

Vivian Fisher, H. E. Gardner Married Here

In one of the loveliest weddings of the season, Miss Vivian Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fisher of Carolina Beach, became the bride of Henry Elbert Gardner of Angier and Carolina Beach. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ben B. Ussry, pastor of the Carolina Beach Baptist church on December 6.

Mrs. C. E. Cole played for the wedding music "Serenade", "Waltz in 'A' flat, and during the ceremony "To a Wild Rose". The traditional wedding marches being used for the processional and recessional. Prior to the ceremony Ted Prevette of Carolina Beach sang "I Love You Truly", "Because" and "Oh Promise Me". The church was beautifully decorated with southern smilax, ferns, palms, centered with a beautiful basket of snowball, white chrysanthemums. Tall candelabra on each side of the pulpit cast a soft glow.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her gown was of white satin, fashioned with high neckline, long pointed sleeves, fitted waistline. The skirt was very full extending into a long train, falling in graceful folds from the waist. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. The bride's bouquet was of lilies of the valley and gardenias, interspersed with fern, tied with white tulle.

The bride's attendants were dressed in pastel shades of blue and pink taffeta. Their bouquets were of tiny chrysanthemums of the same hues as their dresses, made in fan design. Each bridesmaid wore long pastel gloves and tiny flowers in their hair. Their only ornaments were pearls. The bridesmaids were Shirley Allman of Concord, Ella Moore and Lois Sly of Carolina Beach and Mrs. Rubv Sessions of Raleigh. Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Chris Dourdounas of Long Island City, New York, whose gown was of yellow taffeta made identical to that of the bridesmaids, and her bouquet was of lavender chrysanthemums tied with lavender tulle.

The bride's mother was dressed in a gown of blue crepe, with a corsage of red roses. Her accessories were black.

Thomas Overby of Angier, attended as best man. Ushers were Buddy Keller and Billy Walton of Carolina Beach and B. H. Thompson of Aurora, and Dusty Rhoades of Raleigh.

Little Miss Carolyn Sessions of Raleigh was sweet in her gown of white satin fashioned along the same lines as that of the bride carrying as flower girl a basket of white chrysanthemums, while Master Oscar Wilbur Davis, Jr., carried the rings in a small white satin pillow as ring bearer.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Sly, aunt of the bride, whose home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Donnie Ludwig received the guests who were ushered in the dining room where Mrs. Ruby Sessions presided at the punch bowl. Miss Ella Moore presided at the bride's book. Assisting Mrs. M. A. Sly in cutting the cake were Misses Lois Sly and Shirley Allman and Mrs. Audrey Dourdounas.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fisher of Carolina Beach. She attended schools in Salisbury and Wilmington and is a graduate of New Hanover High school. This past year she has been associated with the Southeastern North Carolina Beach association.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Angier High school and is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Pervis Gardner of Angier. He served in the Army Air Forces and is now employed by the B and M. company in this city.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. They are now residing at Carolina Beach.

MRS. WILLIAM JACKSON KEITH—Whose marriage was solemnized Saturday evening in Trinity Methodist church in Southport. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Keith was the former Elizabeth Anne O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Prince O'Brien of Southport. Mr. Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Keith of Sanford.

Miss Wandalee Wilson Becomes Bride Of John Franklin Wilson

The wedding of Miss Wandalee Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin Wilson of Lake Waccamaw, to John Franklin Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julien Franklin Wilson of Bolton, took place Friday, December 19, at 5 o'clock at the Waccamaw Baptist church, Lake Waccamaw. The Rev. E. E. Ulrich of Lake Waccamaw performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a high neckline and long sleeves. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and gardenias, tied with white tulle.

The bride's attendants were dressed in pastel shades of blue and pink taffeta. Their bouquets were of tiny chrysanthemums of the same hues as their dresses, made in fan design. Each bridesmaid wore long pastel gloves and tiny flowers in their hair. Their only ornaments were pearls. The bridesmaids were Shirley Allman of Concord, Ella Moore and Lois Sly of Carolina Beach and Mrs. Rubv Sessions of Raleigh. Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Chris Dourdounas of Long Island City, New York, whose gown was of yellow taffeta made identical to that of the bridesmaids, and her bouquet was of lavender chrysanthemums tied with lavender tulle.

The bride's mother was dressed in a gown of blue crepe, with a corsage of red roses. Her accessories were black.

Thomas Overby of Angier, attended as best man. Ushers were Buddy Keller and Billy Walton of Carolina Beach and B. H. Thompson of Aurora, and Dusty Rhoades of Raleigh.

