weekly into foul territory where Card catcher Del Rice lunged for the catch. Rice threw to Marty Marion to double Seminick off second and Marion relayed the ball to first baseman Musial to complete the second National League triple play of the 1947 season. Chicago earlier had made a triple play against Pittsburgh.

Benton Looks Like Phil Outfielder Says Scorer

BY GENE WARREN Star-News Sports Writer "A year ago I was in the sick bed hoping to see the Chicago Cubs and my favorite major league player, Phil Cavarretta, in action," said Doug Sessions, official scorer of the local softball leagues yesterday after returning from a short trip to Philadelphia.

"Well," smiled the 16-year old New Hanover high school junior, "I got my wish."

"Dad (Hanson Sessions of 110 South 9th) and mom took me up and what a grand time I had. I saw two doubleheaders, one between the Phils and the Dodgers and the other between the Phils and the Cubs."

"Phil Cavarretta played left field for the Bruins and smacked out four hits in the twin bill. His fielding was the highlight of both contests."

"Harry (The Hat) Walker looks just like Billy Benton of the Pirates in many ways. He bats just like Benton and his style of fielding resembles Billy's remarkably."

"In my estimation Cavarretta is the best ball player I saw. Being switched from first base to the outfield usually hurts star players, but like Stan Musial, Cavarretta came through like a champion. Musial, you know, made the grade after moving from the meadow to the initial sack."

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The Boston Braves opened up right at the start today with a four-run first inning and a five-run second as they whaled out a 10-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Braves collected 15 hits for a total of 23 bases as Red Barrett chalked up his 10th win of the season.

Ann of the Braves hit safely excepting Barrett and Dick Culler, Connie Ryan got his fourth homer, a double and a single, while Frank McCormick collected two doubles and a single.

The Braves got their four runs in the first inning off starting pitcher Lefty Schmitz, the first three of them being scored on Bob Elliott's double to left. Then they came back in the second to club relief man Doyle Lade for five more runs.

It was Boston's twelfth victory of the season over the Cubs, who have taken seven of their games with the Braves.

The Braves got their four runs in the first inning off starting pitcher Lefty Schmitz, the first three of them being scored on Bob Elliott's double to left. Then they came back in the second to club relief man Doyle Lade for five more runs.

YANKS BOMBARD CLEVELAND, 13-6

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Allie Reynolds became the first pitcher in the American league to gain 16 victories today as the New York Yankees lashed out 17 hits to trounce the Cleveland Indians, 13-6.

Reynolds, who pitched for the Indians last year, tied in the ninth after getting two out and Joe Page came on to retire the side.

The Yanks supported Reynolds' pitching with a 17-hit attack against three Cleveland pitchers with Johnny Lindell and Tommy Henrich leading the way with three hits apiece.

After nicking Red Embree for two runs in the first, the Yanks batted around, knocking Embree out in the second and scoring eight times to sew up the game.

The Yanks added single runs in each of the next three innings as the Indians picked up one in the third, fifth, sixth and three in the seventh.

Reynolds, who has served up more home run balls than any other Yankee pitcher, was socked for homers by Ed Bockman and Pat Seery, the 21st and 22nd he has allowed this season.
