

Miss Collins, Mr. Jamison Are Married

The marriage of Miss Laura Gwendolyn Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling D. Collins and James Franklin Jamison, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jamison of Mooresville, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, at 5 o'clock in the Winter Park Baptist church.

The ceremony was performed before an altar banked with palms, chrysanthemums, southern smilax, and cathedral candles. The Rev. T. H. King, officiated.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. D. P. High played a program of nuptial music, and Mrs. L. W. Brinson, soloist, sang several selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a bertha of chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystal sequins, a fitted bodice, and a full skirt ending in a circular train. Her full length veil of bridal illusion fell from a halo of chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried an arm bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Joe I. Miller was matron-of-honor and wore a gown of peacock blue moire with a fitted bodice and full skirts with a bustle. She wore a halo of illusion, and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids, Miss Dorothea Quetch Jones, and Mrs. Ray S. Moore of Knoxville, Tenn., wore dusty rose gowns and hats identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried bouquets of lavender chrysanthemums. Junior bridesmaids were Jean Vereen and Gwen Lou Vereen. They wore dresses in light blue, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Flower girl, Judy Matthes, wore a pink dress and carried a basket of blue and pink flower petals.

Gilbert Jamison of Kannapolis was his brother's best man, and ushers were Joe I. Miller, Sam Fincher of Florence, S. C. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony.

The bride's going-away suit was of gabardine. She wore black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Jamison is a graduate of Mars Hill college and the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina. Mr. Jamison is a graduate of the Berry Schools, Rome, Ga.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included: the Rev. W. Francis of Tyner, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Jamison of Kannapolis, Miss Eugenia Jamison of Mooresville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fincher of Florence, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sloop of Mooresville, Harry A. Sloop of Mooresville, Mr. and Mrs. R. Atkinson of Fairmont, Mrs. Gwendolyn Franklin Moore of Knoxville, Tenn., and Betty Muldrow of Darlington, S. C.
