

SANFORD NEWS

Security Lodge No. 686 and Morning Star Temple No. 681 B. P. O. E. of W. held their financial drive last Friday evening at Blaudonia Presbyterian Church with a very fine program being rendered by the famous Silver-tone Gospel Singers under the direction of Mrs. Onie L. McLeod, with A. W. Jones, financial secretary of Security Lodge, as master of ceremony.

Mrs. Anaelet McIver, who headed the daughters was the winner of the contest, while M. B. Waddon who was captain for the bills was the loser.

The reports were made by Dr. J. E. McMillan, pastor of the church. The amount being approximately $225.00. Daughters, $111.00 and the bills $104.00, the balance was paid by the audience.

Remarks were made by Exalted Ruler, Rev. J. M. Garrett, Daughter Ruler, Mrs. L. E. Montee, Mrs. Anaelet McIver, and Mr. A. W. Jones. A dress was put on Mr. M. B. Waddon for letting the Daughters beat the bills.

A Halloween Party was given by the Boy Scout Committee Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall in the interest of their drive. Lee County's quota being $4,000.00. A large number of the boy and girl scouts were present to enjoy the evening.

At the regular worship service last Sunday evening at Fair Promise Church, Mrs. Missouri Moore was elected delegate to the C. N. C. Conference which convenes in June, November 26 to December 1st. Bishop N. W. Matthews will preside. Dr. Y. C. Elliott, pastor of the First Baptist Church (white) of the city and Mrs. Elliott, and Mrs. Yarbora of the same church gave very helpful addresses on Missions last Sunday afternoon at the Wall Street Baptist Church of which Rep. A. F. McCleare is pastor.

The visiting guests were introduced by Mrs. Luvenia Budge. Music was rendered by the Twilight Music Club.

Mrs. L. C. Crommartie was mistress of ceremony.

The financial drive at Fair Promise AME Zion Church last Sunday was quite a success.

A few weeks ago a $2,000.00 effort was staged by the membership with twenty captains to raise $100 each. All the captains did a fine piece of work.

Mrs. M. V. Wicker led all the reporting the highest amount, $180, with Mrs. L. E. Monroe, second with $140. The goal was two thousand dollars, the amount reported last Sunday, $1660.86, with three captains to report later. The pastor extended the time two weeks at which time the balance will be reported.

The drive was under the direction of Mr. W. B. Wicker who boosted the same.

Rev. R. H. Johnson is the progressive pastor who has put over a big program during this conference year.

Messrs. Eugene McIver, Thomas Phillips, Thompson Hooker and Chester Stuart spent Sunday in Maxton, as guest of Rev. L. A. Rutledge, pastor of the AME Zion Church and attended the morning worship. They reported a most enjoyable service.

The many friends of Rev. E. P. Johnson regret to learn of his death last Saturday at his home on Odd-fellow Street.

Rev. Johnson, approximately 70 years of age, has been in declining health for several months, but was taken seriously ill three weeks prior to his death.

For a number of years he pastored some of the leading churches in the AME Zion connection, but at the time of his passing, he was connected with the Congregational Church.

He was also affiliated with the local Masonic Order who will attend the funeral in a body. At this writing, funeral arrangements were incomplete.

'LYSISTRATA' ENDS BROADWAY RUN

NEW YORK (NNPA) — "Lysistrata" failed to give a performance the night of October 21, at the Belasco Theatre, thereby terminating an abbreviated Broadway career.

The show opened October 17 under the auspices of Max J. Jelin and James Light with an all-colored cast after experiencing some financial difficulties that temporarily delayed the production.

It quits the local scene with four performances to its credit. Until late October 21 the producers had hoped to continue the run because of a spurt in business over the week end, but decided otherwise at the last moment.

The Aristophanes classic, adapted by Gilbert Seldes, was headed by Etta Moten, in the title role; Rex Ingram, as president of the Senate; Fredi Washington, Leige Whipper, Mildred Smith, Mercedes Gilbert and Emmett Babe Wallace. Mr. Light staged the offering, for which Henry Brent wrote some original music.
