Down Colonade Way
 BY ALLEN

Once upon a time you could find nothing but the "ELS" at Club Colonade, but it isn't that way now. The "big shot" plus the "litterbug" is crashing the place every week end. The cause — good music, good food and good service.

Saturday night, June 14th, the house was packed. Johnny Holloway and his boys furnished the music. There wasn't room for the dancers on the little dance floor. What about a little more room Mr. Manager? Can't you see these people want to cut loose and get some fun out of this?

The Booker T. Washington Club met last week at the home of Mrs. E. Perrell 4 Chavis Way, with the president, John Chavis, presiding. Delicious repasts were served. Next week it will be held at the home of Mrs. Chavis on Tarboro Road on June 22.

Mr. John Chavis of 324 South Tarboro Road has gone to New York to accompany his sister, who makes her home. The Chavises will arrive Thursday, June 19.
