Congressman Powell and Dr. W. E. B. DuBois Slated to Address Meeting

Occasion To Mark First Recent Debut of Speaker

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — It was announced this week from the offices of the Southern Negro Youth Congress in Birmingham that Congressman Adam Clayton Powell and Dr. W. E. B. DuBois are scheduled to speak at the Southern Youth Legislature in Columbia, South Carolina on October 18, 19, and 20.

This occasion will marx the first time in recent months that Powell has spoken in the South. The attention of both white and Negro Southerners will be focused on the Congressman who has been noted for his fearless attacks on the racism and white-supremacy ideology of the Bilbos and Rankins in Congress.

In addition to his outstanding service as a member of the House of Representatives, Congressman Powell is also the pastor of the largest membership Protestant Church in the world, Abyssinia Baptist Church in New York. He is the author of a current widely-read book on the Negro, "Marching Blacks," and is the publisher of the New York weekly, "The Peoples Voice."

Sharing the spotlight with Powell will be Dr. W. E. B. DuBois. Dr. DuBois will be honored at the closing session of the Southern Youth Legislature with a special gift, in recognition of the untiring service he has given in the cause of Negro liberation.
