NAB 2 AS TRAIN ROBBERS

Washington (ANP) — Two Negroes are under arrest and a third is sought by week, when a south-bound freight train just out of Washington was robbed in an approved wild west fashion and an unidentified amount of bottled whiskey removed from the car. James Brown, 36, of Baltimore, and Rufus Williams, 32, of Alexandria, violation of the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage law. Williams was released in $3000 bond for a hearing Monday in Fairfax County, Virginia. Meanwhile, federal action against the pair, charging them with theft from interstate commerce, appeared likely. The FBI said it was waiting the action of the U. S. attorney before lodging detainers against the men. The whiskey was shipped from Brooklyn and consigned to the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control board of Richmond. The arrest was made by Capt. Paul S. P. and a team of five. P. and P. captured the two men. The two men were released. The Lorton man said he was serving the sentence in the vicinity of the train robbery when he saw a train off the main road on a pathway that leads into a swamp. Picking the path with truck he was stopped. Detainers were over to his brother said it con-

JURY SELECTION BALKED IN POLICE RAPE CASE

MEMPHIS (ANP) — Justice trembled on a "cross of prejudice" here last week as 50 or more white men publicly admitted that in a case involving a Negro and a white person they could not be fair to the Negro. This development was enacted in the first division of criminal court when Atty. Gen. Will Gerber sought to empanel a jury to hear charges against two former Memphis policemen accused of criminally assaulting two Negro girls on August 2nd. In a courtroom crowded to overflowing with Negro and white spectators who had assembled to hear the case, not a single juror was obtained from a panel of more than 200 veniremen. To Gerber's oft-repeated questions: "Could you give a Negro justice in a case involving a white man?" "Do you have racial prejudice?" and other queries of similar nature, the replies were uniformly in the negative or affirmative, indicating a feeling of prejudice to Negroes. It was necessary to set the trial date up several weeks in order that a special venire of 250 persons can be summoned for another attempt at a jury selection. Defendants of the charges placed against them by the two Negro girls are J. W. Terry, 27, and B. J. Lewis, 26, both of whom resigned from the police force following accusations against them. Gerber declared: "I want to make

COL. JOHNSON URGES USE OF JOB TRAINING OFFER

Washington (ANP) — Colonel Campbell C. Johnson, executive assistant to the director of the National Selective Service, urged Negro veterans in an address Sunday to take advantage of the billion dollars worth of education that is available to them annually now and use it to equip themselves for long-range postwar jobs. The colonel's address highlighted a special veterans' observance during which war trophies and souvenirs were displayed and servicemen of World War II were presented peace awards in recognition of their contribution to the restoration of peace in the world. Among those who received these awards were Col. Johnson, former Sgt. Joseph E. Albright of the Veterans' Administration, who represented Gen. Omar N. Braden at the observance, and the Rev. G. Dewey Robinson, pastor of Campbell and a former chaplain.

Col. Johnson delivered a practical information address which touched on many problems of vital interest to veterans. He urged the veterans to take advantage of the educational opportunities offered under the GI Bill of Rights. He said: "The government is willing to spend up to $1,100 a year for the education of each man and woman who served in this war. That would amount to over a billion dollars a year for Negroes alone. More money than has been available for the education of all Negroes since the Civil War."

The colonel emphasized the importance of vocational training. Pointing out that in our rapidly changing technology, it will be necessary for men to have such training five, or 10 years from now in order to get or hold a job. Turning to loans and government insurance, Col. Johnson warned the veterans against dropping their insurance and against hasty decisions in obtaining a loan under the GI bill. He said that many servicemen may never again be able to get insurance at rates and in amounts equivalent to the government insurance they now hold and, therefore, should hang on to it. As for loans, the colonel said:

FEDERATION OF YOUTH MEETS IN LONDON

LONDON — Two colored delegates from the United States were among the eight from America placed upon the Council of the newly organized World Federation of Democratic Youth, formed here at the close of the 12 day meeting of youth delegates from 63 nations. The Negro Council members are: Elmer Cooper of the NAACP and Elmer Cooper of the Southern Negro Youth Congress. Other United States Council members are: Elmer Cooper of the NAACP and Elmer Cooper of the Southern Negro Youth Congress. Other United States Council members are: Elmer Cooper of the NAACP and Elmer Cooper of the Southern Negro Youth Congress.

