

SANFORD SERVICES SCHEDULED SUNDAY

Rites For Wilmington Army Officer Will Be Held In Laurinburg

The body of Lieut. Oscar Nolan Sanford, of Wilmington, who was killed in action in Belgium on Jan. 15, 1945, will arrive today in Laurinburg and funeral services will be conducted in Hillside cemetery there Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, members of the family said yesterday.

Lieut. Sanford will be buried with full military honors accorded by the Laurinburg post of the American Legion. The Rev. Guy C. Moore, pastor of the Southside Baptist church here, will lead prayer at the service.

Active pallbearers will be cousins of the deceased. They are Calder Shackelford, of Wilmington, L. T. Sanford, Jr., Blythe Sanford, Claude Sanford, Garrett Fields and John M. Maxwell.

The body will lie in state at the McDougald Funeral home from the time of arrival until the funeral services.

Lieut. Sanford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Sanford, of 16 Hudson drive, was a member of the staff of the Wilmington post-office when he entered the service in September, 1942. He went overseas in June, 1944, and was in command of an Infantry unit at the time of his death.

He was a member of Southside Baptist church and was active in the work of the Senior Fraternity of the Brigade Boys' club.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are his widow, Mrs. Grace McDaniel Sanford, of 519 Lamar avenue, Charlotte; a daughter, Lina Calder Sanford, and a sister, Mrs. V. C. McIntyre, of Wilmington.

City Briefs

George H. Parkham and H. N. Ratcliffe will address a meeting of members of the Wilmington Life Insurance association today at 12:30 o'clock in the Crystal cafe. A report on the National convention held in Boston will be heard.

The joint city-county hospital committee is scheduled to hold a meeting Monday to put the finishing touches on its report to the city council and board of county commission.

House That Wasn't There Taxed Nevertheless

KEENE, N. H. —For the past 20 years, the Kingsbury Manufacturing Co. has been paying taxes on a house that did not exist.

In 1927, the company planned to build two houses on Laurel Street and then built only one. But the concern failed to notify Keene tax assessors of the change.

Recently, company officials discovered it and demanded a rebate of between $700 and $1,000.

LABOR SUPPLY NOW AT LOWEST POINT DURING PAST YEAR

Brunswick, Pender, and Columbus counties have reached its lowest point of any period during the past year, but still exceeds the demand, according to William H. Powell, manager of the local employment office.

The present total labor supply in the four counties is estimated to be 3,500 which is a 30 per cent decrease over August.

Powell said that two-thirds of this supply is seeking employment through the local office with the greatest demands being for sales personnel and semi-skilled and unskilled workers.

The local office had 175 job openings at the end of October and the demand over the next two months is anticipated to be 700, of which most will be unskilled labor.

There is still an active demand for well-trained stenographers, salesmen, brick-layers, automobile mechanics, automobile body
