

FORECAST:

Wilmington and vicinity: Mostly cloudy and mild today, cooler tonight and Saturday.

Wilmington Morning Star

Polio Drive Given Boost

Representatives of Southeastern Carolina Chapters Meet Here

Representatives of seven Southeastern North Carolina chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis made plans for the 1948 March of Dimes campaign and heard three James Walker Memorial staff members discuss the hospital's treatment facilities in a dinner session at the Friendly last night.

EARLE C. CLEMENTS—The State of Kentucky returned to the Democratic column again when it elected Rep. Earle C. Clements of Morganfield as the State's Chief Executive.

HUGHES FACTORY LABELED "CLUB"

Discharged Plant Manager Says He Was Unable To Speed War Work

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—A discharged plant manager today called Howard Hughes' aircraft plant in California a "country club" in which he was unable to speed production on $40,000,000 worth of wartime contracts.

WAGE AGREEMENT CANCELS STRIKE

Cone Mills Interests, Union Reach Accord Before Walkout Deadline

GREENSBORO, Nov. 6.—A nine per cent wage increase agreement reached only three hours before the strike deadline forestalled a walkout by 3,200 Textile Workers Union of America (CIO) members today at six mills of the big Cone plant.

TOBACCO PRICES VEER DOWNWARD

Eastern Markets Report Declines, Middle, Old Belts Irregular

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS General price averages on the Eastern North Carolina flue-cured tobacco belt veered downward yesterday and those on the Middle and Old Belts were irregular, the Federal-Statelike Departments of Agriculture reported.

The Weather

FORECAST: North Carolina and South Carolina—Mostly cloudy and mild Friday. Showers West portion in afternoon showers and cooler Friday night and Saturday.

White House Gets Poultry

Crates Of Clucking Chickens Form Live Protest From Producers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Crates of clucking chickens began arriving today at the White House and the Luckman Food committee headquarters as irate fowl producers protested poultryless Thursday.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

UN Political Committee Votes Approval Of "Little Assembly"; Battle Looms Over Aid Program

Republicans Ask Full Disclosure

Secretary Marshall Urged To Appear Before Groups On Monday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Congress squared away today for a big battle over methods of aiding Europe, as Republican leaders called for a full disclosure of facts and scored the Truman administration for "incompetency" in handling foreign relief billions.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

Molotov Tells Russian Nation Atomic Bomb No Longer Secret

BISHOPS APPROVE PHILIPPINE PLEA

Committee Votes Unanimously In Favor Of Limited Church Union

WINSTON-SALEM, Nov. 6.—The petition of the Philippine Independent church for a limited union with the Protestant Episcopal church of America was approved today by the American church's House of Bishops.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

Molotov Tells Russian Nation Atomic Bomb No Longer Secret

BISHOPS APPROVE PHILIPPINE PLEA

Committee Votes Unanimously In Favor Of Limited Church Union

WINSTON-SALEM, Nov. 6.—The petition of the Philippine Independent church for a limited union with the Protestant Episcopal church of America was approved today by the American church's House of Bishops.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

Molotov Tells Russian Nation Atomic Bomb No Longer Secret

BISHOPS APPROVE PHILIPPINE PLEA

Committee Votes Unanimously In Favor Of Limited Church Union

WINSTON-SALEM, Nov. 6.—The petition of the Philippine Independent church for a limited union with the Protestant Episcopal church of America was approved today by the American church's House of Bishops.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

Soviet Bloc Will Boycott Session

Forty-Three Nations Approve Plan Advanced By Sec. Marshall

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 6.—An overwhelming majority of the United Nations approved Secretary of State Marshall's "Little Assembly" plan today and the Soviet bloc promptly announced it would boycott such a year-around session.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

BISHOP TO OPEN MISSION SERIES

Rt. Rev. Karl Brock Of California To Preach First At St. James

Recognized as an eloquent speaker and much in demand all through the Episcopal church, the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Brock, bishop of California, will open a week's mission in Wilmington Episcopal churches Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at St. James church.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN AREA GETS SNOW

First Storm Of Winter Leaves Plain Region Under 8' Blanket

By The Associated Press The first storm of the winter brought snow and cold Thursday to Rocky Mountain and plain regions and was moving into the Midwest.

DAWSON RENAMED BY BROTHERHOOD

Dr. Roy A. Short Featured Speaker At North Carolina Conference

ELIABETH CITY, Nov. 6.—The Conference Brotherhood of the North Carolina Methodist Conference today reelected R. G. Dawson of Raleigh as president.

Elephant Accidentally Tramples Man To Death

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 6.—A 4,500-pound circus elephant fatally trampled its aged keeper in a baggage car today but as the dying man was carried to a hospital he said it was an accident and asked that the animal be spared punishment.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

CHERRY APPEALS FOR NEW CROPS

Tobacco Growers Urged To Diversify To Offset Export Market Losses

RALEIGH, Nov. 6.—Governor Cherry today appealed to tobacco growers in North Carolina's 48 flue-cured tobacco counties on the necessity of diversifying crops and livestock production at once to compensate for loss in income with reduced 1948 acreage.

CHLORINE BLAST KILLS SIXTEEN

Finnish Port Town Shrouded With Noxious Fumes; Forty-Nine Burned

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 6.—Smoke and deadly chlorine gas today still shrouded the West Finnish port of Raumo, where at least 16 workers died yesterday when a tank of liquid chlorine exploded in a pulp mill, setting fire to the factory and flooding the town with noxious fumes.

Along The Cape Fear

FIRST WILMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL—Planning soundly for the future, the Wilmington school committee devoted their attention to closing the gap between the grammar school education and the state university.

More WEATHER On Page Five

See HUGHES On Page Five

See WAGE On Page Two

See CHERRY On Page Five

See ROCKY On Page Five

See MISSION On Page Five

See MOLOTOV On Page Five

See SOVIET On Page Five