Mr. Current, who is the executive of the NAACP, said: "The NAACP is a joint agreement between organized labor and management of the Labor Management Conference now in session to accept and utilize 'all of our labor supply without regard to race or creed' as advised by the D. C. Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at a membership meeting held on Sunday, November 18th, at the John Wesley AME Church.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — With the seizure of the Capital Transit Company by the office of Defense Transportation under orders of President Truman, the NAACP has urged that the DOT proceed to employ persons without regard to race or color.

Gov't Urged To Break Color Line In Capital City Transit Jobs

WASHINGTON, D. C. — With the seizure of the Capital Transit Company by the office of Defense Transportation under orders of President Truman, the NAACP has urged that the DOT proceed to employ persons without regard to race or color. The FEPC found that the Capital Transit Company which operates the buses and trolley cars here had announced a policy of non-discrimination in its employment policies, but in practice did not follow this policy. Despite the FEPC hearings the company has continued to maintain a lily-white policy so far as trolley and bus operators is concerned. The NAACP telegram to President Truman follows: "Your seizure of Capital Transit system makes possible and necessary following out of state policy of company and union before hearing held by Committee on Fair Employment Practice of hiring all persons qualified regardless of race, creed or color. We urge you direct Officer of Defense Transportation put into immediate practice stated policy by hiring qualified Negroes."

SEABOARD SUED IN MOTHER-CHILD BEATING

NEW YORK (ANP) — Attorneys acting at the request of the International Labor Defense have filed suit for $25,000 damages against the Seaboard Air Line railway for complicity in the beating up of a Negro woman passenger and her infant son, it was announced Tuesday.

Mrs. Nina Beltran of New York and her five-year-old child were the victims of the assault, which occurred near Hamlet, N. C., Aug. 7. Mrs. Beltran was traveling to Columbia, S. C., with her child. Because there was no seat for her and her child, Mrs. Beltran stood in the aisle. The conductor repeatedly ordered her and the child to move into the jim crow car. Because there was no seat for her and her child, Mrs. Beltran stood in the aisle. The conductor repeatedly ordered her and the child to move into the jim crow car.

Mother and son were finally physically pushed into the jim crow coach, where they stood the rest of the way to Columbia, S. C. At Columbia, Mrs. Beltran was so ill that she went to the station agent, who, realizing the responsibility of the railroad for her condition, arranged for her hospitalization for nearly two weeks at railroad expense. Mrs. Beltran, who is still in bed, is still under medical care because of the injuries she received at that time. Samuel Shapiro, of Newburger, Shapiro and Rabinowitz, filed the suit on behalf of Mrs. Beltran.

The first in this case was not unusual, Louis Colman, T.D. secretary, said in announcing filing of the suit. "If they were, it would not be so important. These cases of brutal brutality against Negro people in the enforcement of the barbaric segregation laws of our southern states are all too common. It is the duty of every citizen to stand up for the rights of the oppressed."

WASHINGTON — In violation of War Department order No. 97, the commanding officer at Ft. Benning, Georgia, has allowed rigid jim crow practices against Negro soldiers, it was charged here last week by the NAACP in a letter to Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson.

The NAACP letter charged that Negro soldiers "have been bodily thrown out of the camp cafeteria and that in the soda shop they may only purchase ice cream cones to take out. Other charges are: Negro soldiers are discouraged from using the main post theater which is a modern, air conditioned building seating 1,500 persons; men only through machines.

Refused To Give Up Seat In Colored Coach

NEWSPAPER STORY SAVES ACCUSED FATHER

Memphis (ANP) — Rev. A. L. Turner prominent minister and business man of Memphis, after being forced off his train at Shreveport, La., while enroute to Dallas to attend a CME conference, finally reached his destination short of both money and valuable time as the result of a pernicious jim crow practice, it was learned this week. The conductor on a Texas and Pacific passenger train had Rev. Turner arrested when the minister, observing that there was only standing room in the "colored coach," asked him to move to a coach assigned to white passengers. Apparently resenting the request, the conductor called a police officer and had the minister taken from the train. Rev. Turner, a minister at Shreveport for two years, a day, and was released from a stern school for two days. The minister's "trouble" cost him $17.50, and he was charged $10 as counsel fee. In a statement made at the station, the minister said: "I was not guilty of anything. I was only asking for a seat. The conductor refused to give me a seat. I was forced to stand in the aisle.
