CHAVIS HEIGHTS

BY MAY L. BROADIE

Mrs. Geneva Phillips of 8 Hyde Terrace celebrated her birthday recently. Mrs. Annie J. Syde, and her grand mother, Mrs. Anna Edwards, were dinner guests for the occasion. Her birthday, Mrs. Phillips.

Little Miss Carol Mack of 8 Edgewood Terrace was slightly injured Monday afternoon while playing at the play ground. She was struck accidentally by the swing, knocking out two teeth and a cut on her lip and forehead. We wish for her a quick recovery.

Mrs. Evelyn Wesley of 10 Ashe Terrace was rushed to Agnes Hospital last Saturday. She was reported as better. All friends are glad to hear that she is improving.

Mrs. Martha Perry of 7 Franklin Terrace is spending a few days in Wilmington, with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Richardson.

Mrs. Josh Hunter of 11 Smith Plaza is a patient at Saint Agnes Hospital. Mrs. Hunter is the former Miss Rosa Clark of this city. Hurry and get well, Mrs. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pulley and children and Miss Marguerite Greene of 10 Franklin Terrace, will leave for Wilmington to spend the week end with Mrs. Pulley's sister, Mrs. Mark Richardson.

Little Miss Dolores High of 7 Chavis Way has been sick and confined to her home for several days. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

JGS Club News

RALEIGH — The Junior Girls Supervisors Club of Chavis Heights Center entertained a few friends with a wicker roast and dance which was planned to be at Chavis Park, but due to the weather it was at Chavis Heights Center on Saturday the twenty eighth of April. Our favorite song played was "Dreams" by the Pied Piper. Soft drinks were donated by Mr. Wiley Latham.

Guests present: Miss Margaret Jones, Mr. Claude Jones, Leon Lawson, Melvin Glenn, James Hinton and Sylvester Watson. Members present were: Misses Brunhilda Lawson, president, and Mrs. E. H. Gould, Mrs. Laura Wimberly, Miss Dorothy Lane, Mr. Hubert Towne, the late Mrs. Mary Christmas, St. Augustine's Girls Service League, St. Annes Auxiliary and Christ Church, St. Annes Auxiliary of the Church of the Good Shepherd Church, Women's Fellowship club of St. Ambrose Church, Raleigh Chapter of the Hampton Club, YWA Club of the First Baptist Church, H. E. Class of Shaw University.

The gifts included cash, subscriptions to magazines, used clothing, actors, pencils, stuffed animals, yellow and construction paper, candy, linen, paper towels, refreshments, books, magazines, a house and lot, an egg hunt, Indian clubs and rulers.

All of these gifts and services have not only helped to continue and extend the program but have been an inspiration to the board and staff.

The gift of the house and lot was a legacy left in the will of the late Mrs. Mary Christmas to the Center. The property is to be sold and the proceeds therefrom used to erect a room for working girls in memory of Mrs. Christmas's daughter, the late Mrs. Catherine C. Weatherford. Mrs. Christmas was a member of the Mother's Club. This is the first legacy left to any member agency of the Community Chest of Raleigh.

V-E Day Observance At Bloodworth Street USO Sunday, May 13th

RALEIGH — In keeping with the President's Proclamation of V-E Day, it was announced last night by Wesley F. Taylor, Director of the Bloodworth Street USO Club, that the local club would hold a special observance program at the club Sunday, May 13, at 6:30 p. m. As plans had already been affected for a Mother's Day celebration on Sunday at the club, at which time a special tribute is to be paid to the American War Mothers of Raleigh Chapter I, the V-E observance is being held at this particular time, Mr. Taylor adds.

The special program is under sponsorship of the Girls Service Organization of the Bloodworth Street USO Club. Miss Laura Brown is president of the organization.

Invitation to this special program is extended to the general public.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Pearl Snodgrass and family wish to thank those many friends for the kindness shown them during the illness and passing of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cherry Williams.
