

Raleigh Personals

BY VIVIAN MCLENDON

Mr. and Mrs. Orange Lee Perry are visiting relatives in the city. They reside in Chester, Pa., and Mrs. Perry is the former Miss Martha O. Walker of 303 Fayetteville St.

Southern Albert L. Hamlin of the U.S. Army has returned to complete his training after visiting parents and wife here. He is training to become a Pharmacist Mate.

Miss Lewis of Lincoln Park has returned to the city after visiting her daughter in Washington, D. C., who has been very ill.

Sgt. Richard Wimbley has returned to his station after visiting his parents in the city.

Little Miss Mary Louise Smith of 425 South Swain Street has been ill on several days with a cold. Hurry and recovery continue.

One friend of Rev. Spencer of South Tarboro Street and family express their sympathy to the family in the death of their infant son who passed on Sunday night.

Miss Minnie Harris of 141-2 W. Cabarrus Street has returned home after visiting her daughter in Fayetteville, N. C.

Miss Jamie Jones of 123 South Swain Street has returned to Washington, D. C., after visiting here during the death of her sister, Mrs. Walter.

The Rev. S. F. Daly, principal of the Northampton County Training School in Garysburg, N. C., visited his family over the week end.

The Fourth Ward Floral Club held their monthly meeting Tuesday January 30th at the home of Mrs. Ruth Davis.

After the business of the meeting the club was served a fruit salad, crackers, tea and cake by the hostesses, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Blanchard Dover. Two quilts were given to the hostess made by the club members.

Those present were: Madames, Mary Lane, Lorraine Davis, Roberta Parin, Mary Williams, Laura McLean, Sallie Gray, Hattie Johnson, Janie Taylor, Constance Anderson, Estelle Baskerville, Richmond Jones, Elsie Glenn, Blanchard Dover, Lula Davis, Mary Johnson, Misses Elizabeth Pugh, Helen Jackson and Pearl Evans.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mable Davis and Mrs. Lula Davis.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mable Davis and Mrs. Lula Davis.

OBELIN ROAD NEWS

BY ANN MORGAN

Mrs. Pearl Wilcox has returned to Montelair, N. Y., after visiting her mother and friends in Raleigh, N. C.

Sgt. Worth Smith of Fort Jackson, S. C. spent the week-end with his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Smith at her home on Joint St.

Miss Ruth Trice and Mary W. Turner of New Bern were in the city over the week-end.

Mrs. Mary L. Wilson of Scotland spent the week-end in this city.

The Ladies Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Lily Kates on Monday night.

The Home Guards Club met with Josephine Trice on Monday evening.

On Tuesday evening the Triangl Club met at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Webb. A delicious repast was enjoyed by all.

On Wednesday evening the Wesleyan Club held its regular weekly meeting with Forrest Wilson.

Miss Jessie Houston has returned to the city after attending school at Lake Arrowhead, Calif. Jessie is the daughter of Mrs. Jessie Houston, who is a patient at St. Agnes Hospital.

Miss Katherine Logen of Fayetteville Street is convalescing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Emma Walker, 901 Fayetteville Street, after being a patient at St. Agnes Hospital.

Mr. T. C. Jeffay of Winston-Salem, C. S., editor-owner of the Winston Journal, was in the city Sunday.

Misses Eva Bradford, junior, of the Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina at Greensboro, was recently voted the typical need of the institution in an enthusiastic contest conducted by the entire student body of nearly a thousand.

The effort to select Miss Coed was sponsored by the YWCA as a part of its contribution towards securing funds with which to construct a "Y" hall on the campus of the college in the memory of its students, who as members of the armed forces are giving their all in the defense of God, Justice and humanity.

AKA Sorority Observes Founders Day Feb. 3

Misses Eva Bradford, junior, of the Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina at Greensboro, was recently voted the typical need of the institution in an enthusiastic contest conducted by the entire student body of nearly a thousand.

The effort to select Miss Coed was sponsored by the YWCA as a part of its contribution towards securing funds with which to construct a "Y" hall on the campus of the college in the memory of its students, who as members of the armed forces are giving their all in the defense of God, Justice and humanity.

DRIVE IN CLEANERS

BY MAY L. BROADE

Group No. 1 of the Ruth Memorial Council sponsored a drive on Sunday February 4th at the Administration Building in Davis Hall.

The program consisted of a selection by the United Choir Society under the direction of Mr. Herbert Towns. Edward Christen and Sonder was followed by the Scripture lesson read by Mrs. Edna Fostor and 23 Psalms, Played by Mrs. Ethelene Massie, Second Grade, "How Amazing King Al" at which an instrumental solo, "I Would Be True" by John Barrett, then a solo by John Barrett, then a solo by Ruth Braggs and Ruth Watkins. The closing selection was "On Behalf of All" by the Choir. Our absentees, Barbara Massie and Susie Jones were in charge of the program.

After the program, Miss Lulu Brooks, the social chairman, served a delicious repast of punch and home-made cookies.

Miss Edward Norwood of 8 Chapel Way honored her husband on Sunday, Feb. 4th with a surprise birthday dinner. A few friends helped him to celebrate. Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Smith of Washington, D. C. are visiting their mother, Mrs. Zella Freeman, 24 Chavis Way. Mrs. Smith is the former Miss Theodosia Freeman.

JANUARY MARRIAGE STATISTICS

RALPH — The office of the Wake County Register of Deeds disclosed, during January, 58 marriage licenses — 47 white, and 11 Negro couples.

Just prior to the main feature of the afternoon, the Biddle Sisters helped him to celebrate. Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students. (3) To work in cooperation with the General Alumni in some major project for the college.

Those present were: Madames Anna J. Syde, Mrs. Vanderlin, Edie Davis, John Hagan, Peari Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Burnette. The air was very enjoyable.

Miss Roy Lucas and children of 12 Chapel Way have returned to the city after spending several weeks in Baltimore visiting Mrs. Lucy's mother, Mrs. Smith.

Pvt. Eugene Wally is home at a few days visiting his family at 12 Grandview Terrace.

Mrs. Mabel Osborne of 4 Hyde Terrace is much improved after being indisposed for several days with influenza.

The first prize, a beautiful etched crystal cake plate, was presented to Mrs. Alma Williams for top score. The sorority prize, a beautiful etched crystal fruit bowl, was presented to Sister John Dolany.

Among those present were Misses Patricia Stewart, Edie Davis, Margaret Bugay, Mildred Jordan, Maye E. Ligon, Gwendolyn Moore, Anita Stewart, and Madames M. M. Lithgow, D. C. Pettiford, L. F. Perrin, E. B. Little, D. C. Quarels, A. T. Williams, A. M. Lexington, N. B. Inborn, Dora Oley, L. P. Canady.

There were slight damages to the Army vehicle. The car was badly demolished.

The accident was investigated by Deputies R. M. Saunders, R. L. Atkins, and T. S. Matthews.

At the last regular meeting of the club adopted several objectives for the year: (1) To make the club a bigger club. (2) To increase the local scholarship fund so as to provide additional scholarships for Raleigh students.