BEER-America's Deverage of Moderation

What The LAW Requires

The question is sometimes raised as to what the law requires of retail beer dealers. Here are the principal requirements for those who sell malt beverages for consumption on the premises, as condensed from the North Carolina Beverage Control Act of 1939, as amended:

To obtain a retail beer Heekse, one mast show:

- 1. That he is over 21 years old and has been a resident of the State and a citizen of the United States for one year or more.
- 2. That he has not been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude or adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition laws within two years.
- 8. That he intends to earry on the business for himself or under his immediate supervision and direction.

To Nocy his Weense, a rotal dealer must not:

- I. Enowingly sell mait beverages to anyone under 18 years of age. (Another act prohibits employment of minors under 18 years of age in places where beer is sold for consumption on
- 2. Knowingly sell such beverages to intoxicated persons.

8. Self such heverage outside the legal hours.

- 4. Permit disorderly conduct, improper or leamoral entertainint, conduct or practices on premises.
- 5. Sell, offer for sale, prisess or permit the consumption on the hicensed premises of any alcholic liquors not authorized under

These are the fundamental points of the North Carolina code for beer dealers. This Committee heartily endorses every one of these requirements and through our Self-Regulation Program we feel that we have accomplished much toward bringing shout their acceptance and observance by the great majority of beer dealers in North Carolina. For complete legal details regarding the sale of beer, one should refer to the law itself, a copy of which ean be obtained free of charge from the Committoe's Raleith office.
