

Continued From Page 1

MINISTER ARRESTED FOR VAGRANCY

was quoted as saying Negroes did not have any business voting.

According to the arrested man, the officers took him upstairs to take out a warrant, only to be told that he would not be arrested for failing to register.

The warrant sworn out by Deputy Sheriff W. H. Baker, said that the accused "wandered and strolled about in public places and solicited support from Negroes."

An investigation however, showed that the accused was first arrested by the police on a charge of vagrancy.

PROBE FIERY CROSS BURNING IN SOUTH GEORGIA

Clay is the president of a club that was responsible for the high registration among Negroes in Bibb County.

Shirley Peace said that he knew of no cases here where efforts have been made to prevent Negroes from voting.

VEFS TO SEE TWO CHICAGO BOILER

Chicago legal counsel has been instructed to file suits against the Continental and Stevens hotels.

The refusal of these hotels to allow the USAVA hall on space for its testimonial dinner.

BILBO ELECTION TERMED 'FRAY'

By his action in the past and his conduct during these elections Sen. Bilbo has brought the name of our senate into disrepute.

FIGHT WAGED OVER TOM BROWN'S BODY

Brown, a claim of delivery was served on the Shaw Funeral Home but the Shaw brothers refused to release the body.

FIGHT WAGED OVER TOM BROWN'S BODY

Brown, a claim of delivery was served on the Shaw Funeral Home but the Shaw brothers refused to release the body.

HASTIE ACTS TO HOLD PRICE CEILINGS IN V. I.

He advised President Truman by radio of actual taking here of strong support of local consumers.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS

Cherry said the United States is one of several nations invited to Liberia for the 50th anniversary.

SHAW PROF. DRAGGED

the white youth here said. This Dr. Young refused to do Dr. Young invited the youth to sit down beside her.

Nashville Women Intervene

When the women of Nashville learned of the humiliating incident that the bus driver and the policeman had heaped upon Dr. Young.

Group Praises Herndon

Atlanta (ANP) - Atlantans celebrated the birthday of Atlanta F. Herndon, pioneer business leader.

Released On $200 Bond

Plummer R. Richards, former endorsement secretary of the North Carolina Old Fellows and prominent Nashville citizen.

Monday, July 15. Dr. Young is a graduate of Howard University, Washington, D. C. and holds a Master's Degree from Chicago University.

She was ordered to meet trial on Monday, July 15. Dr. Young is a graduate of Howard University, Washington, D. C.

LAURENBERG MAN SLAYS 4 WHITES; BURNS FARMSTEAD

and then shot the baby. Lowery was shot when he was walking into the kitchen. A 20 caliber automatic rifle was the weapon.

McLoud then pointed a revolver from a bottle he had been carrying in his pocket over the head of the baby.

Shirley Reynolds said that McLoud had been taken to a jail in another county for safekeeping.

WORLD STUDY GROUP ON TOUR

SHANNON, Ireland (ANP) - The first World Study Tour unit, a 20-man group of Americans.

They arrived in London on the first stop of a journey which will include England and several European countries.

They are making up the group, arrived partly by plane and partly by boat.

Rev. Williams, pastor of Arbuty Methodist church in Washington, D. C., is English literature and to human relations at Olivet College.

Rev. Williams, in the plane party, described the trip by air as "a 45 minute layover in Newfoundland."

Others in the party include Charles Adams, New York lawyer and lecturer of the New School for Social Research.

GARVEY WIDOW DUE IN STATES

Baltimore (ANP) - Mrs. Amy Jacques Garvey, widow of the late Marcus Garvey, founder and president general of the UNIA.

The oldest, Marcus Garvey, Jr., now 15, already shows signs that he will visit friends in Toronto and Montreal.

Mrs. Garvey's return to America after an absence of 18 years is twofold to consult specialists here and in Canada on her health.

Named as delegates were James T. Taylor, Raleigh; Mrs. Rose Aggrey, Salisbury; and Isaac H. Smith, New Bern.

Group Praises Herndon

Atlanta (ANP) - Atlantans celebrated the birthday of Atlanta F. Herndon, pioneer business leader.

When the women of Nashville learned of the humiliating incident that the bus driver and the policeman had heaped upon Dr. Young.

Named as delegates were James T. Taylor, Raleigh; Mrs. Rose Aggrey, Salisbury; and Isaac H. Smith, New Bern.

When the women of Nashville learned of the humiliating incident that the bus driver and the policeman had heaped upon Dr. Young.

Named as delegates were James T. Taylor, Raleigh; Mrs. Rose Aggrey, Salisbury; and Isaac H. Smith, New Bern.

"INTERSTATE PAPERS LAUNCH NATIONAL SURVEY"

Interstate United Newspapers, Incorporated, Publishers' Representative, recently entertained their publishers at a noon luncheon at the Hotel New Yorker.

Above is the speaker's table. Reading from left to right are: Mr. William G. Black, Sales Manager of Interstate, Mr. E. J. Pullard, Manager of Interstate's Chicago Office.

Interstate United Newspapers, Incorporated, Publishers' Representative, recently entertained their publishers at a noon luncheon at the Hotel New Yorker.

Walter Baker Photographs

SOUTHLAND LEAD IN MURDERS

MEMPHIS (ANP) - That the South leads the nation in the number of murders committed in 1945, according to FBI records.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

Va. Baptists Offer Plan

Lynchburg, Va. (ANP) - The Virginia Baptist State convention under its new unification plan adopted at the annual session of the organization at Newport News June 28-29 is looking forward to the establishment of permanent headquarters here at Virginia Theological seminary and college.