Little Miss Carolyn Sessions of Raleigh was sweet in her gown of white satin fashioned along the same lines as that of the bride carrying as flower girl a basket of white chrysanthemums, while Master Oscar Wilbur Davis, Jr., carried the rings in a small white satin pillow as ring bearer.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Sly, aunt of the bride, whose home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Donnie Ludwig received the guests who were ushered in the dining room where Mrs. Ruby Sessions presided at the punch bowl. Miss Ella Moore presided at the bride's book. Assisting Mrs. M. A. Sly in cutting the cake were Misses Lois Sly and Shirley Allman and Mrs. Audrey Dourdounas.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fisher of Carolina Beach. She attended schools in Salisbury and Wilmington and is a graduate of New Hanover High school. This past year she has been associated with the Southeastern North Carolina Beach association.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Angier High school and is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Pervis Gardner of Angier. He served in the Army Air Forces and is now employed by the B and M. company in this city.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. They are now residing at Carolina Beach.

Miss Johnson, Mr. Maynard Are Married

The marriage of Miss Elsie Johnson, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Miller and the late Leonard Johnson of Barnesville, to Benjamin D. Maynard, of Wilmington, son of Mrs. E. E. Maynard of Council and the late Mr. Maynard, took place on Sunday afternoon, December 14, at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the Rev. R. L. Alexander in Lumberton.

The bride wore a brown Glenn plaid suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride is a graduate of Barnsville High school and Lucille's Beauty School in Greensboro. Up until her marriage she was co-owner of the East Lumberton Beauty shop.

Mr. Maynard is connected with the Wilmington Star-News Engraving department.

The couple is residing in Wilmington.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore announce the birth of a daughter, Linda Gray, November 21, at the Marion Sprunt annex, Mrs. Moore is the former Miss Dulith Long of Shallotte.

ENGAGED TO MARRY—Miss Margaret Ellen Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Parks of Wilmington, whose engagement to Midshipman Wade Hampton Harris, USN, is announced today by her parents. Mr. Harris is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Pinckney Harris of Charlotte.

Nell Scott, Mr. Sandifer Are Married

The simple and impressive wedding of Miss Nell Scott, daughter of Walter L. Scott and the late Mrs. Scott, of Rocky Point, to James H. Sandifer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brady. Her selections were "A South Carolina, was solemnized at Riley's Creek Baptist church, Saturday afternoon, December 6, at 5 o'clock. Dr. C. R. Taylor, pastor of the church, officiated using the double-ring ceremony.

The vows were pledged in front of a lovely setting of long-leaved pines, seven branch candelabra holding cathedral candles and tall flower baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Proceeding and during the ceremony a program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. B. J. King of the troth "Liebestraum Melody of Love", "Ave Maria" and "Schubert's Serenade". William V. Best sang "O Promise Me" just before the sounding of the "Wedding Marche" (Lohengrin). During the plighting of the troth "Liebestraum" was softly played. "The Prayer Perfect" sung by Mr. Best was used as the benediction. The strains of the triumphant Wedding March" from Midsummer Night's Dream (Mendelssohn) was used for the recessional.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. For her wedding attire the bride chose a wool suit of winter white, with which she wore brown accessories. She wore a corsage of talisman roses.

Miss Kay Raynor, of Wilmington, cousin of the bride, attended as her maid-of-honor, wearing a suit of navy blue with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mr. Sandifer had as his best man, his brother, Cecil Sandifer, of Wilmington.

Mrs. Sandifer graduated from Long Creek-Grady High school after which she attended Campbell college, Buie's Creek. Since then she has held a position at the New Hanover County Health department.

Mr. Sandifer, who is now associated with the Ward Funeral home, here in Wilmington, is a former student of Connie Maxwell Children's home in Greenwood, South Carolina, and a graduate of Edgefield High school in Edgefield, South Carolina. He served two and one-half years in the U. S. Navy.

Immediately following the ceremony, friends of the couple were invited to the reception at the home of the bride. The traditional bridal decorations were used and during the evening Miss Eleanor Moore cut the cake. Miss Betty Scott poured punch. Miss Allegra "Kit" Blackham and Miss Eunice Keith assisted in serving.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip in Western North Carolina.

They are now making their home in Wilmington.

Kathryn Wagner, W. M. Sharpe, Jr., Wed In Church

LUMBERTON, Dec. 20.—The marriage of Miss Kathryn Elizabeth Wagner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Henry Wagner of Lumberton, to William Morris Sharpe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sharpe of Durham, took place at the First Presbyterian church here December 1, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. R. L. Alexander officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown of white moire satin brocaded in wool was fashioned with sweetheart neckline edged in lace, long pointed sleeves and full skirt extending into a train. Her veil of illusion outlined in lace was attached to a tiara of seedpearls, and she carried a prayer book showered with lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Mary Jo Wagner, as maid-of-honor and Miss Lou Ellen Smith of Wilmington, bridesmaid. Miss Wagner's frock was of blue moire taffeta with flocks of pink, and she carried a colonial nosegay of mixed flowers tied with pink satin ribbon. Miss Smith was attired in pink net and lace, and her nosegay was tied with blue satin.