The unification plan calls for a streamlined program for the convention with year round activities among the affiliating churches and religious groups in the organization which is headed by

Dr. E. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., who is pastor of Metropolitan Baptist church. Greater financial support of the Lynchburg institution is one of the objectives of the plan.

Special Term Starts In Summer School

HAMILTON INSTITUTE, Va. - A special term in the Hamilton Institute summer school starts on Monday, July 9, when 400 work-study students get under way.

The unification plan calls for a streamlined program for the convention with year round activities among the affiliating churches and religious groups in the organization which is headed by

Dr. E. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., who is pastor of Metropolitan Baptist church. Greater financial support of the Lynchburg institution is one of the objectives of the plan.

Special Term Starts In Summer School

HAMILTON INSTITUTE, Va. - A special term in the Hamilton Institute summer school starts on Monday, July 9, when 400 work-study students get under way.

The unification plan calls for a streamlined program for the convention with year round activities among the affiliating churches and religious groups in the organization which is headed by

Dr. E. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., who is pastor of Metropolitan Baptist church. Greater financial support of the Lynchburg institution is one of the objectives of the plan.

Special Term Starts In Summer School

HAMILTON INSTITUTE, Va. - A special term in the Hamilton Institute summer school starts on Monday, July 9, when 400 work-study students get under way.

The unification plan calls for a streamlined program for the convention with year round activities among the affiliating churches and religious groups in the organization which is headed by

Dr. E. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., who is pastor of Metropolitan Baptist church. Greater financial support of the Lynchburg institution is one of the objectives of the plan.

Special Term Starts In Summer School

HAMILTON INSTITUTE, Va. - A special term in the Hamilton Institute summer school starts on Monday, July 9, when 400 work-study students get under way.

The unification plan calls for a streamlined program for the convention with year round activities among the affiliating churches and religious groups in the organization which is headed by

Dr. E. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., who is pastor of Metropolitan Baptist church. Greater financial support of the Lynchburg institution is one of the objectives of the plan.

Special Term Starts In Summer School

HAMILTON INSTITUTE, Va. - A special term in the Hamilton Institute summer school starts on Monday, July 9, when 400 work-study students get under way.

The unification plan calls for a streamlined program for the convention with year round activities among the affiliating churches and religious groups in the organization which is headed by

Dr. E. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., who is pastor of Metropolitan Baptist church. Greater financial support of the Lynchburg institution is one of the objectives of the plan.

Special Term Starts In Summer School

AMEZ BISHOP LAID TO REST

PITTSBURGH, Penna. - High dignitaries of the AMEZ church world paid their last respects in Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon to Bishop Eli Lovett Madison, who was buried from Wesley Center AME Zion church.

Bishop Madison died last Thursday at his home, following a long siege of illness. He was buried from the church for which he was responsible for building AMEZ officials came from many sections of the country to pay homage to the highly esteemed leader and beloved minister.

Among those who paid their last respects were: Bishops F. A. Wallace, B. G. Shaw, W. J. Walls, C. C. Alleyne, John W. Martin, W. W. Slade, B. F. Gordon and F. W. Alstork. General officers in attendance were: Dr. George F. Hall, financial secretary; H. T. Medford, foreign missions secretary; Dr. James W. Eichelberger, religious education secretary; and Dr. W. J. Trent, president of Livingston College.

Senior Bishop B. G. Shaw was in charge of the service, and the eulogy was delivered by Bishop W. J. Walls.

Bishop Madison is survived by five brothers, eight children - two sons and six daughters - seven grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. Interment was at Allegheny Cemetery.

Save Your Waste Fats!!!

WINTER CLOTHING Should be properly cleaned before storing

Check your wardrobe today Protect your investment Call 6437

Complete Dry Cleaning Service for the ENTIRE FAMILY

Peerless MASTER CLEANERS & DYERS, Inc.

Main Plant—516-520 Fayetteville Street BRANCH BRANCH BRANCH

CONDENSED STATEMENT MASTER CLEANERS & DYERS, Inc.

Main Plant—516-520 Fayetteville Street BRANCH BRANCH BRANCH

CONDENSED STATEMENT First-Citizens Bank & Trust Co.

AS OF THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS JUNE 29, 1946

RESOURCES Cash in Vaults and Due from Banks $ 15,146,726.24

U. S. Government Securities (Direct and Fully Guaranteed) $56,396,285.62

Federal Housing Authority Obligations 211,162.50 State Bonds 6,712,501.72

Municipal Bonds 9,836,962.02 Federal Land Bank Bonds and Other Marketable Securities 8,230,333.87

Accrued Interest 461,266.98 Loans and Discounts 22,402,130.99

Customers' Liability on Letters of Credit 75,000.00 Banking Houses, Furniture and Fixtures and Building Site—Less Depreciation 372,256.82

Commercial Building Corporation Stock 1.00 Other Assets 6.00

LIABILITIES Capital Stock Preferred 330,000.00 Common 450,000.00

Surplus 3,300,000.00 Undivided Profits 250,978.55

Lawyer Out Election

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

By O. B. TAYLOR, Knoxville (ANP) - Atty. Carl A. Cowan became last week a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy on the Knox County court.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.

When it comes to crime of violence against the person, murder and aggravated assault, the South is way out ahead of all other sections of the country.