Mrs. Sharpe attended school in Kirksville, Missouri, where the family formerly lived, and Flora Macdonald and N. C. State Colleges. She is now taking training as an X-ray technician at Watts hospital in Durham. The bridegroom served in the Army Medical Corps for some time.

Trinity Church Services Slated

The 11 o'clock worship service at Trinity Methodist church will be featured by special music and a message by the minister, the Rev. Edgar B. Fisher, on God's Great Gift. Anthems will be THE SHEPHERD'S CHRISTMAS SONG by Dickinson.

and since completion of an X-ray technician course at Watts Hospital is employed with Camp Butler hospital.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception and cake-cutting at the Presbyterian Church House.

son, JESU BAMBINO by Yon. The Christmas carols will be sung by the congregation.

At 5 o'clock a White Christmas service will be observed. The message will be brought by Bobby McKenzie, a ministerial student at High Point college. Nancy West will sing O HOLY NIGHT and Miss Bea Holmes will give WHY THE CHIMES RANG. Offerings of non-perishable foods and money for the Methodist orphanage at Raleigh will be laid on the altar by the entire Church school.

Sunday, December 28 at the evening worship Student Recognition day will be observed at Trinity Methodist church. Students at home for the Christmas holidays will be in charge of the service.

Mr. Fisher, the pastor, and Mrs. Fisher will be at home for the students attending college, the afternoon of December 28 at the Parsonage, 1908 Access street, from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

For Newspaper Service Dial 2-3311

Buy Your CHRISTMAS TREES TODAY!

J. F. KLEIN
SINCLAIR SERVICE
12TH And Market Streets

A Timely Tip From Santa Claus and GRAHAM APPLIANCE CO.
1106 Market St. Dial 9803

Need home appliances? SEE NORGE BEFORE YOU BUY

Nobles-Cheanult Vows Announced

Mrs. M. E. Buckner announces the marriage of her sister, Rebekah E. Cheanult, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Cheanult of Willard, to Homer Hoyt Nobles, on of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nobles of Chadbourn. The wedding took place on December 4 in Marion, S. C.

The bride wore a soldier blue suit with black accessories. Her only ornament was a necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Nobles received her education at Wallace High school and East Carolina Teachers college in Greenville. Mr. Nobles attended Chadbourn High school and during the war served three and a half years in the army. They are residing in Willard.

Letitia Rebecca Cancels Meeting

The Letitia Rebekah lodge will not meet Thursday, but will hold its next regular meeting January 8, Dr. Mary J. Layton said Saturday.

For Newspaper Service Dial 2-3411

GRAY HAIR NEWS

No More Dyeing?

Science's startling new Vitamins for restoring natural color to gray hair can now be had as Nix Vitamins. No more dangerous hair dyeing or tiresome rinses. Nothing artificial. These Vitamins as described by national magazine apply harmless anti-gray hair Vitamin substance to your system. Simply take a day until graying stops and hair color returns thru roots. Age 22 up—don't look old before your time. Get Nix Vitamin tablets today. Don't wait.

No Mail Orders Accepted!

Efid's DEPARTMENT STORE
33 NORTH FRONT STREET

Holiday Charm

EVENING BAG
As Pictured
Black Satin with jet beaded trim
$6.50

VOLUPTÉ COMPACT
Fan-Shaped and beautifully designed—An ideal gift.
$5.98

EVENING BAG
As Pictured
in Black or White with Sequin trim.
$7.98

VOLUPTÉ COMPACT
As pictured in silver and gold.
$3.98

JUNIOR FORMALS
Dinner Dress of white crepe with sequins on shoulder — Beautifully draped — Stunning Appearance — To add that Holiday charm to your wardrobe. $29.98

Wonder Shop
33 NORTH FRONT STREET

FLOWERS for CHRISTMAS
CUT FLOWERS — Easys, Carnations, Gladioli, Chrysanthemums, etc.

BLOOMING POT PLANTS — Poinsettias, Cyclamen, Primroses, Begonias, Christmas Cherries etc.

COSSAGES of — Easys, Carnations, Gladioli, etc.

Wreaths, Sprays and Baskets for the cemetery

THE BLOSSOM SHOP
Corner Front & Dock Sts.—Dial 2-0381

Just Received!
Last Minute Shipment

LADIES'
Very Sheer NYLON ROSE
Glamorous Nylons

The KIDDY SHOP
604 Castle St. Dial 2-8454